

Weaponsmith 71

Chapter 71: This Lord will accomplish it to the end

He gently shook his while displaying a helpless expression: "Why so impatient? I only drank one mouthful of water. I still haven't eaten anything yet....."

If looks could kill, the man would have long been cut like tofu from Huang Yue Li's glares.

Receiving something good, he opened his mouth: "But, since you want to know this badly, this Lord will tell you.

"Hurry up and speak!"

The man said: "You are very lucky. In seven days times, it will be the annual Thousand Treasure Pavilion Auction. It is the largest event in South Yue. And your items will be the final presentation for the event."

Thoughtfully, Huang Yue Li asked: "Annual auction?"

"Yes." Said the man, "There will be a lot of rare treasures on sale. Whether it's heavenly treasures or natural artifacts, and immortal pills or profound armaments, they will all be available. Numerous forces from neighbouring powers will arrive to participate in the auction."

With a look of distrust, Huang Yue Li asked: "You are certain that big clients will be present? In the case that no one recognises the items value, then wouldn't my armaments be worthless?" In regards to events such as auctions, Huang Yue Li was much too familiar.

As a Ninth Tier Armament Master in her past life, many of Huang Yue Li's works were auctioned off at astronomical prices.

As a result, she was too aware of how things worked.

The prices of items depended on the value of the item itself. But that value could rise and decrease exponentially with different marketing methods. With correct methods, they would definitely sell for much higher prices!

Therefore, for an Armament Master, it was essential that they chose the correct auction house to cooperate with.

Reaching out, the man tapped her small nose. Smilingly he responded to her: "What are you worried about? Rest assured, with this Lord present, you little money grubber will definitely earn your fill! Besides, refining those things are effortless with your ability. Is there a need for you to be so focused on the prices of those little things?"

"What do you understand?" Huang Yue Li rolled her eyes at him.

The "Nine Phoenix Transformations", this kind of heaven opposing technique required enormous resources. With the increase of each level in cultivation, the resources and spirit stones needed multiplied in the tens and hundreds of ranges.

Even if it was her past life, with such wealth sitting under her, she would still feel cold sweat on her back. Especially at the face of such an exorbitant demand.

This was simply burning money!

Can someone really gather enough materials and spirit stones and practice to the ninth transformation? Even the most wealthy man in the Soaring Heavens Continent, Ancestor Profound Ash Blade would be unable to finance that!

Worthy of being the best cultivation manual of a Great God Clan ah....

So in order to practice “Nine Phoenix Transformations”, she could not miss out on any money earning opportunity. She would try to plunder all available resources.

Due to this, she couldn’t even let off the Wu Wei Manor guards.

After all, even the smallest mosquitoes had meat.....

The man was oblivious to the calculations within her heart. But when he looked at her slightly raised chin, he felt that she looked really cute.

As he watched that arrogantly proud woman, with a little fox mind and a naturally intelligent personality, he could not pull his eyes away from her.

Even his tone carried much spoiling within.

“Good, good, good. In any case, if you want money this Lord will accomplish it to the end. I guarantee to help earn enough money.”

“Your words hold true?” Huang Yue Li smiled deviously, looking at him, “The amount that I need, is very, very large...a lot of money. Perhaps, you wouldn’t even be able to earn that much in your lifetime.”

Chapter 72: Depends on your behaviour

The man stared into her eyes, solemnly saying: “Then this Lord will accompany you for the rest of your life to earn money!”

When he spoke, his mouth also held a tempting smile. The sound of an alluringly sexy voice, temptation clearly felt. It seemed.....like something he casually said to coax the little girl in front of him.

But under his masked face, there was no doubt of his conviction.

However, Huang Yue Li could not see his face.

Even if she could see his face, Huang Yue Li would have never imagined the result. That this man would really accompany her to dig up every possible money source, earning money till it overflowed every pot and basin, walking by her side all the way to the peak.

Thus, Huang Yue Li only took the man’s words as a joke and didn’t put it in her heart.

She stared at the man for a moment, crying out: "Dream on! You want to continue working with me? Not so easy! The products that I produce at all top of the line and will only improve in quality! I have no worries in finding other business partners! You still wish to cooperate with me next time? I must first see your performance!"

Chuckling, his eyes wantonly travelled from her small face, slowing sweeping down to her white slender neck.

"I won't let you down, you can rest assured."

"That's good then. Seven days later, I await to see your performance."

Huang Yue Li raised her eyes and said: "Well, since you're finished, can you can go?"

Stunned for a moment, the man smiled and shook his head.

Why was it in this small fox eyes, he appeared so annoying? How many high-born and proud young ladies held secret longing for him? All trying every single means to become close with him?

But this little fox completely ignores him. She also couldn't wait to drive him away!

However, what was even more strange was that he didn't feel displeased. In fact, it made him eager to see her, to approach her....

"Why are you so anxious to drive me away? Destroying the bridge after crossing it, do you need to show it so blatantly?"

Huang Yue Li blinked her eyes, innocently smiling: "Lord Owner, what are your words? I want to give you a little more time, to properly prepare for the auction. So if influential buyers do not show up, you would not lose face!"

Secretly he smiled. How much did this little girl look down on people?

Isn't she just a Third Rank Armament Master? If no one were to buy her products, he was more than willingly to spend money for her.

But he couldn't disregard the fact, this little girl's refined armaments held outstanding quality. It would definitely sell for high prices.

Laughingly, he looked into the girl's eyes. His heart moving, he unknowingly closed their distance by a bit.

As Huang Yue Li had her guard up against him, when he neared her, she hurriedly stepped back.

The approaching hand, when it reached out in an attempt to brush her cheek, instead it only met with empty air.

Embarrassed, the man stood up, "Okay then. This Lord will first leave. Seven days later, remember to personally come to the auction. In case you say that this Lord had cheated you of your money!"

"Of course I must come to watch! I do not believe you!" Huang Yue Li stated naturally.

Looking at her: "Then this Lord will leave."

“Hurry up and leave! Could it be you want me to send you off?”

The man heard her words. Walking past her, the man reached out his hand and pulled her into his embrace.

As fast lightning, he lightly pecked Huang Yue Li's soft cheek. Immediately afterwards, he smiled widely: “No need to send me off little girl!”

Chapter 73: The remnant of Bai Liu Feng

That man was like lightning, disappearing in a blink of an eye.

This caught Huang Yue Li off guard. Not only had she been taken advantage of, but also made her heart feel stifled.

All the way until the next morning, she felt indignant.

As Cai Wei carried the breakfast over the next morning, she was shocked by her frustrated expression. She started to tremble with fear.

Seeing the tray of hot soup dumplings and jujube cake, Huang Yue Li's mood became a lot better.

Previously, the back courtyard did not have its own kitchen. As a result, they had to obtain their meals from the Main Manor. Unfortunately under the influence of the Manor Madam, this task became many times more difficult.

Every time, the meals consisted of cold leftovers.

As a reborn foodie, Huang Yue Li really could not bear the past few days.

Therefore, when she hired new servants, she especially selected a senior chef. It was rumored that the family's Grandfather Zeng had served in the imperial kitchen. His speciality was pastries.

After breakfast, Cai Wei suddenly stopped from a question after picking up the plates.

“That's right. Cai Wei, do you know.....if my father let behind anything for me before he went missing?”

“Ah?” Cai Wei was stunned for a moment, “Third Young Miss, why do you suddenly ask this? The Old Master left you a lot of things. I heard there are seven estates, more than a dozen shops, and quite a lot of gold, silver, jewelry, calligraphy scrolls and antique paintings. But due to your young age, the Manor Master assumed ownership over them....”

Replying by Huang Yue Li's side, Cai Wei carefully cast her a glance.

“Third Young Miss, it's all this servant's fault. I was not able to stop the Master, protecting those....”

“It's alright. I'm not asking you this.”

Huang Yue Li interrupted Cai Wei's words. As for things like jewelry, calligraphy scrolls and antique paintings, she didn't put them in her eyes. It was fine if he took them away.

She paused and asked: "I meant to say.....my father as the number one expert of South Yue, did not leave behind any immortal pills, materials, or Profound Armaments? Various techniques and skills?"

Cai Wei blinked and said: "This.....the Old Master had left some healing pills. They are kept on the shelves of the study. There are probably seven or eight bottles. But the Second Miss took many over the years, leaving only two bottles. This servant really.....this servant really doesn't have any recollection....."

Huang Yue Li frowned.

The pills Cai Wei mentioned, she knew of. But those were just first level upper grade Blood Clotting Pills. Towards ordinary people they are quite effective, but towards a high-levelled practitioner, their use was very limited.

According to her recently inquired information, Bai Liu Feng's name wasn't that powerful, but his power really was strong.

He was twenty-five years old when he went missing. At that time, he had reached the Sixth level of the Earth Profound Realm. Even in the Seven Sacred Lands, this was rare.

Moreover, Bai Liu Feng was born in a barren kingdom like South Yue. Resources and manuals were very scarce. These were harsh conditions, so reaching the Sixth level of the Earth Profound Realm at such a young, he was at the very least an eighth grade talent.

Such a character, left his daughter but a few pieces of ordinary jewelry, calligraphy scrolls and first level pills?

Huang Yue Li expressed her disbelief.

Moreover, it was clear that Bai Liu Jing and Bai Ruo Qi did not believe it either. That resulted in their cross-examination of Bai Ruo Li, in an attempts to find the true treasures left behind.

Huang Yue Li pondered a bit and asked: "Well, Cai Wei think a bit harder. When my father left, he really left nothing for me? Not even a little object like a key of some kind?"

Cai Wei shook her head: "Key? This servant has no impression."

Chapter 74: Smash everything for me

Huang Yue Li stared into her eyes, saying: "Is that so? Try again?"

She used her Piercing Sky Eye technique, lightly influencing Cai Wei's subconsciousness.

Cai Wei's pupils suddenly blurred up.

But after a while, she shook her head, "Third Young Miss, this servant really has no memory!"

Huang Yue Li knew she did not lie. Waving her hand and said: "Okay then, I know. Go rest."

After Cai Wei left, Huang Yue Li eyes closed for a while to think. She then went to the yard.

The back courtyard no longer had its dilapidated appearance. Ever since the large recruitment of servants, the yard underwent a transformation. Not only were the designs from Huang Yue Li's, but many beautiful flowers and plants were planted.

As the maidservants saw Huang Yue Li walk out, they paid their respects to her.

"Greetings to Third Young Miss!"

"Paying respects to the Third Young Miss!"

Huang Yue Li called a few servants over, pointing to a rock garden in the northeast: "The few of you, go destroy that rock garden for me!"

"What?"

They looked at each other, thinking they misheard.

That rock garden had existed for quite some time in the back courtyard. It could be considered one of the main features. Just smashing it like that?

Huang Yue Li repeated: "You did not mishear. Go destroy that. It has been some time since I passed the cultivation technique to you. Seeing that you have trained well, yielding good results, yet you can't even smash a rock garden?"

"This servant dares not. Please wait a bit Third Young Miss, we will go immediately!"

The Third Young Miss taught them precious cultivation techniques, this kindness was too great. It was equivalent to giving them a new life.

As a result, all the servants treated Huang Yue Li as their god. Swearing their eternal loyalties to her, not daring to disobey her.

Before long, the small pond sized rock garden became a pile of gravel.

The servant came back to report: "Third Young Miss, this servant has finished. Which master landscaper do you wish to invite to redesign it?"

Huang Yue Li shook her head, "No need. Go smash that too!"

The next person looked back and found that the Third Young Miss was referring to the West Wing's corridor! This corridor was attached to the entire building. Smashing that section, will cause that overall image to be destroyed. It would look no different from a construction site.

Was the Third Young Miss crazy?

However, Huang Yue Li's attitude was resolute. Everyone listened to her orders, and went to smash the corridor.

"Go fill up this water hole for me...."

"Remove that tree for me..."

Huang Yue Li spent the entire morning ordering the group of servants. The entire back courtyard ended up being destroyed. The scene was similar to the aftermath of a cyclone blowing through.

The servants originally thought that the Third Miss wished to renovate the yard. But she had destroyed so much and without any sense or pattern. It was like she was venting her anger.

She couldn't have been provoked by someone?

Cai Wei had run out to stop her, but did not succeed. She had been frightened to death thinking that something had gone wrong with her family's Miss' brain.

Huang Yue Li ignored their ignorant gazes. Standing in the center of the ruins, she looked up at the sun's position. Her slender jade finger pointed up, eyes squinting, she quickly began to calculate.

Just after her rebirth, she sensed the courtyard's peculiarities. Although the appearance was very appealing, it was built very specially. It secretly aligned with the attributes of heaven and earth.

The buildings around the courtyard, coincidentally formed a hidden array.

Chapter 75: The concealed Hidden Technique

But over the years, no one maintained the courtyard and some lines had been eroded away. The array was unable to display its full ability.

Originally, she felt that something was off. She did not understand why Bai Liu Feng laid down an array in this location. But she was reminded by Bai Liu Jing's words and the truth appeared.

Bai Liu Feng definitely hid something in this back courtyard, something that he did not want others to find out.

This array was something created by an Array Master who was at the Fifth Rank or higher. With South Yue's cultivation quality, there was no one who would be able to break this.

Because many high-leveled profound tools could assist Armament Masters to be promoted, many would study various arrays and works.

In her past life, Huang Yue Li also studied arrays. So she was able to see through this mysterious array.

The reason why she made people smash the yard, was not because she had too much money. But she wanted to clear all obstacles in different directions, revealing the array in its entirety.

Arrays required a very high technical skill. You needed large amounts of precise calculation and excellent control, in order to align with the profound qi within the heavens and creating their own laws. The creation of every single small stroke and line, all relied on the Array Master's spirit power.

Consequently, an Array Master's cultivation talent may be average, but they were all first-class geniuses in spiritual power.

Taking the time to burn a stick of incense, Huang Yue Li suddenly opened her eyes.

In her eyes, a flash of light swept through.

Immediately, she walked straight towards the direction of the study.

There, was the eye of the array.

If other Array Masters were to learn that it took her such a short time to crack a Fifth Tiered Array Master's work, they would not believe their eyes.

However in this yard, no one was so knowledgeable.

In fact, everyone else thought that Huang Yue Li was in a midst of a crazy fit.

When Huang Yue Li moved, Cai Wei rushed over. Crying out: "Third Young Miss, where are you going to? You, you.....are you right? Not sick? Feverish? Is your head dizzy? This servant will go find a doctor....."

Huang Yue Li shook her head: "I'm going to stay in the study for a while. You go and find some people to tidy up the courtyard. Do not come to bother me."

"But.....but, Third Young Miss....." if you are sick, you must treat it ah!

However, Huang Yue Li did not wait for her to finish. With a 'bang', the door to the study slammed shut.

Isolated from the outside world, Huang Yue Li started to calculate everything in her head again. She walked to side, towards the study's wall.

The wall looked old and some of the painted areas had begun to crack.

Huang Yue Li's pale fingers gently touched the wall a few times.

Suddenly, only hearing a "whoosh whoosh" sound several times, the side of the bookcase opened from the middle. It revealed a dark space hidden behind.

Inside the dark space, quietly lay a small mahogany box.

Huang Yue Li's eyes of a brightened, "That hidden rray really did hide something. It was this thing! I didn't guess incorrectly!"

She carefully checked the dark space. Convinced that there were no other mechanisms or hidden triggers, she carefully pulled the box out and placed it on the table.

The box was particularly small, about as big as two palms.

Huang Yue Li faced towards the sunlight. Observing, she found that the box's four sides fitted seamlessly into each other. Like a complete piece of wood, with no seams or key holes.

As an accomplished Armament Master, she was very clear that this box was a superior quality Profound Armament. And it needed a special method to open it.

Chapter 76: The child who did not fear for his life or death

If she forcibly tried to open it, not only would she be unable to unlock it. She may possibly trigger the hidden contraptions within. Worst case scenario, it could be life-threatening.

However, it was not something too difficult for Huang Yue Li.

This kind of seamless box, she had constructed hundreds. She was very clear about the mechanisms.

Placing the box straight, she began to observe the lines on the lid. And then carefully she pressed in a few different directions a few times.

The box issued a 'kacha' sound.

Huang Yue Li's heart jumped. She knew that the box was activated.

However, she had no time to rejoice. The top of the box suddenly flashed. Coupled with the sunlight, it was impossible to see clearly.

Huang Yue Li reacted quickly, immediately dodging to the door.

Following, three loud 'bangs' echoed from the study. A violent burst of shocks occurred, directly shattering the doors and windows of the study.

Not only that, the strong gusts of air also blew out.

Though Huang Yue Li dodged, she was still sprayed black and gray with dust. And nearly fell straight to the ground. Simply too embarrassing!

She was pushed quite a distance by the air currents. She was blown all the way to the courtyard before coming to a stop.

Straightening her waist, she wiped the sweat off her face. But she found out that her hands had been stained black, her heart shook from shock!

As a past Ninth Ranked Armament Master, she had judged the wrong? This ordinary looking Fifth Level seamless box? Not only did she not open it successfully, she also triggered the hidden mechanisms?

How was this possible?

"It was too bad! Just where did I go wrong?"

Huang Yue Li pouted. Complaining, she wanted to go back to find the box.

Cai Wei ran over, stopping in front of her.

"Third Young Miss, Third Young Miss, wait a minute! What is wrong with you today? First, the yard was smashed, and you almost bombed down the study. Are you really..... really alright?"

Cai Wei carefully asked. Her voice was not too high, as if she feared that she might provoke Huang Yue Li further.

Huang Yue Li's mouth curved upwards.

She knew that her series of actions today, was a bit strange. But this girl did not need to express such a face, fearing that she was sick?

"Chirp—! Chirp—!"

At this time, from the sky suddenly came a crisp sound of birds. A golden red bird flew over unsteadily. Onto the sleeves of Huang Yue Li it fell.

In its mouth, dangled a drumstick bigger than its body. Roasted fragrant and tender and oil still dripped down.

“Ah, Wang Cai! Seeing the cage was empty, this servant spent quite some time to search for you! Turns out, you went to the kitchen to eat it! So adorable, so smart, so cute.....”

A look of amazement covered Cai Wei.

While Huang Yue Li was angered beyond belief!

Only she was able to understand the chirps that the little lousy bird said. The meaning of those chirps were: “Stinking woman, too ugly, too stupid. That Blood Feather Silk Cage can not be opened like that! You still dare to call yourself a Ninth Ranked Armament Master! You stupidity goes all the way back to your family!”

She glanced down at the little phoenix.

But this child did not fear for his life or death. Triumphantly he shook his small head, chicken oil rubbing onto her sleeves.

Huang Yue Li picked it up. Throwing the chicken leg to the side, she carried it back into the study.

Just as she wanted to tell Cai Wei to leave, the little Phoenix landed on the floor. Quickly it turned into a small child and jumped towards the door.

“This little lord’s drumstick! Return my drumstick! This drumstick is the most tender and flavourful one. This little lord only chose it after an entire morning’s worth of time!”

Chapter 77: Your heart is too evil!

The boy was only able to run two steps, before it was captured by Huang Yue Li and carried back.

“Enough! I had said in the last night’s dinner, why there always were suspicious toothprints! Turns out that each and every drumstick was tasted by you, little thief?”

“Uh...”

The little boy shrunk back his head, realising that he had said too much.

But soon, he confidently said: “Well, the last time I spit fire for you, you clearly promised me meat for every meal. Do you want to go back on your word?”

“I said I would let you eat meat, but I did not let you steal food!”

His head crooked, he arrogantly said: “So what? This little lord eating your chicken, is giving you face! If not because your chef has barely passable skills, this little lord would not eat at all!”

“Oh, so you were giving me face.....”

“So what!”

Huang Yue Li faintly smile and said: “No wonder strict education should be given to children. Can’t be too spoiled. It seems that I have no experience.”

The little boy looked up and found the female devil’s smile a bit sinister. He felt danger.

He took a step back, “You....what do you to do? I warn you....”

Not waiting for him to finish, Huang Yue Li picked from him and faced him down. Ass up, she put him on her thigh.

In the face of one of her strikes, the small boy’s face to whitened. Immediately he started to cry wolf.

“Save me ah! The female devil is beating people! Wuu wuu wuu, bullying me a little phoenix who has no father, no mother, no elder brother! Your heart is too evil!

Well then, hit me, kill me. But if you do, no one will be able to tell you how to open that box!”

As he was crying, he twisted his neck back to see Huang Yue Li’s expression.

Naturally Huang Yue Li noticed his gaze, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

The way this child was acting, it was like she really had the intention to kill him.

Don’t be fooled by his mournful cries. In actuality, there were no tears in his eyes. Furthermore, she had yet to touch his butt. Wasn’t he too enthusiastic?

However, when she heard him mention the box, she released him.

“Do you know what the box is?”

Huang Yue Li did not think that her knowledge regarding armaments would be worse than others. It can only be said that the thing within that box was not ordinary.

Although one could not see it, but the little phoenix after all was a sacred beast. Although it was a little unreliable, its knowledge was certainly higher than hers. Maybe it could really tell her what the box was.

The little phoenix rolled his eyes and said: “Hehe, this thing.....”

By Huang Yue Li’s analysis, she guessed that this little arrogant child wanted to strike another pretentious pose.

She immediately interrupted him, “Little Wang Cai, elder sister must remind you, this elder sister has yet to settle debts from yesterday. You must be careful on how you speak today!

“Yesterday, what happened yesterday?” The little Phoenix did not understand.

Huang Yue Li smilingly said: “Little brat. You are elder sister’s contracted spirit ah. Why do you not appear last night, even after numerous calls from me?”

Last night, when the master of Thousand Treasure Pavilion appeared, Huang Yue Li had attempted to call out the little phoenix. A single spray of True Phoenix Fire, even if it didn’t kill that man, it would have told him to scam immediately!

She did not expect that this little brat at the critical moment was so unreliable. No matter how she called him, he did not react. She suspected he had gone to steal more food again!

Chapter 78: Bloodline's suppressive might

The little one's big eyes blinked, his face becoming stiff.

"Ah....that.....did you make a mistake female devil! How could you make me deal with such a terrible man.....this one's age is still young, and still wants to live a few more years...."

Huang Yue Li raised her eyebrows: "What? Was he that terrifying? Do not give me such an excuse. You must be deliberately refusing to help! Eating so many chicken legs, when I ask you to work a little, you are unwillingly. Aren't you a least a little bit ashamed? Do you only know to eat and nothing else?"

"I am not someone who knows only to eat!" The little boy reasonably argued, "What I said was true. That mask wearing man is really terrifying....you do not understand, he has a very mysterious and powerful qi force. It really suffocates people."

Huang Yue Li looked at the little phoenix strangely and said: "Well then. I also think that man holds extraordinary strength, but.....but you are a powerful and ancient phoenix. Even if you are young and your strength may not be comparable to him, you wouldn't be suppressed by his qi force. Refusing to even reveal yourself?"

"I.....I do not know what was going on, but I really didn't lie!"

The little phoenix was afraid she would hit his little ass, so he quickly covered his butt. Moving to the side and hiding himself while crying out ai's and ah's: "As soon as the man appeared, an innate aura of overbearingness seeped out from his bones. Nearly made me kneel on the ground to him. That kind of aura, you mortals cannot sense, but for me it was really terrible. So I did not come out!"

"Was it that horrible?" Huang Yue Li asked suspiciously.

The little boy fiercely nodded his head, "It's true! I think his bloodline must be very strong. Only then, would he be able to let me experience that kind of feeling....."

"Bloodline?" Huang Yue Li frowned, "What kind of bloodline can be stronger than an ancient beasts?"

The little boy was also perplexed. Tilting his head, he thought for a while.

"Truthfully, if you were in the God Realm, the bloodlines of some noble families are truly stronger than the bloodlines of us ancient beasts. But currently we are in the Lower Realm.....I really can't think of anything....."

Huang Yue Li's brows wrinkled up.

According to the little phoenix's statement, did that mean that the man held a bloodline that rivaled someone from the God Realm?

But that was impossible ah. Because it was said that tens of thousands of years ago, the passage between the Soaring Heavens and the God Realm was sealed due to some particular reasons. The profound qi within the environment also became much more sparse.

That was the reason why there were so few experts within Soaring Heavens Continent.

Moreover, if the man's bloodline truly was that powerful, he would not be lingering in such a weak kingdom like South Yue. With his talent, any of the grand powers within Soaring Heavens Continent would be fighting for him.

Huang Yue Li thought for a while. Even as her head started to hurt, she could not think of anything.

Shaking her head, she suddenly saw a tiny and suspicious figure from the corner of her eyes.

In tiny steps, the little boy was stealthily inching towards the door.

She coughed, "Wang Cai!"

"Damn!" The little boy immediately stood up straight, "It's not.....I am saying...I am not called Wang Cai! I have the name, I am called..."

"Yesterday things I barely forgave you, but what is the deal with this box? You have to explain it clearly for this sister!" Huang Yue Li interrupted him.

"Ah.....this thing....." The little boy was itching to act pretentiously.

From the side, Huang Yue Li smilingly reminded him: "Little thing, you must consider it carefully. You can not protect your sister, and if are also unable sister to open the box, then why do I need to feed you? From tomorrow onwards, all your rights to chicken drumsticks will be cancelled!"

Chapter 79: Happiness came too quickly!

"What!" the little boy almost jumped up, "How can you do that!"

Huang Yue Li chuckled internally. Stretching out her slender jade fingers, she shook them in front of him.

"I am your master!"

"It should be pig.....person!" The little boy muttered.

(The word master is made of two characters zhu ren. The phoenix did a play on words with zhu ren, because pig is also zhu.....so pig head/person)

Huang Yue Li pricked up her eyebrows, "What did you say?"

"No....did not say anything....." Sealing his lips, the boy used his chin to point in the direction of the box, "That box, is not the Seamless Silk Box that you say it is. Instead, it is a Blood Feather Silk Cage. When I was a baby phoenix, I had seen this type of object in the God Realm. Did not expect to your Soaring Heavens Continent to also possess one!"

Huang Yue Li was stunned, "God Realm?"

How was it the God Realm?

No wonder she had never seen such a method to make this seamless box. So it was....a technique from the God Realm?

However, Bai Liu Feng was only a Marquis in a small country. How was he able to possess such a box?

The little phoenix said: "Take up the box and look at in the light. Do you not see the feather pattern on the lid of the box?"

Listening, Huang Yue Li took quite a bit of time finding the imprint. Even then she could only see a faint craving. If not for his hinting, she would have glossed over that completely.

"That's right. What now?"

"This kind of Blood Feather Silk Cage, is mainly used for the passing messages in a family. Only those who share the same bloodline can open the box. Drip your blood onto the feather and the box will open. No matter how much you press it will not open. Furthermore, if you fail more than three times, it will self-destruct. Destroying the things inside as well."

Hearing his words, Huang Yue Li placed the box back onto the table. Using her fingernails, she cut open her finger.

A drop of bright red blood formed on her fingertip, as she dripped a drop onto the lid.

This time, nothing happened.

"Snap" it lightly sounded as the lid bounced up.

Laughing, Huang Yue Li happily patted his head.

"So obedient! Continue eating your drumsticks! Tomorrow, this sister will buy you a lot of chicken legs. Not only can you roast them, you can also steam, braise, fry...."

The boy's drooled, his saliva dripping to the ground.

This blessing came far to suddenly!

At this moment, the female devil had become particularly generous, beautiful, lovely! Second only to chicken drumsticks!

".....Then I also want chicken wings!"

"Okay!"

In a good mood, Huang Yue Li waved her hand and agreed.

Changing back into a fluffy yellow bird, he happily flew away.

Walking towards the table, Huang Yue Li settled down to views the contents.

Inside the small mahogany box, quietly lay a scroll.

Huang Yue Li was no stranger to this. This used refined Sea Sand Grass and engraved into a type of paper. The traits of this paper was that it could only be read once. Furthermore it could be stored thousand of years without rotting.

Generally, these were used by large Sect Masters and Heads to record secret techniques.

Reaching out, she slowly opened it.

On the scroll, the words flowed naturally and like a flowing river. When people saw the words on the scroll, they would be able to tell that the writer was someone of great grace and noble character.

“To my beloved daughter Ruo Li...”

When the first line of words greeted her, Huang Yue Li’s mind shook.

This really was a letter her father Bai Liu Feng left behind for her!

Chapter 80: Bai Ruo Li’s life

Huang Yue Li hurried closed in, reading more carefully.

“To my beloved daughter Ruo Li: If you see this letter, then father has probably left you for more than ten years.....”

Huang Yue Li was stunned.

When Bai Liu Feng mysteriously disappeared, Bai Ruo Li was only three years of age. While she would turn fourteen this years. Calculating that, it would be around a decade.

It looked like Bai Liu Feng had prepared to leave for an extended period of time. It was not a case of meeting with an unfortunate accident, but out of his own initiative.

Huang Yue Li slightly frowned.

Her father’s reputation in the South Yue was very good, he was a good man of righteousness. In the end what was the reason that forced him to leave his young daughter?

Soon, she found her answer in the long letter.

Bai Liu Feng was indeed a very rare cultivating genius with eighth grade talent. But because he was born in South Yue, it delayed his progress and starting point.

Nevertheless, when he was seventeen years old, he broke through to the fourth level of cultivation – Dan Profound Realm. He became the best of South Yue’s cultivators.

From that day onwards, he would travel in all directions to enhance his cultivation. He even formed on a famous mercenary group within South Sky Region—becoming the Head of the North Wind Mercenaries.

It was during that time, he met an outstanding woman who possessed even greater talent than his own. She was the mother of Bai Ruo Li.

After going through many experiences together, the two gradually grew attracted to each other. Later they returned to South Yue, married and gave birth to the clever, quick-witted, adorable as white jade daughter, Bai Ruo Li.

Reading to this point, Huang Yue Li became somewhat flabbergasted.

“Strange, that cheap father was already an eighth grade talent, but mother had greater talent than him. Could she have ninth grade talent? This was too unlikely?”

In the Soaring Heavens Continent, ninth grade talent only appeared only once every hundred years or so.

In her past life, because Huang Yue Li had ninth grade talent, she was taken by the Mythical Flame Palace at the tender age of three. Entering their doors, with the Palace’s power, she carefully cultivated.

In history, each and every ninth grade talent genius were famous characters within the continent. Even if they came from humble beginnings, each and every one would rise up.

If Bai Ruo Li’s mother was such a person, how come she had never heard her name before....

Huang Yue Li continued to read.

The contents onwards, just became worse.

Soon after Bai Ruo Li’s mother gave birth to her, a mysterious man came knocking. Forcibly, he took her away!

In order to not implicate her husband and daughter, she promised to leave with him. But secretly, she left a letter behind for Bai Liu Feng.

The letter told the Bai Liu Feng, the person who took her away was her clansmen, and not an existence he could contend against. It told him not think about her again. Also mentioning that he must not leak news about their daughter out, otherwise she would definitely be taken away!

The love of his life was taken away just like that. Bai Liu Feng was heartbroken beyond belief.

Although his wife’s letter asked him not to find her, how could Bai Liu Feng not?

Crazily, he began to cultivate to improve his cultivation. All the while, he frantically searched for the whereabouts of his wife. Finally three years later, he obtained a clue.

He knew that he was entering dangerous waters, with very slim chances of returning. He also couldn’t stop worry about his young daughter.

However, this fleeting opportunity to find his wife, he could not let go so easily.

Otherwise he would regret it for a lifetime!
