Chapter 651: Still not going to scam?

Zuo Fangping believed that he had already shown his most humble behaviour as he weighed every single word he said, in order not to cause any displeasure to that white robed man.

But even after this, there was still a frivolous smile on the other man's face.

"Just now you said that you were forcing yourself on that lady, and now you say there's no such thing. Which sentence is the truth? From what I see, nothing you say is true, you're intentionally..... making a fool out of me!"

The white robed man had started off with a smile but when he spoke till the end, his intonation suddenly changed and it suddenly became cold like ice!

"No! No..... it's not like that... please listen to my explanation....."

Zuo Fangping was frightened by his stern tone until his back was filled with sweat and as his legs gave way, he kneeled onto the ground.

White robed man snorted coldly as he suddenly used his hand and held Zuo Fangping's chin.

He gave a dull groan "Wuu"!

A clump of blood spewed out from Zuo Fangping's mouth and he covered his mouth with his hands as he started unbelievably at the white robed man, his face filled with terror.

Shortly after, he coughed and spat out a chunk of his tongue from his mouth.

He opened his mouth making an "ahh ahhh ahhhh" sound several times but he could only give out some blurry noises, not even able to say a single word clearly.

The white robed man replied coldly, "I have been in seclusion here for quite some time because of the serene and quiet environment. I had never expected that because of you wreaking havoc here, not only have you caused me a major headache, you have also ruined an entire furnace of Nine Transformations Turnabout Pill which I had been refining for eighty one days! Cutting off your tongue is just a small punishment. If you dare to appear in front of me again, don't blame me for taking your life!"

Zuo Fangping begged mournfully with a "wu wu" sound as blood kept dripping from the corners of his mouth.

White robed man asserted, "Still not going to scam??"

His voice was soft as though whispers to a lover's ears but this made Zuo Fangping's sweat profusely.

He couldn't bother about the extreme pain in his mouth and turned around in a flurry as he grabbed Huang Yueli's clothes in an attempt to bring her along.

White robed man said again, "Why? Don't understand what I'm saying? She stays, you scam!"

Zuo Fangping lowered his head as he looked at Huang Yueli longingly. He had spent a substantial amount of skills before he managed to catch this crafty lass.

However, before he could kill her, he was asked to leave her there?

But his Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill was a dark attributed heaven grade cultivation method and since Huang Yueli had already been inflicted by his dark attributed Profound Energy, he gauged that going mad would be a matter of sooner or later.

If there was anyone in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent who could save someone who's conscience who had been invaded by the dark attributed Profound Energy, it would only be the number one Divine Doctor Liu Buyan.

It was impossible for other people.

So even if she remained behind, her death was imminent!

With this in mind, Zuo Fangping no longer hesitated and hurriedly let ditched Huang Yueli, the soles of his feet seemed to have been anointed with oil as he speedily left the forest!

White robed man didn't chase after him, or even cast him a single glance. Instead he walked to the front of Huang Yueli and squatted down.

Huang Yueli's consciousness was now ninety percent blurry, with barely ten percent still lucid.

She could vaguely feel that Zuo Fangping had already been chased away by the sudden appearance of this white robed man!

She knew that she was not going to hang on any longer. But now that things have come to such a pass, if she felt indignant if she were self-explode here.

However, the white robed man lowered his chin and stared at her for some time with no signs of movements, or even any intention to save her.....

Chapter 652: You stuffy old fox

After a while later, Huang Yueli felt that her head was about to split open from the pain and was not going to hang on any further.

She finally moaned and spoke intermittently, "Save..... me..... please.... Save.... Me....."

"Save you?"

White robed man leaned in a bit closer, seemingly enjoying her tormented expression.

"Why should I save you? What benefits will I gain from saving you?"

Huang Yueli cursed silently in her heart. If he wasn't prepared to save her, then why did he raise out his hands and obstruct? And even chased away Zuo Fangping? Did he have nothing better to do?

However under the current situation, she didn't have any stand to be arrogant so she could only talk terms with good grace.

"Save me.... I.... can give.... you.... money, and.... Profound Armaments.... Pills...."

When white robed man heard, he lifted his head back and laughed heartily, as though he was laughing at her ignorance and stupidity!

"Money? How much can you possibly give me? I'm not in need of money! Profound Armaments, Pills, however much I want, I have it all! You're intending to use those worthless items which you can find on the streets to exchange for your life?"

Huang Yueli was pushed back by his words as she thought with indignance: What did this fellow mean? Fooling around with her?

By now, she had more or less understood Zuo Fangping's feelings earlier. This mysterious white robed man's words could really kill a person!

"Then you.... why did you.... save me?"

White robed man gave a low laugh as he said, "I saved you.... perhaps it was because I wanted to see the effect of the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill! As everyone knows, only very few dark attribute geniuses are able to master the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill and it is very rare to encounter someone who is affected by this skill to not have its effect blown up yet. So I wanted to bring you back as a specimen so that I can observe how the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill takes effect!"

"You...." Huang Yueli was rendered speechless.

The white robed man shifted himself next to Huang Yueli's ear and spoke in a low voice.

"How is it? Have you considered already? If you're willing to be my clinical trial test kid, then I can bring you back. Perhaps in the middle of the clinical trial, you might have some dog sh*t luck and encounter some medication which might just restrain the dark attributed cultivation method which may give you a one in ten thousand chance of living!"

When Huang Yueli heard what he said, she went completely silent.

Such a black-bellied and sinister person was not commonly found. Based on the white robed man's power and the way he talked, it reminded her of a particular someone....

Huang Yueli's heart surfaced a guess, and she instantly got excited as her heartbeat increased by several counts.

She used all her determination and tried hard to open her eyes and take a look to see who was that person in front of her!

But the more she tried, the blurry her vision became as an increasing pain filled her brain!

That was why she was not able to see the person clearly.

Until the moment before she fainted, not knowing if it was due to a sudden spurt of activity before collapsing, the face before her suddenly became clearer.

A seemingly familiar face appeared right before her eyes.

Huang Yueli blinked her eyes as she wasn't able to tell at that moment, that the person in front of her was real or just an illusion!

She couldn't help but blurt out: "Liu Buyan.... You.....stuffy old fox....."

Before she could finish her words, her eyes rolled backwards as she fainted.

The white robed man was stunned for a moment and following that, he agitatedly got up and pounced onto Huang Yueli.

"What? What did you call me earlier?? How could you possibly know who I am? Wretched lass, wake up and speak clearly!"

Chapter 653: She cannot die yet

The white robed man tugged on Huang Yueli's collar as she was repeatedly shook and swayed but Huang Yueli was in a deeply unconscious state so no matter how much he called her, she could not wake up.

In reality, the consequence of this concussion would highly likely end up in death, which would result in her really sleeping forever!

He realised this as well and after shaking her for a while, he put her down.

He mumbled to himself, "Th... how could this be possible? How could she be the same as that person, to call me by that disgusting nickname? This is obviously an insult to my character and power! This wretched lass looks very young, so how on earth would she know the term stuffy old fox? In the past, only that person would call me by this name....."

The Liu Buyan whom Huang Yueli talked about was the number one Divine Doctor in Soaring Heavens Continent, and the number one Pill Master!

The white robed man who had appeared in the forest was Liu Buyan himself!

Besides Huang Yueli, no one else would address him in that way.

However, that talented and beautiful lady in his memory had passed on for many years now. Her soul had dispersed and she would never be able to return to his side ever.

Liu Buyan shut his eyes as his gaze turned dark, gloomy and unfathomable.

Even so, just that familiar appellation brought back many memories in his heart and touched the deepest scar hidden deep within his heart.

He silently looked at Huang Yueli for a couple of minutes and realised that her facial colour had gradually turned steely green, dark attributed Profound Energy was going to invade her rationale completely.

Liu Buyan outstretched his hand and pressed against Huang Yueli's chest.

Looking at this little lass, she cannot die yet!

He instilled a large amount of Profound Energy into her dantian and based on his strong and pure earth attributed Profound Energy, it tussled against dark attributed Profound Energy.

Although it could not get to the root cause, but at least it could prevent the Profound Energy from spreading and it would also stabilise Huang Yueli's condition, temporarily stopping it from worsening.

He struggled for a moment but still bent down his waist and carried the young lady as he walked towards the direction of the deep end of the forest.

By the time Huang Yueli woke up in a daze, it was already the second day's afternoon.

She shook her head and felt that her brain was still painful as though it was about to explode. Besides that, she could see bouts of darkness, as though she might faint any moment.

She used her hand to press on her temples and it was after an amount of time before she felt slightly sober and could barely see the things in front of her.

She was actually in a room. Although the room was not too big, but it could be seen that the Master of the house had put much thoughts into the delicate décor, unconventional and yet not too lavish.

Huang Yueli sized up her surroundings and still felt muddled momentarily.

A clinking sound came from outside of the room as the room door was opened by someone.

A white robed man walked into the room from the outside.

When Huang Yueli saw his face, she opened her eyes wide with shock.

This man was actually someone she was rather close to in her past life — Number one Divine Doctor Liu Buyan!

At the same time, the memories from before she fainted came flushing into her as she suddenly recalled. So, when her conscious was muddled, that white coloured silhouette that she had saw was not her imagination from her delirious state, but something that had actually happened.....

“You.....”

Huang Yueli had intended to say something but she was cut off by Liu Buyan.

“Little lass, consider your good luck that my mood isn't too bad today so I made the sudden decision to save you. But don't be too happy for now!”

Chapter 654: The cynical Divine Doctor Liu

Liu Buyan slowly walked nearer as a cooling frivolous smile hung on his face. His vision stopped briefly on Huang Yueli's face and followed downwards from her neckline as his gaze swept one round.

Huang Yueli instinctually felt something was amiss, lowered her head immediately and realised that the top most buckle had loosened, revealing a graceful shapely collarbone and a large portion of her delicate skin near her bosom could also be seen.

This was just too embarrassing!

She hurriedly sat up and tried to buckle up properly. However, she had overestimated her current condition.

The minute Huang Yueli moved, she felt a sense of dizziness and before she could sit up properly, she fell head down towards the ground.

Oh no! Would she break her head? Why was she in such a miserable state today!

Yet, the scenario of her head smashing against the ground did not happen as a powerful source of energy circled around her body.

Following that, her body floated to mid-air and banged heavily against a rock hard chest.

Under the acute shock, her already dizzy head had now become completely blank as she was so dizzy until she could not even raise up her head. Even when her eyes were shut tight, all she could see in her vision were countless shooting stars.

“If you wanted to throw yourself into my arms, say so earlier. Why bother using such tricks?”

She could hear a coquettish laugh from a man’s vocals beside her ear and that tone was indescribably filled with evil intentions.

Huang Yueli was seldom so dazed and totally could not react to his words, “... what?”

Liu Buyan continued, “I’ve seen lots of women who throw themselves at me but if you’re intending to use this method to compensate me for saving your life, it’s not that I won’t consider this possibility, but.... just tell me straight. There’s no need to use this kind of ‘fake falling’ trick?”

In Huang Yueli’s confused mind, she managed to retain some rationale.

After hearing what he said, her expression turned green almost immediately.

Even after ten over years, Li Buyan still haven’t change his ‘shit eating’ habits.

In her past life, Liu Buyan was temperamental and had a cynical attitude which was rather well-known.

The number of people who begged Liu Buyan to help treat them were innumerable but as he had a weird temper, unless the other party were good friends like Mu Chengying, otherwise even if the other party brought a priceless treasure to seek consultation would also meet with difficulties.

The worse of all was not only the terms that he had laid out were harsh, sometimes even if the other party had met with his requests, he might not even gave them a consultation and it would entirely depend on his mood.

When he was in a bad mood, he went back on his words quite often.

Because of this, Liu Buyan had offended quite various powerhouses in Soaring Heavens Continent, and he belonged to the detested type of people.

However, even though everyone hated him, but no one dared to be discourteous to him. When they meet him, they would still need to lower down their stance and pretend to be nice.

The reason was because Liu Buyan's medical skills were really beyond imagination. It could be said that for the past several thousand years, he had always been the Number one Divine Doctor in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent.

No one would dare to guarantee that there wouldn't be a day where they need his help so no matter how much they hated him, they would need to swallow their pride.

However, there was a type of people who would gain priority in front of Divine Doctor Liu.

~~~~ That was beautiful young ladies.

Liu Buyan was also well known for being a Casanova and as he was also one of the famous males and his ranking was just behind Mu Chengying, the number of young ladies who admired him were countless.

Chapter 655: Cannot bear to let any beauty disappointed

Mu Chengying and Liu Buyan were very good friends and often appeared together. Whenever the both of them appeared, it would often attract talented ladies from various major Sects who specially came to crowd around them or expressed their love.

Mu Chengying's character was extremely cold and to women other than Huang Yueli, he often looked and spoke harshly.

But Liu Buyan was completely different. Every single women who threw themselves at him, he would immodestly take liberties with them. He treated everyone with the same ambiguous attitude, causing many young ladies to shed tears because of him.

Besides that, Liu Buyan had a special way of doing things. That was if he fancied any beautiful woman, he would give a free consultation for the other party.

His only request was for that party to accompany him for an entire month and she must listen to all his demands and fulfil all his requests. Every single movement must be according to his wishes.

It was because of this regulation that he was castigate by many, some who hated him thought that he was a sex fiend who took advantage of people when they had fallen and using this as an excuse to soil his reputation behind his back.

Only those, like Huang Yueli or Mu Chengying, who were closer to him knew that reality and rumours were very different.

It was true that Liu Buyan had a filthy mouth and he often loved to take liberties with ladies.

Besides, as his character was wicked, his mouth was not always that cheap. When he was happy, all sorts of ambiguous sweet nothings would spill out, but when he was wicked, he could really infuriate one to death.

But if one was to say that he was frivolous, then that.... might not be so.

Huang Yueli sighed slightly as she recalled some things from her past life and the rage that was riled up by Liu Buyan seemed to have descended by quite a bit.

She bore with the dizziness and she clenched her teeth and said, "Can you don't be so narcissistic? Who... who would want to throw myself at you? I merely wanted to sit up, but.... I almost nearly fainted....."

"Really? This explanation seems to be real but you've already leaned against my chest for so long already and you still can't bear to get up.... Aren't you secretly hinting me or something?"

Saying that, Liu Buyan lowered his head as a smile hung on the corners of his lips and he gradually went nearer to her ear.

"You know, I cannot bear to let any beauty disappointed....."

Huang Yueli's lips twitched as she went totally speechless in her heart.

In the past when she heard Liu Buyan was frivolous but because she was Mu Chengying's woman, Liu Buyan did not dare to show her any disrespect.

Now that her identity had changed, when she heard what he said, she felt awkward to the max.

She used her strength and pushed Liu Buyan, speaking in an infuriated tone: "I've already said that I don't mean it in that way! If you don't want to make my disappointed, then scam further away!"

Huang Yueli moved backwards, attempting to sit back on the bed.

But this sudden movement caused her to almost fall down again.

Liu Buyan held out his hand in time as he held her waist.

"Little beauty, do you know what it means by your mouth saying yes but your heart saying no and rejecting your desire but actually welcoming it?"

Looking at Liu Buyan's expression that looked like a smile but yet not a smile, Huang Yueli almost wanted to throw up blood.

Why was the effect of this Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill so abnormal? Until now, not only was she not able to utilise her Profound Energy, she kept having dizzy spells making her unable to even stand properly!

Besides that, she had continuously made a fool out of herself in front of Liu Buyan. If he really misunderstood anything, then in future when they met again, won't she die of embarrassment?

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli felt that she must find ways to ascertain her identity just in case Liu Buyan develops any unnecessary misunderstanding.

Liu Buyan was also Mu Chengying's best friend. So if she was able to receive his help, then she would be able to return to Mu Chengying successfully!

Chapter 656: Very dizzy, extremely dizzy!

The only problem was, she needed to consider carefully on how to put this across.

After all, everyone in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent knew about her death in Northern Ice Fields.

After the soul had been dispersed, one would completely disappear from the surface of the earth, not even able to reincarnate. Hence in everyone's eyes, Huang Yueli had completely become a dead person.

If she were to jump out suddenly, claiming that she was a person who had died many years ago and was even Liu Buyan's old friend, there was a ninety percent chance that everyone's first reaction was disbelief.

After all, even Huang Yueli was unable to explain why she was able to reincarnate, and had even assume her current identity! No matter how one thought, it totally didn't make any sense but it had indeed happened.

Moreover, if Liu Buyan chose not to believe her, it wasn't that bad. But he might feel that it's some scheme that his foes had sent to deal with him.

If there was such a misunderstanding, don't talk about meeting Mu Chengying, she might even lose her little life here.

Liu Buyan was a genuine ninth degree realm expert and was a famous one at that. His temper and character had always been strange and if there was even the slightest disagreement, it wouldn't be strange that he might just kill her without any explanation.

Huang Yueli shut her eyes as she tried to think of a way out.

However, she was simply too dizzy to the extent that she was unable to think about anything properly.

Just as she was at a loss, suddenly, she felt two streams of high concentrated vision on her.

Huang Yueli hurriedly opened her eyes as she saw Liu Buyan staring at her, seemingly lost in his thoughts.

Seeing her open her eyes, Liu Buyan raised his brow as he said, "Why? Really that dizzy?"

"Not really dizzy, it's... very dizzy, extremely dizzy!" Huang Yueli's face turned pale as she felt she hadn't been in such a pathetic state for a very long time.

She was not exaggerating this round because her soul trace had always been stronger than most practitioners so and even if she was heavily injured, her state of mind would be clearer than most practitioner's consciousness.

But now that she was so dizzy, she felt that she was unable to think clearly. Had this situation happen on other people, they would have probably fainted over completely.

Liu Buyan didn't know what she was thinking so he looked at her in disdain.

"Woman, aren't you exaggerating just a little too much! If you were that dizzy, how could you still speak to me so clearly?"

Huang Yueli raised her head and looked into the sky as she went speechless.

So because her consciousness was too strong and she didn't faint immediately, and that was actually a mistake?

However, she indeed could not hang on any longer. She felt that she would faint any minute now, and within this short period of time, she would not be able to wake up....

Although Liu Buyan scorned her, but the expression on his face turned solemn.

He placed his fingers on Huang Yueli's wrist, checking on the condition of her pulse and Profound Energy in her body and even after a long time, he had not let go.

In fact, his expression had turned graver by the minute.

After some time did he release Huang Yueli's wrist as he spoke, "The dark attributed Profound Energy in your body had exceeded my prediction. Initially I thought that fellow was only a fifth degree realm practitioner and his Profound Energy was not as pure and he might not be able to bring the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill into play. But from the looks of this, he should be from a large Sect and have a certain amount of potential...."

Huang Yueli replied lethargically, "After saying so much, you.... are you able to cure me? If you can't... then... just say it straight...."

Chapter 657: Actually dared to doubt him in this way!

Liu Buyan was dumbfounded when he heard that and immediately after, his expression turned ugly.

The weak lass right in front of him was extremely immodest. She returned the ridicule that he had sent to her just minutes ago.

Earlier he said "if she wanted to throw herself at him, just tell him straight" and now her reply was "if you're not able to cure me, just tell me now", didn't this mean she was doubting his medical skill?

If this could be tolerated, then what else could not be!

In Liu Buyan's entire life, the one thing that he could not tolerate was someone doubting his medical skills!

He retorted grumpily, "Who says I can't cure you? I was just saying judging on your injuries, just based on taking pills alone would not be enough to eradicate the dark attribute Profound Energy in your body completely. As long as a little bit of dark attributed Profound Energy remains, the giddiness that you encounter will remain... so in terms of treatment, there are just some inconveniences!"

"Oh..."

Huang Yueli just replied with a single tone word.

Even though it was a short reply, but in Liu Buyan's ears, it was comprehended as thousands of words.

This wretched lass, did she think he was not able to understand what she meant? She did not believe in his medical skills at all and had thought that he was lying??

What a joke, were there any injuries that he, Liu Buyan, was unable to cure? To doubt him in this way! Where had the eyes of this woman gone to?

Oh that's right, a country bumpkin like this lass couldn't possibly know what an extraordinary person he was!

However, Liu Buyan's mood was extremely vile.

"What do you mean? Do you think I can't cure you? I'm telling you, it's just a fifth degree realm practitioner putting his Profound Energy to use on the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill only. Even if it was a ninth degree realm practitioner's arm, I can also cure! The reason why you feel so giddy is because I had not expected your cultivation to be that bad. If it had been practitioners with stronger power, they would not end up like you!"

"Oh..."

Huang Yueli still replied using the same single tone word.

Liu Buyan answered: "You, you, you.... simply trying to anger me to death! Since you don't believe me, then I will help to cure..."

Saying to this point, Liu Buyan seemed to have realised something and immediately shut his mouth.

He hastily corrected himself: "... If you don't believe me, then beg me. If you managed to make me happy and agree to my terms, I can consider giving you treatment."

Huang Yueli pouted her lips as she secretly thought this fellow's reaction was rather quick.

She did not want Liu Buyan to deliberately make things difficult so she taunted him.

She had some understanding of Liu Buyan's thinking and knew that when this fellow agreed to treat a patient, it was definitely not because he wanted to be a Saint, helping to tend to the sick and injured.

Other than treating his best friends or beautiful women, towards other people, there were several times when he agreed to the treatment, it was just to prove that his medical skills were the best malpractice and no one else were comparable to him!

On seeing Liu Buyan being angered to a certain point, she had thought that he would surely divulged by mistake and agreed to cure her!

However, the result was he was able to turn around at the critical moment.

But no matter, she had even more malicious talk waiting for him!

Huang Yueli shut her eyes as she replied, "You... do you think I'm an idiot? You obviously cannot cure me and still continue telling me rubbish. Anyway after I'm dead, you can say that it's not that you cannot cure me, it's because I didn't beg you....."

"You....."

Liu Buyan didn't expect that he would be despised to this degree by a young lass.

Her meaning behind her words was that by asking her to beg him, he was intentionally finding an excuse to hide the fact that he was not able to cure her!

Chapter 658: I've met too many scammers

As a number one Divine Doctor, did he need to do such a thing?

But in order to rebuke her and prove that he was able to cure her, could it be that.... he really had to cure her?

Of course, Liu Buyan was not really unwilling to help treat her. After all, this young lass was exactly the type of ladies that he admired and he had indeed not met... a young lady who made him feel the same as that person.....

Only.....

Only this lass had yet to kneel down and beg him for help! He had yet to haughtily throw out his terms to let her be his puppet doll for an entire month!

But how would he reply her? How could he reduce his terms like that!

Thinking of this, he suddenly seemed to recall something as his eyes shone.

"Young lass, the reason why you doubt my medical skills is because you don't know who I am, right? Let me tell you, I'm the only nine ranked Pill Master in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent and also a nine ranked Doctor, my name is Liu Buyan! As a practitioner, you must have heard of my name!"

"Liu Buyan ah....." Huang Yueli gave a blank expression.

Liu Buyan was secretly feeling delightful.

This was known as a man's name was equivalent to a tree's shadow. Once he revealed his name, this lass instantly paused? Knew that she was wrong? Knew that she had offended a Divine Doctor like him and playing a joke with her own life?

He finally felt that he gained some face back and lowering his chin, he continued, "Do you now understand clearly? For a dark attributed skill like the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill, once the Profound Energy had invaded your consciousness, it is extremely difficult to treat. I am the only one in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent who can treat this! If I'm not willing to heal you, then only death will await you!"

As Liu Buyan finished what he was saying, he haughtily shifted his vision away, waiting for that lass to apprehend his meaning and kneel and beg him for help.

By then, he only needed to add in a few more jeering and at the same time raise more demands, better if she was able to accompany him for a while longer, at least three months!

After all, he really felt that this lass was alike to that person... that..... person who he had hidden at the bottom of his heart for many years.

Moreover, among all the young girls whom he had met over the years, she was the most alike, not only in terms of looks, but also her tone of speaking, that witty and intelligent look were all so similar.....

However, Liu Buyan waited and waited but he didn't managed to wait for Huang Yueli's begging.

He held himself back and when he finally could not hold it in anymore, he turned around and realised that the little lass had already leaned against a pillow and shut her eyes, not knowing if she had fainted or fallen asleep!

"You.... wake up! What are you thinking about? Don't you want to live anymore? Do you even want me to treat you??"

Liu Buyan's expression turned steely green, feeling that he had been greatly insulted!

Huang Yueli spoke in a neither fast nor slow speed: "Oh please, Uncle, if you want to brag, please don't exaggerate too much! Don't all old men who want to abduct ignorant young lasses bluff by saying he is the Number one Divine Doctor Liu Buyan? I'm telling you, I've seen a lot of scammers like you that want to cheat people for sex or their money. If I were to believe you, I would just bump into a ghost! Anyway since I'm going to die, why should I beg you?"

"I..... you....."

At this moment, Liu Buyan almost couldn't breathe!

This lass actually treated him as one of those vagrant cheaters who were devoid of conscience!

After some time, he finally regained his composure and in an utterly discomfited tone he said, "Damn it! I said I'm Liu Buyan, so I am! Didn't you see this fan that I'm carrying?"

Chapter 659: Isn't this considered as narcissistic?

As Liu Buyan was talking, he extracted a fan from his waist and with a swish, the fan opened up.

On the face of the folding fan, besides a majestic atmospheric landscape painting, there was a massive "Liu" word. The character was in bold cursive calligraphy, giving off an unbridled and unrestrained feeling.

Even if Huang Yueli didn't look, she knew what that was.

This folding fan was one of the tokens which symbolizes Liu Buyan's statue, and in Soaring Heavens Continent, all those who had some experience would know who the owner of this folding fan was!

To Huang Yueli, this folding fan was more than familiar.

Because this fan was an article which she had personally refined that year, and it was a genuine ninth grade upper level Profound Armament!

The fan face looked like it was made out of the most ordinary scattered gold fine writing paper but in reality, she had used the nine dual petal violet leafed golden lotus in combination with various ninth grade materials, refining it for eighty one days before it was refined successfully.

Although it looked like it was brittle and thin, but in actual fact..... it was indestructible!

That was many years ago, Liu Buyan dragged Mu Chengying before her to help beseech for it.

Huang Yueli seldom spent so much energy to refine a ninth grade upper level Profound Armament and at that time, she was giving Mu Chengying some face while on the other hand, she thought that if she was injured one fine day, she would definitely require Liu Buyan's help.

Hence, she accepted this task and spent quite an enormous effort on it.

After this Jade Lotus Fan's shape had been set, its power was enormous and in combination to Liu Buyan's earth attribute Profound Energy, it was listed as one of the top ten Profound Weapon in the Soaring Heavens Continent's Weaponry Register.

After so many years, to be able to see the Jade Lotus Fan again, Huang Yueli was deeply moved.

But she did not reveal her thoughts. Instead she said, "Isn't that just a fan? Just taking a fan and you think you can pretend to be Divine Doctor Liu? Which vagrant scammer who pretends to be Divine Doctor Liu don't have a fan in their hands? Aren't you just trying to cheat me just because I've never seen the real Jade Lotus Fan? Tsk, you cannot be more fake than this!"

Liu Buyan almost threw up blood!

The people he normally met were basically from large Sects and their potential were pretty powerful.

It had been quite a number of years since he met someone with such a weak cultivation and a lass who didn't even have a discerning eye for things!

She, she, she.... actually didn't know what's was what!

It's not that he was a narcissist, but someone as charming as him, just one look and you'd know he's no ordinary man. No matter who saw him, one would probably suspect which sacred place did he hail from?

(Little Li'er: Damn, isn't this considered as narcissistic?)

Even after he had shown his Jade Lotus Fan, she was still showing that disdain and contemptuous look!

This was a ninth grade upper level Profound Armament! To a second degree realm practitioner like her, it would be her greatest honour if she could even take a look at it from afar. But yet, she still showed that dissatisfied look?

Had her eyes been smeared with shit?

Liu Buyan was completely infuriated now.

He stared at Huang Yueli's face as he gloomily said, "Right, since you don't believe that I can cure you, I shall intentionally cure you! Wait and see. I'll show you later if I'm the real Liu Buyan or not!"

Liu Buyan left these words and walked out of the room angrily in large strides, and even slamming the door as he left, letting out a "Bang" blare!

When Huang Yueli heard this rumble, her initial dizzy brain had started to hurt again.

"Damn, what kind of man is this? To treat a pitiful weak young lady like this? Does he still have any conscience left?"

Chapter 660: Too underhanded!

Huang Yueli grumbled in dissatisfaction, totally forgetting who was the one who had made Liu Buyan so furious in the first place.

But this was good in a way. Although Liu Buyan's character was slightly vile but his merit was that he was a man of his words. So whenever he had said something, he would definitely fulfil it.

No matter how unruly he was in the beginning, as long as he had verbally agreed to accept patients in the end, he would use all his might to cure that patient. No matter how much effort he had to put in, he would definitely continue with his treatment until the patient is completely cured!

Of course, this had nothing to do with professional ethics or out of sympathy. He was merely an arrogant person who cannot accept his name to be ruined.

Huang Yueli was rest assured as she laid on the bed, resting and waiting for Liu Buyan to start his treatment for her.

Only thing was she had a splitting headache and had originally been on the brink of concussion. She was relying on her willpower to hang on and now that she was finally assured, her conscious instantly started to become blur by quite a bit.

After not too long later, she had fainted once again.

By the time she awoke, the sky had already darkened and apparently it was already midnight.

The splitting headache seemed slightly better, at least she didn't keep seeing black spots.

Huang Yueli moved her wrists and suddenly, her wrists were held down by another person.

"Don't move! I've painstakingly helped you apply acupuncture and if you move and the needles have shifted, it doesn't matter if you die but if the news of me treating someone to her death were to spoil my reputation, are you sure you can take up this responsibility?"

Liu Buyan's tone was engraved with a deep vengeance. It was apparent that he had been suppressing the flames deep within his heart.

Huang Yueli had just woken up from her deep dream and realised that she had been turned face down and back facing upwards, lying on her stomach on the bed.

As for Liu Buyan, no one knew when he had returned and was sitting by her bedside. The joints on his fingers was holding on to a thing golden needle, slowly pricking into her arm.

“Wuuu... so painful!”

A peal of intense pain can be felt and Huang Yueli was caught unprepared, so she moaned out loud!

Liu Buyan stared at her chillingly, “Cry, cry, cry, what are you crying for? Just acupuncture and such a tiny wound, you still dare to cry! As a practitioner, don’t you even have the willpower to bear with this pain?”

Huang Yueli’s lips twitched as she realised that this fellow was doing it on purpose, nursing his grudge and exacting his revenge!

Looked like the things she had said to bully him earlier had made Liu Buyan mad.

Before Huang Yueli could say another word, another needle pricked onto her shoulder and the pain caused the sweat on her forehead to start streaming down.

This stuffy old fox.... He’s too underhanded!

Just as the third needle was about to be pricked, she hastily said, “You think I’ve never done acupuncture before? To feel such pain, you’ve obviously pricked the wrong acupoints! Like what I said, you must be a vagrant scammer. Just this acupuncture skills alone, any roadside true doctor would have better skills than you. You still dare to impersonate Divine Doctor Liu!”

“Do I need to impersonate?? Can’t you feel that the symptoms had already lessened? This Divine Doctor’s acupuncture will cure all illnesses, so stop talking nonsense!”

Liu Buyan had never expected that his deliberate vengeful way had not only not scare her, but it brought about a fresh suspicion!

Huang Yueli heard his exasperated tone and quietly laughed to herself.

She replied sulkily, “Since when? I still feel giddy? Moreover, the pain I feel had already masked all other senses! Even if I don’t feel giddy now, then it must be because of the pain which had diverted my attention away.”
