Chapter 81: An unforeseen accident

Agonizing over it, Bai Liu Feng finally decided to entrust his daughter to his brother and set out to find his missing wife.

He didn't expect that after he left, no news of him would be heard again.

In a moment, eleven years had passed by.

This Blood Feather Silk Cage was also something Bai Liu Feng left behind.

With his estimations, with he and his wife's outstanding talents, their daughter would at least be a ninth grade talent. With a large possibility to be even greater!

Ten years later, his daughter would also reach the fourth boundary, Dan Profound Realm.

While the array he left behind, its effect would also weaken over time.

Once Bai Ruo Li broke through to the Dan Profound Realm, she would be able to break the hidden array. Then she would obtain the letter and understand everything.

"So it was like this....."

Reading everything, Huang Yue Li slowly closed the scroll and let out a sad sigh.

Bai Liu Feng had planned out everything so meticulously, leaving with great confidence. But things were could not be without variables. With the development of things, many deviated greatly from his expectations.

The years before Bai Liu Feng disappeared, Bai Liu Jing only acted like a good brother. Respectful of his elder brother, their brotherly bond deep.

Even in his dreams Bai Liu Feng could not predict that once he left, his brother would turn into a blind eye wolf. Abusing his niece.

In addition, while Bai Ruo Li inherited her parents extraordinary talents, and even greater. Her talents were too heaven-defying, leading her display something that was equivalent to a good-for-nothing.....

It was like a big pair of invisible hands were present, manipulating the fate of everything.

Once the scroll closed, there was no spontaneous combustion. But shortly afterwards, it turned into black ash.

As Huang Yue Li's sight returned back to the mahogany box, her eyes landed on the small jade lying in the corner.

In Bai Liu Feng's letter, he had mentioned that the jade could be used to access his treasures. Many years of travelling through South Sky Region allowed him to collect many treasures, which were all hidden in a secret safe.

Picking up the jade, Huang Yue Li gave it a closer look.

On the side of the jade it read: Third earthly branch third day, left eleven, upper two nine.

What did that mean?

Eyebrows arched, Huang Yue Li made a face. On the other side were two ancient engraved words.

She only glances at it. But when she recognized them, her eyes widened and revealed her shock!

Celestial Light!

Engraved on the jade, were actually the two words 'Celestial Light'!

If you were to mention those words in the South Sky Region, there was no one who would not know it.

That was because Celestial Light was the largest sect within the South Sky Region. This influence was spread through every one of the hundreds of tiny countries in the domain. Even the Domain Master must pay his respects to a Celestial Light Sect core disciple.

Within the Soaring Heavens Continent, the Celestial Light Sect held equal standing with the major forces.

The engravings of Celestial Light was the symbol of the sect. An average person would not dare to imitate it.

What relationship did Bai Liu Feng have with the Celestial Light Sect?

Also, this jade piece with those nonsensical numbers, what was their meaning?

Huang Yue Li originally thought that Bai Liu Feng had given her a treasure map!

In the end, it she who had dreamed too blissfully.

No matter how she checked the box, apart from the jade pendant and letter, there were no other clues.

At her wit's end, Huang Yue Li could only put away the jade pendant and seamless box.

Chapter 82: Little thing, where do you want to go?

When Huang Yue Li walked away from the study, the weather had turned dark.

She told the servants to refurbish the study and courtyard. Afterwards, she told them to prepare dinner.

While eating, Cai Wei constantly held a hesitant expression, obviously she felt that something was off with her Young Miss today. Especially after those actions.

Huang Yue Li turned a blind eye to this.

Within her mind, she only thought about the letter and jade pendant.

Today, she tried every means to break the hidden formation, to find the letter Bai Liu Feng left behind. It was only to find the truth of her father's disappearance.

She did not expect, that once she read the letter, her question was not answered. Only more questions formed.

In the end what kind of identity did Bai Ruo Li's mother possess? Why was she a ninth grade talent, yet remained unknown to the world? What kind of family could nurture ninth grade talents and still remain so obscure?

From the knowledge of her past life, Huang Yue Li heard of practically all experts. Each of the major forces affairs were always within her information network.

But she did not hear of the mysterious identity behind her mother. This was too shocking!

Huang Yue Li vaguely felt that the continent held a lot of secrets.

In her past life she was infinitely close to the martial peak; at the very least she could glimpse the threshold. But the harsh reality was, she had merely been looking at the sky from the bottom of a well! Her view was far too narrow!

Additionally, what kind of clue did Bai Liu Feng find, that made him so desperately leave his daughter?

And the jade pendant he left behind, what was its meaning?

All this mystery, all so intricate. Completely made her unable to make heads or tails.....

...

Seven days passed by.

Soon, it was the day of the annual auction of Thousand Treasure Pavilion.

Huang Yue Li rose early, ready to rush to Thousand Treasure Pavilion and participate.

She did not trust that man. Such an important event, it was best if she personally went to observe the auction's situation. If she was swindled by him, she would not help him count his money!

But just as she stepped out of the gates, she was astounded.

There was silence on the street. A golden sandalwood horse carriage stopped in front of her.

Curtain sliding open, a tall, elegant and extravagant man stepped down from the carriage. Wearing his mask, he emitted his mysterious and bewitching temperament.

Huang Yue Li did not expect to meet him here. Face falling, she wanted to make a detour.

Taking a step forward, the man blocked her path.

"Third Young Miss Bai, where are you going?" His low and sexy voice, carried a faint trace of a smile as it travelled into her ears.

This voice was extremely mystifying. But in the ears of Huang Yue Li, it became rather annoying.

She turned her head and stared at the man, saying: "Where am I going, it does not seem to have any relation to you? On the other hand Lord Owner, why are blocking someone's path early in the morning? Could you have the intention to do something unlawful?"

“Third Young Miss Bai, your words make this Lord’s heart hurt. How could you think like this?”

His lips hooked up, releasing his irresistible allure. But still carried a strong sense of power.

“Are you sure you want to go to Thousand Treasure Pavilion and participate in the auction? This Lord was afraid walking there would not be convenient, hence why I came to pick you up.”

Huang Yue Li wished to say no, but thought otherwise., Since there was a free carriage to ride, why did she have to exert energy herself? Walking from here to Thousand Treasure Pavilion would require at least half an hour!

Chapter 83: A beauty sense problem?

She nodded and said, “Okay then.”

Voice fading, the man’s long arm stretched out, suddenly hooking onto her slender waist. Using a some force, he pulled her into his arms.

“What are you doing??” Huang Yue Li angrily glanced up.

The man tightened his arms. As he felt the waist that seemed it would snap with a little force, her body’s warmth and breathing, his heart couldn’t help but send out waves of emotion.

Eyes falling on her pink coloured lips, he smiled wantonly.

“This carriage is too high. You are not a cultivator, so climbing up would be too hard. This Lord will carry you up! Don’t move around too much!”

“Not hard. No need for you to trouble yourself!”

Huang Yue Li began to struggle too late, as he had already carried her into the carriage.

Fortunately, once in the carriage, he did not continue to hold her. But he gently released his arms.

Regaining her freedom, Huang Yue Li gave him a supercilious look.

Since she was already in the carriage, she didn’t continue to be unreasonable. Minding her own business, she settled herself down.

On the small table was fine translucent tea set with a small fire underneath the teapot. Sitting in the teapot was still the top quality Clear Red Grass Tea.

It was not Huang Yue Li’s first time in the carriage, and regardless of what the man was doing, she poured herself a cup of tea. Sipping the tea, she looked out the window.

The man pricked up his eyebrows.

This little fox was so spontaneous. Did she treat herself as the owner of the carriage? If she thought like that, it made him extremely happy!

However, she just poured her own tea and completely treated him a peerless man as thin air. Was there a problem with her sense of beauty, or a problem with her sight?

No matter what the problem was, it must be corrected!

Secretly coming to this conclusion, he quietly leaned towards his little fox.

Looking out the window, Huang Yue Li was trying to guess the results of today's auction.

Suddenly, the man's voice sounded from near her ear. It was practically beside her ear.

"Little girl, what are you thinking?"

"You..."

Huang Yue Li was startled. Did this man study a special hidden movement technique? Why did he not even make a little bit of noise or movement, indicating he had moved behind her.

Bluntly, the man sat right next to her.

Huang Yue Li was sitting in a seat meant for one person. Because the man forcibly squeezed himself in, there two people stuck side by side.

She turning her head, she looked at him with a displeasure. Just as she planned to get up, "What are you doing? Since you like my seat so much, I will let you have it!"

Who knew that as soon as she stood up, the man hook onto her waist from behind. And also also tripped her foot.

Unstable, Huang Yue Li could only sit back down. Not only that, she sat down on his thighs.

"Let go of me!"

Phoenix Yue did not think this man would be so shameless, and immediately struggled to rise.

He laughed in her ear and said: "Not releasing! You were throwing yourself into this Lord's arms, if this Lord were to refuse, wouldn't I be giving you no face?"

"When did I throw myself into your arms? Delusional, must be cured!" Huang Yu Li clenched her teeth.

The man demonically curved his mouth, "How did you not? This Lord merely wanted to sit next to you, who knew that Third Young Miss would be this passionate. Changing your position to sit directly onto this Lord's legs! But do not worry, this Lord fully understands your intentions. Though you took the initiative, this Lord is not a superficial man. I will not think you are frivolous."

Chapter 84: An expression exclusive to him

This was inverting black and white!

Huang Yue Li thought that her daily actions were already black bellied enough. Who knew this man would be a hundred times more shameless than her!

Clearly it was he who deliberately pulled her. But he said it out through her free will!

Huang Yue Li's petite body was captured within his steel-like embrace. No matter how she struggled, she could not budge at all.

As the man's hot breath blew onto her sensitive earlobe, her facial temperature unconsciously rose.

Taking a deep breath, she stabilized her breathing and said: "Lord Owner, your words are bit off! I do not know why you are so concerned about me, but I have no interest in you! I can see your cultivation is very high, your extravagance it not little either. Your identity is probably not an ordinary one too. Do you plan on assaulting an innocent and pure young girl?"

Hearing this, the man could not help but laugh out loudly.

"Pure and innocent young girl?"

Which innocent girl will be like this little fox, black bellied and ruthless? This little girl still had the face to such a thing!

Hearing his words of ridicule, Huang Yue Li forcibly suppressed the rising anger.

"Why do you laugh? What do you mean?"

The man's heart filled with warmth, a happy heart. His tone carrying traces of languidness.

"Nothing. It seems this Lord misunderstood you. Since you are not voluntarily sitting into the arms of this Lord, this Lord will not hold you any longer. You may go!"

Finishing, he really loosened his arm.

Huang Yue Li never thought that this man suddenly become so easy to reason with. She froze for a moment

He didn't deliberately take advantage of her? Why did he only hold for a bit, before letting go?

The man smiled and looked at her, "What? Not willing to go? Then don't be reluctant to admit your mistake. Obediently serve this Lord a cup of tea....."

"You dream too well! Who is not willing to go? ?"

Huang Yue Li snapped at him. Immediately stood up and intended to leave.

However, before she could stand firmly, the carriage shook violently.

Outside the window, came a loud and clear horse whine, then the coachman's cries. Clearly the Flowing Cloud Colt had been frightened.

With Huang Yue Li's center of gravity unstable, shaking to and fro she was unable to gain proper footing. Once again, she fell into the iron like arms of the man.

The next moment, the man's arms coiled around her again.

Next to her ear, came his wanton chuckle, "Little girl, you really can not bear to leave this Lord, but also embarrassed to admit!"

Huang Yue Li almost vomited blood.

The Flowing Cloud Colt was a Fifth Grade Demonic Beast. Regardless of the terrain, muddy or rugged road, it would be able to cross it like it was walking across flat plains. How can the capital's smooth roads causally startle it?

Most certainly the man had done some secret tricks!

She could only blame herself for not expecting this man to play her like that!

As the man saw Huang Yue Li's puffed up cheeks on her little face, his mouth rose up naturally into a smug smile.

In front of other people, this little fox was always so calm; nothing could make her surprised or panicked. Only he could make this black bellied little fox, reveal this angry look.

An expression exclusive to him.....

Of course, he would like to see this little fox act a little like an ordinary woman. Coming into his arms and acting like spoiled child.

That day, should be coming soon, right?

Chapter 85: Really likes that interesting person

Huang Yue Li fiercely stared at the man, "Quickly, let me go!"

"Not letting go!" The man smiled calmly, shamelessly tightening his arms around her.

Huang Yue Li's gaze was like daggers sliding past his throat.

Feeling his back turn a little cold, he quickly changed the topic.

"Little girl, today's auction is the largest auction that Thousand Treasure pavilion has held in its history! Third Levelled Profound Armaments are very rare, even the country's Royal Family are very interested. They have dispatched someone over to the auction as well! Just patiently wait for your money to come."

"Is that so? Since you speak like this, you put all your effort into the auction?"

Huang Yue Li casted him a side glance.

In the past few days, Huang Yue Li noticed the many news faces appearing within the capital's crowds. It was very obvious that they had come from neighbouring countries. Judging from their clothes, they were all very wealthy.

Needless to say, these people had come for the auction.

As the carriage neared Thousand Treasure Pavilion, the horse carriages and pedestrians increased in number. One could imagine how lively Thousand Treasure Pavilion would be today.

Thinking of her money, Huang Yue Li's mouth finally exposed a trace of a smile.

The man's gaze filled with nostalgia landed on her smile. He thought that her money grubber attitude was very adorable, causing his heart to thump.

He whispered: "That's right, this Lord naturally made every effort to complete your matter well."

Huang Yue Li lifted her chin, saying: "You sure can speak well!"

She knew that she could not leave this man and did not struggle. Thus she turned her attention back to outside window.

While the man was unwilling to avert his own attention to things outside of the horse carriage. His complete attention was all directed to the little fox within his arms. To be able to hold her within his arms, he really wished this moment to go on for longer.

However, the journey from her back courtyard to Thousand Treasure Pavilion was not far away. Before long, the carriage came to a stop.

Patting the man's arm, Huang Yue Li said: "We're here, let's quickly get off!"

Unexpectedly the man did not move but lowly laughed: "What's the urgency? We arrived too early, and with thousands of people in front of Thousand Treasure Pavilion, why do we need to force our way through? We'll get off just before the doors open!"

Huang Yue Li hesitated for a moment. Pursing her lips together: "This ah.....ok then....."

Smiling, the man looked as if he was about to molest her. Suddenly he felt a sharp pain.

While Huang Yue Li was still a bit confused, she had suddenly stepped down hard.

She was proficient in a variety of sneak attacks, stepping on that location was very tricky. Not only did she step down, she also began grinding too. That was you called a true aching foot, sore beyond belief!

From atop her head, the man's cries travelled. While the pressure on her waist relaxed a bit.

Throwing her elbow backwards, Huang Yue Li heavily hit the man's chest. Taking advantage of his stunned state, she quickly jumped out of his arms.

"Wait on in the carriage yourself. I will get off first!"

Turning her head from the door of the carriage, Huang Yue Li proudly smiled at him and proceeded to jump down.

Bent down at the waist, he clutched his chest. When he did this, he happened to see her fox-like smile revealing a set of pointy teeth. Making her seem more like a fox.

It took him quite a while to regain himself. A flash on interest swept past his eyes.

"Really good.....too treacherous.....however, this Lord just likes this kind of interesting person. Little fox, don't think of running away. Sooner or later, this Lord will bring you back with me!"

Chapter 86: Bumping into a nail

Alighting from the carriage, Huang Yue Li attention was immediately attracted by the sight in front of her.

Thousand Treasure Pavilion's doors were decorated anew. The entrance and roads bustling with people coming and going.

"Wow, what is this situation? Today, how many people have come to Thousand Treasure Pavilion?"

A passerby saw the scene and exclaimed out in surprise.

"You don't even know? Today is the annual auction of Thousand Treasure Pavilion!"

"Auction? Do you think I have not seen an auction of Thousand Treasure Pavilion's before? How many people have attended in the previous years? Generally, only the aristocrats in the capital will attend. At most, a few people living in the Royal Palace would also attend. Do you see that horse carriage? It has the symbol of the Royal Family of the South Chu ah! Do you know South Chu? In the surrounding countries, they are the most powerful country!"

"How do I not know? Let me tell you, the people participating are not only South Chu's Royal Family. And those are royals from South Maple, South Ming....."

"How is that possible? Is it that big of a deal?"

"I heard that this auction has Third Levelled Profound Armaments for sale."

"Third Levelled Armaments? ! No wonder so many royal families have been alerted. If Third Levelled Armaments are to appear, wouldn't only those royals be able to afford it?"

"Not just one Third Levelled Armament. I heard that this time's auction will be selling a large amount of Third Levelled Armaments! Seven days ago, Thousand Treasure Pavilion publicity displayed a portion. It caused a sensation, attracting so many people....."

"A large number of Third Levelled Armaments? How can that be possible? Just a single one is able to drive those Royals into a bidding frenzy. And a large number? Where did Thousand Treasure Pavilion obtain them from?"

"Hey, this is where you're ignorant! I heard that a large sect's Armament Master passed by our South Yue and sent his disciple to Thousand Treasure Pavilion to sell his works. Even the Armament Guild's Vice President Yan admires this mysterious master!"

"No wonder! Even Grandmaster Yan admires this Armament Master, he should have good skills! This mysterious sect's master definitely is someone of virtue and prestige! It's no wonder that today is very lively. It makes even me want to attend and watch."

"Just by you? I'm afraid you can't afford the tickets for this auction."

Listening to the conversation of the passers-by, Huang Yue Li's mouth held a trace of a smile. Soon after, her eyes moved to another section of the street.

Parked around were many high-end carriages. Each and every one was very luxurious, while some carriages were engraved with the emblems of the neighbouring Royal Families.

It seemed that the man did not lie to her. Many big buyers had come.

She walked straight to the front door, but was suddenly stopped by the guard.

“This Young Miss, do you have an invitation?”

“Invitation card?”

Seeing she was at a loss, the guard revealed some impatience.

“Young Miss, if you are just an ordinary guest, please go to the right door, line up and pay the admission fee! By the way you will need to pay thirty-two silvers for one ticket for this auction. Please prepare in advance.”

Huang Yue Li suddenly fell silent.

High-levelled auctions will divide into seats into VIP and ordinary seats. But there were also discretion tickets. These were the auction rules used throughout Soaring Heavens Continent.

However, as the continent’s best Armament Master, this was the first she was blocked outside.

That stinking man probably predicted this outcome. He deliberately did not send her an invitation, waiting for her to bump into nail and come asking him for help!

Chapter 87: His Highness the Crown Prince

Thinking briefly, Huang Yue Li was interrupted just as she about to speak.

A familiar girl’s voice came from behind her.

“Third Younger Sister, it really is you! Looking at your back, I felt it was a little familiar. I thought that I saw incorrectly!”

Turning around, Huang Yue Li saw Bai Ruo Qi standing not too far away.

She frowned faintly.

Today she was ready to watch the bustling and the experience the feeling of money rolling in, her mood really good. What she didn’t expect to encounter was an annoying person, ruining her mood.

Just seven days ago, Bai Ruo Qi’s white face was swollen like a pig’s. But now, all that swelling had disappeared. She returned to her bright and clean looking face.

It looked like a Second Rank Alchemist had cured her face. Otherwise, there was no possibility for it to heal that quickly!

Furthermore, Bai Ruo Qi was dressed very lavishly today. She wore an exquisite golden embroidered skirt. Not only her makeup further enhanced her beauty, she was also sporting a variety of precious pearls and gems.

Though her dress style was extravagant, it did not seem gaudy. It was just enough to bring out her beauty. Paired with that smile that wasn’t quite a smile and her calm and tranquil tone, it really made her seem like an outstanding noble lady!

Huang Yue Li measured her up and smiled: "I was wondering who it was. So it was Second Sister! Why have you come out? I heard that you suffered a very serious injury and have been recuperating in the Manor lately. All this time, not daring to meet with others!"

Bai Ruo Qi responded with surprise: "Third Sister, where did you hear those rumors from? I just caught a slight cold, nothing much. A few days of rest at home is enough. How did such tragic rumors come about?"

Her tone was a bit helpless, her brows also wrinkled.

If you were to just see her expression, you would think that Huang Yue Li was a very stupid younger sister. Not listening to her elder sister's teachings, causing her much embarrassment in public!

This woman.....was worthy of being the goddess to many young males in South Yue. The complete opposite to that simple-minded Bai Ruo Yan. She really knew how to act in public.

Huang Yue Li pricked up her eyebrows, "So they were merely rumors ah.....then I congratulate Second Sister in restoring her health! However, you should be careful when leaving the Manor in the future. My back courtyard is very dilapidated and very windy. Second Sister should visit less, what if you catch another 'cold'!"

"You!" Bai Ruo Qi displayed a hurt expression.

Act, continue to act!

Huang Yue Li was displeased by her disgusting heart.

But her mind still reminded her of the big auction about to be held. She did not have the time to trade empty words her. She could find later opportunities to retaliate.

So with a few mocking words, she was ready to leave!

However, just as Huang Yue Li turned to leave, she was stopped.

A clear male voice was heard: "Third Young Miss Bai is so arrogant and domineering. You do not even give your cousin the proper etiquette! Seeing is truly a hundred times better than not seeing! This one has really experienced it today!"

Taking a step, Huang Yue Li raised her head in surprise.

Standing beside Bai Ruo Qi was a graceful man. His five visceras were extremely handsome and had an outstanding temperament. His robe was bright yellow, further enhancing and excluding his noble and virtuous aura.

He indifferently chuckled, especially when he saw Huang Yue Li in the distance. That laugh also held a trace of contempt.

This man....looked a little familiar ah....

Suddenly bursts of exclamations sounded.

“The Crown Prince! His Royal Highness the Crown Prince! Today’s auction even attracted His Royal Highness the Crown Prince as well!”

“Are the Profound Armaments auctioned today that powerful? Even the Crown Prince came!”

Chapter 88: A match made in heaven

“What did you say? That’s His Royal Highness, the Crown Prince? The most honorable and powerful son of our South Yue Kingdom?”

An flowery dressed aristocratic girl’s face was flushed. With a fascinated look, “I did not expect his Royal Highness to be not only talented, but also so handsome. He is just like one of the gods in heaven.....if you could marry his Royal Highness; even becoming a concubine would be fortunate!”

Her companion quickly pulled her to the side.

“Oh, hurry and stop! The Crown Prince is a man equal to the dragon and phoenix. How can someone like you match?”

The aristocratic girl stared with dissatisfied at her companion: “What is the matter? Do you not think like this too? I heard that the Crown Prince will be choosing his Imperial Consort soon. I am still a general’s daughter, maybe I will have an opportunity? Even if I don’t become the Imperial Consort, becoming an ordinary concubine is still likely!”

Her companion replied in a hushed voice: “Do not say anymore! Do you not see the person beside the Crown Prince?”

That girl had not put the girl beside the Crown Prince in her eyes. But hearing their reminder, she swept a glance over. She nearly screamed out in fear.

“Uh.....it’s actually.....Valiant Martial Manor’s Second Miss?”

“Is it not? I say that she is already the Imperial Consort by default! See how close they are. The rumors may be true?”

“It was her.....”

The key thing was that she possessed a four grade cultivation talent! She is South Yue’s most talented female! With the Crown Prince.....they are a match made in heaven ah.....”

“And today, Second Miss Bai is participating in the auction with the Crown Prince. She mostly likely is his Imperial Consort?”

Listening to the surrounding passers-by discussions, the noble girl embarrassingly lowered her head.

His Royal Highness had long become accustomed to the pursuit of others. His facial expression, his fanning motions only served to further his romantic and suave heroic air. Prompting frequent peeks from surroundings girls.

While Bai Ruo Qi who was standing near the Crown Prince inched closer to him.

Hearing the envy and jealousy of the nearby girls, she couldn't help but become proud.

Sure enough, only a beautiful and talented girl like herself, could be worthy of the Crown Prince. If others wanted to fight with her, take a look mirror ask themselves if they're worthy!

The Crown Prince had agreed to come to the auction today with her. She did waste her various preparations towards the Crown Prince.

That little slut Bai Ruo Li, did she not arrogantly say that the person marrying the Crown Prince was not certain?

She really wanted to eat swan meat!

Aren't she and the Crown Prince together? Does she have anymore to say? That little slut mostly likely wants to drill a hole in the ground and hide there.

Bai Ruo Qi's proud gaze swept over Huang Yue Li's expressionless one.

"His Royal Highness, please do not blame my Third Sister. She grew up with no father and mother, and with no cultivational talent. So her temper is a bit weird. It is but human nature, I do not mind."

Prince looked into her eyes, his expression softening.

"Qi'er, you have too good of a character, too generous! This kind of woman who does not know proper courtesy, I am afraid also uses her Region Princess title wildly at home, angering you many times? It is hard on you to speak on her behalf!"

As he said this, he turned to look at Huang Yue Li, "Look at how much face Qi'er is giving you. Apologise to Qi'er and properly reflect once you return home! Think over your actions, how ashamed your father will be!"

Chapter 89: You dare to speak to me like this? !

Hearing the Crown Prince supporting her like that, Bai Ruo Qi nearly laughed out gleefully. The stifled feeling she had been suppressing was released. With a compassionate expression, she sympathetically looked towards Huang Yue Li.

Huang Yue Li pricked up her eyebrows, looking into their eyes was like looking at two idiots!

No wonder's Bai Ruo Qi and the Second Madam were so anxious to send her to her death. Bai Ruo Qi had long hooked up with the Crown Prince, so she found her younger sister an eyesore. She wished to eliminate the biggest block in her path.

Speaking of which, this Crown prince also held a ruthless look.

When Bai Liu Feng first went missing, he still treated Bai Ruo Li well. From his youth, he would take of her like a fiance would.

Who could predict that Bai Liu Feng would not come back. Coupled with the fact that Bai Ruo Li did not have an ounce of cultivation talent, the Crown Prince's attitude did an one hundred eighty degree flip.

Towards Bai Ruo Li's tragic predicament, he turned towards more promising prospects. His gaze turned to Bai Ruo Qi, who was more suitable to become his Imperial Consort.

While silly Bai Ruo Li still remembered the Crown Prince older brother. She assumed that the engagement between them was still valid, believing that he would sooner or later come and take her away from this suffering!

She lightly laughed: "So you are the Crown Prince ah.....tsk tsk, meeting in person really is better. What number one genius? Not only is your talent mediocre, even your intellect seems to be damaged!"

"You.....you dare to talk to this Royal like this? !"

This was the first time the Crown Prince experienced such ridicule. He couldn't believe his ears.

Huang Yue Li faintly smiled: "You actually think that this woman who's like a snake is kind. Haha... I am really starting to doubt if there is something wrong with your eyes too?"

"Bold! Really such a vulgar woman! Daring to mouth such outrageous claims in front of this Royal. One can only imagine how you usually bully Qi'er!"

The Crown Prince's face was slightly flushed, glaring at Huang Yue Li.

"Boom" it sounded!

The profound qi within the Crown Prince's body burst out, creating a powerful pressure.

In an instant, the crowd's faces turned pale, their chests stuffy as they quickly escaped.

Even Bai Ruo Qi felt her chest tighten, nearly vomiting blood.

She quickly retreated a few steps, trace of a smile floating on her face.

Huang Yue Li that idiot, even dared to provoke His Royal Highness! He was an expert at the seventh level of the Defensive Profound Realm. Her demonic techniques would be useless in front of him.

With the Crown Prince's noble status, Bai Ruo Li was nothing even with her Region Princess title!

She was finished!

With the passing of each second and minute, no one dared to linger. Clutching her stomach, Bai Ruo Qi retreated thirty feet!

However, the person suffering the majority of this pressure, Huang Yue Li acted as if she felt nothing. Casually she smiled.

"How could you.....?" The Crown Prince was shocked.

Someone who possessed no profound qi could resist his seventh level Defensive Profound Realm aura! And so easily? He may as well go meet a ghost!

They still say that this little girl was a cultivational trash?

He couldn't help but look at Huang Yue Li a few times.

Compared to the carefully dressed Bai Ruo Qi, Huang Yue Li was clothed in a very common white dress with a purple fox like vest. On her ears were a small set of small pearl earrings.

She was originally elegant looking. So why when she dressed like this, she became as ordinary and tasteless as water.

However, in such an appearance, it was she was glowing. Just by standing there, she had her own elegant and pure demeanor.

A cold alienated blossom, looking so special. Cold and arrogant, overwhelmingly fragrant!

For a short duration, the Crown Prince was a bit bedazzled.

Bai Rou Qi gnashed her teeth hard.

How could it be? Why did the little slut not vomit blood, still standing there perfectly fine?

And the Crown Prince's gaze. Was it is necessary to stare at the little slut for such a long time? She didn't even have portion of her beauty, too lackluster!

Chapter 90: The trash that offends public morals

Looking at the sky's colour, Huang Yue Li laughed out: "What other advice does His Royal Highness the Crown Prince have? If you do not have any more, I do not have the time to accompany you further!"

"You, wait!"

As she turned to go, the Crown Prince hurriedly stepped forward, wishing to stop her.

Bai Ruo Qi did not expect Huang Yue Li to really attract the Crown Prince's gaze. Her heart was filled with hate.

She hurriedly stepped forward to block the Crown Prince, whispering: "Your Royal Highness, do not be angered. Let my Third Sister go! She is young and does not understand rules. Just a few days ago because of some things, she was forbidden to leave for a long time. With great difficulty she was finally allowed out. Please do not bicker with her."

She looked very generous, but failed to mention what happened exactly.

Although did she not say, the Manor Madam had spread some rumours a couple of days ago. When she visited the Royal Palace, she had spread the news of her niece attempting to hang herself after it was discovered that she had been meeting with a man. This news naturally reached the Crown Prince's ears as well.

His fine pair of eyebrows immediately wrinkled.

The thought of this little girl offending public morals, and maybe losing her virtue had caused bursts of nausea to erupt from his heart. The previous throbs instantly vanished.

Why did he waste so much time looking at this low levelled thing? He was bewitched!

It was still Bai Ruo Qi, a talented, beautiful and gentle woman who was worthy of him!

Thinking of this, the Crown Prince gaze turned into a look of disgust.

“Looks like Third Young Miss Bai did not reflect when you were under house arrest. Still so arrogant and despotic! This auction is not a place where you should come! Someone come and take Third Young Miss Bai back to Valiant Martial Manor. Let Valiant Martial Manor properly discipline her!”

From behind the Crown Prince, out stepped two black armored guards. Taking a few steps, they stopped in front of Huang Yue Li.

Halting her steps, Huang Yue Li turned back to the smiled at the two.

“So interesting. I do not where I am wrong and need to return to reflect?”

The Crown Prince sneered: “Must you force this Royal to say it? The news of your scandal with a man has spread throughout the entire Royal Palace! As Valiant Martial Manor’s only daughter, you dare to do such moral offending business! Also refusing to admit your wrongs?”

“But.....” Huang Yue Li innocently blinked, “I merely spoke some words with a stranger and it became a scandal. Second Sister and the Crown Prince has no engagement, but are close enough to go shopping together. You also rode in the same horse carriage. What would that indicate? Male adulterer****? Catching a couple in the act?”

Within the onlookers, there were many young girls who were jealous of Bai Ruo Qi. When they heard those words, they began to discuss secretly amongst themselves.

“That’s right. The official choosing of the Imperial Concubine has yet to occur. But Bai Ruo Qi is already shopping together with the Crown Prince. Really too shameless!”

“Yes, in the end there is still no Royal Decree. Coming out together like that, losing oneself like that!”

“If the Emperor does not choose her as the Imperial Concubine, and she still continues to be intimate with the Crown Prince, who would dare to marry her?”

Bai Ruo Qi’s face became very red.

“You....what did you say? Venomous slander! I and His Royal Highness the Crown Prince are just friends. On what basis can you say we are male adulterer****? You shameless slut...”

Bai Ruo Qi almost exposed herself. Regaining control of herself, she swallowed back the vulgar words.

At the same time, she looked at the Crown Prince with some apprehension.

She was hoping her sudden loss of self didn’t make the Crown Prince disgusted. Creating loathing towards her.

Fortunately, this time, the Crown Prince was quite angered. He did not have the time to bother with her.

His eyes fell on Huang Yue Li and sneered: “Good! Very stupid! Just a little marquis lady, yet dares to offend her superiors! What are you waiting for? Go and arrest her!”
