Chapter 841: Late night visit to a woman's room, a beauty emerges from the bath (1)

"This..." The female student went into a blank as she looked at her companions.

Her companions displayed a blank look as well, "Ah? I don't know? Seems like we've never heard of Senior Brother's name?"

Huang Yueli went speechless for the third time.

This is really enough! Even not knowing the name could make these ladies love struck until this state! Just how much charm did this man have?

But no matter how handsome or devilish he was, it was none of her concern!

Huang Yueli patted the female students shoulders in front expressionlessly, "Excuse me, I want to return to my courtyard to cultivate! I'd like to trouble you all when you crowd around, please try to move over to that side and not block the entrance of my residence!"

The female student stared at her blankly, "You're leaving just like that? Don't you want to see what Senior Brother looks like?"

The female students weren't able to find the door and get in so they were thinking since Huang Yueli was this Senior Brother's neighbour, perhaps they could make use of her as an excuse to pay a visit to her new neighbour and bring them a glance of the male god! But the result was she was totally not interested?

However, Huang Yueli had already seen through their thinking. She wasn't interested in doing such a nonsensical matter as she had plenty of other important things to do!

She pushed the crowd aside and went straight into her own courtyard.

What Huang Yueli didn't know what in the other courtyard, there was someone hiding behind the window, quietly looking at her sweet and graceful figure.

For that one moment, Li Moying had thought that Huang Yueli would come knocking on his door.

Who knew that she would just leave like that.....

At present, Li Moying didn't know if he should feel disappointed or happy?

Huang Yueli cultivated for an entire afternoon alone in her room and it was until the evening when the Herb Garden Director personally sent her the sixth and seventh level medicinal herbs.

Huang Yueli tallied against her list and realised that this round of collecting the required herbs was extremely smooth and had been completed so easily.

To prevent unexpected circumstances from happening, she immediately that tonight she would start her medicinal bath so as to gain more time in advancement.

She didn't know much people in Celestial Light Academy and it was not possible for anyone to come and find her.

But for safety sake, she set up an array around the surroundings of her courtyard.

Following that, she took out a large bathtub from the Sky Phoenix Ring and laid it with medicinal herbs before bringing Little Phoenix to light up the fire.

True Phoenix Fire burnt in rage and that extremely glaring fire light lit up the entire room, making one unable to open one's eyes!

If it wasn't for the fact that she had pre-set up an array, it was possible that this unusual ray might have already aroused the attention of the surrounding core students.

Huang Yueli immediately stripped and jumped into the bathtub.

The medicinal herbs in the bathtub was as stimulating as the past and after the heating of True Phoenix Fire, the entire bathtub was shrouded with thick white smoke, which looked extremely terrifying!

But after her two previous two experiences, she was already accustomed to the current scenario.

She laid in the bathtub as her head laid against the side of the bathtub, using all her determination to resist against the extreme scorching pain.

Little Phoenix wasn't as nervous as the previous two times. It perched itself on Huang Yueli's wardrobe while chipping away at his favourite roasted garlic drumstick and wiping the oil stains on its claw on the silver-ish white silk dress.

Time went by slowly bit by bit.

Huang Yueli's tightly knitted forehead gradually relaxed a little as the bathtub's boiling hot red medicinal water turned lighter and lighter, eventually becoming transparent.

Wang Cai was after all still a phoenix in its infant stage and required a large amount of sleep. It felt really tired in the middle of the night.....

But just as it was about to fall asleep, suddenly, an indescribable powerful pressure could be felt from not too far away.

The clarity of that bitter coldness which entered one's spine shocked it so much that it instantly awoken as it shuddered and almost fell off from the wardrobe directly onto the ground.

It opened its eyes and looked at the man dressed in a dark robe with gold rims by the side. That pair of blossom eyes were penetrative and just one look and it made Little Phoenix feel waves of fear, uncontrollably shaking as it nudged its little claws.

This was a fear which ran deep into its blood.....

Wang Cai quivered as it felt an irresistible pressure coming towards him and he couldn't help but changed into the form of a little pretty boy.

He used both his hands to cover his head as his tender voice called out, "Don't kill me, don't eat me! My meat is very tough and I'm not delicious at all!"

In actual fact, he had already noticed that this little red bird by Huang Yueli's side was a Magical Beast in its infancy stage and this little thing was obviously very scared of him!

Although he couldn't understand how his little fox was able to derive at this step to even get a Magical Beast but he didn't ask further, only feeling that he should keep this secret for Huang Yueli.

But he self admitted that in front of Huang Yueli, he had always displayed a gentle and caring look so why would her Spiritual Pet be afraid of him?

Little Phoenix was still crying out loud and Li Moying casted it a cold glare, "Enough! Shut up!"

Wang Cai immediately seemed like it was stuck in its shell as the crying suddenly ceased. But that pair of watery big eyes was staring at him in a pitiful manner.

Li Moying suddenly felt like he had a feeling that he was bullying a little kid.....

"You're not allowed to cry out, go outside and play by yourself! Don't come and disturb us!"

Female Devil, not that I don't want to stand on justice's side but this man is simply too, too, too terrifying to defy! Anyway, he's one of your pursuers so he won't do anything to you, so I... I won't stay here any longer.....

Little Phoenix was mumbling in his heart as he nudged his short legs and escaped outwards from the door's small gap.

Li Moying walked to the front of Huang Yueli and lowered his head to look at her fair, nude shoulder and that face which was totally soaked in sweat, absorbed in a deep gaze.

Earlier he had been staying in his own courtyard, thinking about the young lass next door. The words which the young lass said last night had been stuck in his head and numerous thoughts rushed into his mind, making him unable to sleep.

Yesterday when he heard those words, Li Moying had once thought of giving up!

With his status and ability, what other woman would he not get? So many top talented ladies were willing to put themselves down and took the initiative to get close to him. As long as he was willing to cast them one glance, they would feel extremely fortunate.....

Why should he, and for what reason, hang himself to death on one tree? Why waste time on a lady who already had someone in her mind??

But that thought only lasted for a very short time.

After quietly observing Huang Yueli for the entire night, the thought of obtaining this lady finally took the upper hand.

No matter who this young lass liked, that man was not by her side whereas he, Li Moying.... was the only man who was able to stay by her side and protect her!

But in the end, it was just thoughts and Li Moying still felt uncomfortable inside his heart.

Which was why although he continued to stay in Celestial Light Academy, but he didn't take the initiative to appear in front of Huang Yueli.

Early this morning, Jiang Tuxin personally paid him a visit, even bringing along Celestial Light Sect's Elder Yuan's grandson. He was said to be ranked number one in Celestial Light Academy's Martial Arts Stage and had been looking forward to meet him for a long time so he came along to get some pointers.

Just nice, Li Moying had a stomach full of anger and defeated him on the way.

In the end when he was leaving the Martial Arts Stage, he was surrounded by many students from the academy.

He even discovered Huang Yueli in the crowd but unfortunately, not knowing what that young lass had in her mind, she totally ignored him and turned around to leave.

Li Moying actually wanted to ask this little thing badly, to see if her internal injuries had totally recovered? Today she was rushing here and there, not knowing what she was busy with?

Too bad, he still couldn't bear to put his stance down.

Hearing from Jiang Tuxin that Huang Yueli needed high levelled medicinal herbs, he hurriedly got Mo Yi to get it for her.

After that, Li Moying had been sitting in his own room, pricking up his ears, listening to what was happening in the courtyard next door. At the same time, he was deciding if he should use the delivery of medicinal herbs as an excuse to draw the young lass to his side.....

Moreover the vibrations was getting more and more intense!

Li Moying instantly felt alarmed!

In the environment where Celestial Light Academy was, to suddenly have such an unusual situation occurring was something worth to be cautious about. Moreover this unusual occurrence appeared right next door – his little fox was living in that courtyard!

Li Moying could no longer sit still as he turned around and walked towards the outside of the door.

After he easily broke through the array which Huang Yueli set up, he secretly entered the little fox's room but discovered.... An accidental memorable scene!

An exceptional beauty was reclining against a huge bathtub and her body from below the shoulder was emerged in the light red medicinal water. However her fair slender neck, her smooth and delicate shoulders and her defined collarbone were revealed.

The temperature in the room was very high and the scorching flame underneath the bathtub was obviously a type of deviant flame!

Because of this, the young lady in the bathtub seemed to be unable to take the heat as her rosy cheeks flushed red and her willowy eyebrows knitted closely together, seemingly delicate, making one unable to help but love her upon seeing this scenario.

A bead of sweat dripped from the corner of her forehead and following the contour on the side of her face, it slowly dripped downwards to her chin and slowly dripping down following her neck.

Li moying was standing by the side of the bathtub as his gaze couldn't help but followed the direction of how the sweat bead was moving.

The sweat bead slipped past her collarbone and dripped into that indistinctive revealing ravine. Following that it disappeared into the medicinal water.

Li Moying revealed a sign of regret as his Adam's apple slid up and down. Yesterday night's scene came into his mind again and this young lass was lying below him, with her shirt semi-undressed, nudging that curvy body.....

That kind of memory made his entire body stiffen as a heated sensation was felt from his lower body.

Li Moying took a deep breath and managed to oppress his lust as he walked to the front of the bathtub. He slightly bent over and put his slender, muscular big hand into the bathtub, immersing it into the medicinal water.

“Such intense medicinal bath..... it's totally formed by fire-attributed medicinal herbs. If it wasn't practitioners with outstanding innate talent with fire-attribute, just immersing in this medicinal water would make one's skin drop out!”

Li Moying's gaze had a complicated look as he looked at the half conscious Huang Yueli.

“Moreover, this medicinal bath is heated by deviant flames! Little thing, isn’t your innate talent just too astonishing! What secret.... Is your body hiding? When will you finally unreservedly tell me the truth about your everything?”

Huang Yueli lay motionless in the bathtub so naturally she wouldn’t give him any answers.

Li Moying’s fingers gently caressed her delicate little face and sliding it downwards, that delicate feeling was like a good quality silk, making one linger for it.

He wiped off the sweat on Huang Yueli’s face before going round to her back as both his hands firmly pressed on her shoulders.

“Little thing, it seems that you’re unable to completely absorb the medicinal effects in this medicinal bath so I’ll sacrifice a little and help you! After things are done.... You must remember.... To pledge to marry me in return.....”

His brows creased as he discovered in annoyance that the minute he felt this little thing, his self restraint that he was so proud of had vanished to nowhere!

This lass.... was really his nemesis.....

He held his breath and concentrated while his fingers tightened and left a faint red mark on her fair shoulders. At the same time, the Profound Energy in his body started to move along his meridians and through his palms, entering Huang Yueli’s body.

Huang Yueli’s advancement this round was actually not smooth at all.

As she didn’t follow the advancement steps according to the <<Nine Phoenix Transformations>> which were recorded, but had accidentally raised her realm levels during the entrance examinations, and that caused her momentum to be disrupted.

Because of that, even if she had collected all the medicinal herbs this time, but the Profound Energy in her body seemed to be stuck at a bottleneck, unable to breakthrough.

Before Li Moying arrived, she had attempted several times to breakthrough to third stage fourth level realm but had not been successful!

As she had repeatedly suffered the backlash from repeated breakthrough attempts, she could feel that her own meridians were indistinctly damaged and momentarily, she wasn’t able to move forward or backwards, not knowing if she should give up.

But just at this moment, she felt a weight on her shoulders and following that, a tremendous wave of Profound Energy entered her body suddenly!

This Profound Energy was extremely intensive and compelling, sharp and intense as it instantly swept through every single meridian in her body. As for the bottleneck which she was stuck at, it was also broken through at one go!

Third stage fourth level!

Huang Yueli gave out a dull “Oof” moan as the Profound Energy in her body started to oscillate and advanced successfully!

After breaking through this critical bottleneck, her advancement process started to become smoother.

As for the overbearing and vigorous Profound energy behind her also entered her body without any disruption, increasing her speed of advancement.

Third stage realm fifth level!

Third stage realm sixth level!

Third stage realm seventh level!

After breaking through to third stage realm seventh level, the speed that Huang Yueli absorbed the Profound Qu gradually became slower.

Third stage realm eighth level.....

After she broke through this level at a snail’s pace, the absorption speed became much slower feeling as though her advancement was right about to stop.....

Huang Yueli was feeling anxious. If she could not breakthrough to third stage realm ninth level, then her advancement was still not perfect and she would need to get the ingredients once again to find another chance to continue with her advancement! Moreover, the next time, the difficulty would increase!

She urged the Profound Energy in her body and kept blasting her dantian but didn’t yield any effect.....

The energy that had been supporting her was taken back and for a moment, the Profound Energy in her body became much weaker and she had no more energy to go up against her bottleneck.

Huang Yueli frowned in disappointment.

But just at this moment, she suddenly felt a warm sensation on her lips.

“En.... wu....” She panted slightly as she subconsciously shook her head, trying to shake away this strange feeling!

But following that was a wave of Profound Energy which was stronger than the previous. In a moment, it entered her body through her mouth!

This round, it was much stronger than the previous time by one hundred times! As though terrifying waves, the impact of the energy was so strong that a white light flashed past her eyes, causing her to almost faint!

Third stage realm.... ninth level!

She finally completed her advancement perfectly....

Huang Yueli was finally rest assured as a smile broke out from the corners of her lips as she totally relaxed and fell into a deep sleep.

At this moment, she had barely realised that she was totally naked, lying in front of a man.

And that man lowered his head, as his starry eyes were half closed and a cold paid of thin lips were repeatedly  on her delicate lips, his tongue entering her mouth, possessively searching for the hidden sweetness that she was hiding.

Feeling that Huang Yueli had relaxed, Li Moying finally stood upright.

“True Phoenix Fire?? How did this lass get this type of deviant flame? This is the number one deviant flame which had been lost in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent for a long, long time!”

He went into deep thoughts for a while and all his fingers withdrew as he sealed the True Phoenix Fire into him.

If Little Phoenix was here, he would definitely be so shocked until his chicken drumstick dropped onto the ground!

Because when he saw Huang Yueli tame the True Phoenix Fire, he was already shocked from that easy-going attitude. But Li Moying’s current condition was even more outstanding than hers! Moreover, he was not a practitioner who majored in fire attribute!

Without the deviant flame keeping the water warm, the water in the bathtub would turn cold quickly. By then, if this lass were to continue sleeping inside, she would definitely catch a cold.

He outstretched his hand into the bathtub as he used one hand to hug Huang Yueli’s slender waist and another hand lifted her thighs, carrying her horizontally out from the bathtub.

The young lady in the bathtub had nothing on and the moment the alluring beautiful woman’s body was revealed in front of Li Moying, his body instantly reacted.

Li Moying could only hasten his footsteps as he took two to three steps to reach the bed and stuffed Huang Yueli into the blanket before wrapping her up tightly.

He raised his head and felt that his throat was dry and his body was giving out waves of heated sensations.

Was it because this room was filled with fire attributed elements which was why.... it was so hot?

Li Moying tried hard to find excuses for himself but his gaze uncontrollably stopped at the fair white neck which Huang Yueli had exposed underneath the blanket.

Earlier that glimpse of gracefulness, Huang Yueli's fair, delicate and soft body was already deeply etched into his mind!

He couldn't help but imagine the feeling of kissing that snow like skin would be like? What kind of reaction would that young lass have? Would it be like yesterday night, where she took the initiative to tangle around him and obediently allow him to demand further?

This sort of thinking made Li Moying felt even more uncomfortable.

He hurriedly stood up from the side of the bed as he thought of pouring a glass of water and slightly lowered the impulse coming from his body.

But just at this moment, Huang Yueli suddenly moaned a sigh, "En~~~" and following that, curled up like a caterpillar in the blanket and using her hand, she pulled the blanket which covered up to her chest downwards.

Li Moying just didn't check on her for one second and saw the two pieces of tender skin being revealed. That round softness was revealed right in front of his eyes.....

He hurriedly stretched out his hand to stop Huang Yueli's tugging, attempting to pull the blanket back on her.

But Huang Yueli struggled hard, "It's so hot, I don't want the blanket!" She pouted her pink lips in dissatisfaction.

"No, you must cover up yourself with the blanket! Otherwise, do you want to seduce me?"

The two of them were in a deadlock and Li Moying was on fire from her struggling but unfortunately, he didn't dare to make too big movements.

Because under the blanket, Huang Yueli didn't have anything on. Such delicateness, such gentleness and such slenderness..... as though just using a bit of strength would easily break her waist into pieces.....

With this wishful thinking plus in the process where Huang Yueli struggled, her breasts kept rubbing against Li Moying's chest, one time, two times, three times.....

Li Moying gradually lost his rationality and the strength grabbing her wrist suddenly increased, pressing both her wrists on the pillow on top of her head!

Following that, he lowered his head and pressed heavily against Huang Yueli's lips.

His big palms wilfully went downwards as he caressed the soft, tender thing that had been seducing him.....

Huang Yueli started to feel uncomfortable and kept struggling but in futile attempt.....

At the last juncture, Li Moying managed to use his last bit of self-restraint as he forcefully let her go and laid right next to her, panting heavily.

He wanted her so much, but.... now was not the time!

His Li'er had someone in her heart but the person she loved was not him! If he were to take advantage of her when she was in a helpless situation, then what difference was there between him and a beast?

Moreover, Li Moying was very sure that if he was to forcefully have a relationship with her at this kind of moment, just based on Li'er's pride, they probably would not be together forever!

Li Moying spent a very long time before pacifying the impulse within.

By his side, Huang Yueli's breathing became slow and lengthy, apparently she was sound asleep.

Li Moying didn't want to spend the night here originally but after he heard the young lady's light and slow breathing, smelling the light and elegant smell from her body, he slowly shut his eyes.

On the second day's morning, a sharp scream broke the silence in the room.

"AH~~~~~!"

A young lady's voice was heard and Li Moying awoke immediately.

When he lifted his head, he saw Huang Yueli's shocked expression.

"You...You..... Li Moying??"

It was very rare where one was able to see the usually composed, black-bellied and powerful young lady to reveal such a lost expression and this made Li Moying uncontrollably curl up his lips.

"That's right, it's me. My Li'er, good morning!"

"You..... you....." Huang Yueli whisked the blanket and covered her breast, bobbling movements kept fluctuating from her chest area as she stared daggers at Li Moying, as though she wanted to kill someone!

Li Moying knew he shouldn't laugh but he simply couldn't help it. Because he felt that the infuriated Li'er was simply too cute!

Huang Yueli was both shocked and furious.

It wasn't that she didn't want to show how uneasy she was, but when she awoke, she found herself totally naked lying on the bed and by her side was a half nude handsome man with dishevelled clothing lying right next to her!

The scarier thing was she actually realised that she was like an obedient kitten lying on the man's chest and her face was rested on the man's neck, in such an ambiguous position, in deep sleep.....

In her memory, she felt that the bolster on the bed was extremely comfortable and had hugged it tightly.....

When she awoke in the morning, the truth had been like this... so how calm and collected could she get! This was the first time in her entire two lifetimes!

She had never been such a disgrace and so embarrassed before!

"Li'er, are you awake? Yesterday night you were in deep sleep and no matter how I called you, I couldn't wake you up!"

Huang Yueli was not the only one who had a good night's sleep yesterday.

Li Moying had unexpectedly had gone into deep sleep too.

Ever since he had gotten the Soul Detachment Illness, as his soul was not stable and his sleep had been extremely light at night. There were even some days where he was not able to sleep at all. Yesterday that kind of sleep where he had unconsciously fallen asleep had never occurred before.....

Moreover, he had been in such a deep sleep that he originally intended to slip away but had completely overslept and it was until Huang Yueli started screaming before he awoke in shock.

Huang Yueli noticed what he was looking at and pulled up the blanket in a flurry, trying to cover up her body but no matter how she tried, she wasn't able to.

When she took a look, she realised that Li Moying was lying on one corner of the blanket.

Moreover, that man was smiling wickedly as he raised his brow and laid steadily there like Mount Tai, his strong arms were leaning backwards on the bed, his muscular chest half exposed with a languid expression.

"Li Moying!!!" Huang Yueli pulled and pulled but didn't managed to move an inch as she shouted in anger and embarrassment, "What are you doing? Get off from my bed!"

Li Moying then noticed her movements and nudged slightly, allowing Huang Yueli to draw away the blanket.

Huang Yueli hurriedly covered herself up as she stared at him, she asked, "You.... What are you doing here? Last night....."

She recalled the scenario last night and puzzlement filled her heart, "Yesterday night, I was obviously cultivating alone in my room and I had even set up an array at the surroundings! How did you manage to enter? That's right, where's my spiritual pet??"

Li Moying lazily replied, "You asked so many questions, which ones do you want me to answer first?"

Huang Yueli stared at him, "Aren't you in your Sect joining in some tournament? How are you able to appear here now?"

"You're a student here?"

Huang Yueli raised her brows in astonishment but quickly recalled what happened yesterday and immediately understood what had happened.

"You.... don't tell me you're the one who those starry eyed female students at the entrance were talking about.... handsome till you shake up the heavens and earth and making the ghost & ghosts weep, incomparable Male God Senior Brother??"

Li Moying's lips curled upwards, "Those girls are simply too noisy but their eyesight are pretty good. The description about me are both accurate and precise....."

Huang Yueli was speechless, "You, you, you... do you need to be such a narcissist? Is there anyone who would praise themselves in such a way?"

Chapter 848: Late night visit to a woman's room, a beauty emerges from the bath (8)

Li Moying took a glance at her and said disapprovingly, "It's all the truth so why can't I admit it?"

Huang Yueli stared at him, alright, the truth.... Indeed it was the truth but, he was still too shameless!

"Wait, this is Celestial Light Academy so how on earth did you managed to smuggle in? You obviously hadn't taken the entrance examinations right?" She thought of another matter.

Li Moying replied, "Do I even need to take the entrance examinations if I want to enter this whatever academy?"

Huang Yueli blinked her eyes, looked at his smiling handsome face and thought of something, suddenly seeing the light, "You... I know, so you're actually a disciple of Celestial Light Sect! No wonder you're able to smuggle in easily....." Moreover to deal with everyone in the academy and live right next to her!

Li Moying initially wanted to keep her in suspense to tease her but whoever could expect that this little fox was so smart and guessed the correct answer immediately.

He immediately lost interest and stretched out his hand to pinch Huang Yueli's face, "Li'er, women who are too smart are not lovable....."

Huang Yueli slapped his hand away and raised her chin, replying haughtily, "I don't need you to feel that I'm lovable! Don't divert the topic, you haven't answered me why are you here? I haven't seem to given you approval to come to my courtyard? Were you thinking of doing something bad?"

Li Moying anxiously lamented his misfortune.

“Li’er, you’re framing me! Yesterday night I heard there’s some noise coming from your room and worried that something had happened to you, I dropped by! In the end, I found that you’re so daring that you’re actually advancing alone in your room! Did you know that without anyone to protect you, how dangerous a feat was it to advance alone?? If something happened, there’s no one who could save you!”

Li Moying’s tone was gentle but towards the end, it gradually became stern!

The scene that he saw yesterday night made him felt scared now that he recalled it!

In the process of a practitioner’s cultivation, to advance was an extremely dangerous process.

In the process of breaking through the bottleneck, if there was any disturbance from the outside world, even if it was a slight wave of vibration, it could possibly cause the meridians to be damaged and in serious cases, one might even go into Qi deviation!

Even if there was no disturbance, sometimes the situation where the practitioner’s inner breath might be in disorder and caused injuries.

So when most practitioners advance, they would need someone to protect them. In large Sects, when top talents like Li Moying advance, it was a huge matter for the entire Sect and several elders in the Sect would help to keep watch together to ensure his safety.

But now, this little fox was so daring that she directly advanced without anyone’s protection! Moreover it’s an advancement by such a wide margin, to continuously advanced by several small realms!

This was simply taking her life as a joke!

Thinking of this, Li Moying could no longer maintain his gentle expression as his face sunk and his blossom eyes held a tinge of strictness, staring straight at the young lady.

Huang Yueli went into a blank and suddenly her expression changed.

When she was advancing yesterday, Li Moying had known everything. Didn’t that meant.... that this man already knew that she had advanced from third stage realm third level to third stage realm ninth level, leaping over six small realms? This kind of cultivation method was simply unheard of!

If her secret were to be leaked out.....

“When did you... appear here yesterday? What have you seen?”

Her heavily guarded look made Li Moying even angrier!

Chapter 849: This is called having a clandestine love affair (1)

Li Moying unhappily said, “Wasn’t that when you were continuously advancing those six small realms?”

Huang Yueli went into a blank as she didn't expect him to really see it all and yet still say it out so frankly without any intention to deny at all.

She could only reply, "You've seen everything? But don't ask me why because even if you did, I will not answer you."

Li Moying's beautiful blossom eyes rose, casted her a sidelong glance and gave a humph, "What? Still trying to hide something from me? You really think I don't know? You've an extremely outstanding innate talent physique and is ninth grade and above! You should be some kind of fire-attributed physique, am I right?"

"..... how did you know?"

This time, Huang Yueli was absolutely stunned!

Her Flame Spirit Physique was one and only in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent. At least she hadn't heard of this in her previous life that there was something more outstanding than ninth grade talent! But now Li Moying had downplayed it so easily.....

Li Moying replied, "Because coincidentally I have the same type of innate talent physique. According to historical records, it should be called Cosmic Blue Physique, with thunder as its main attribute. Unfortunately I'd never been able to find a cultivation method which was suitable for me so my advancement had not been as fast as yours. I can tell that not only your physique is special, you even have a god ranked fire attributed cultivation method which is why you are able to advance so quickly every single time."

Huang Yueli's mouth was agape not knowing what to say.

Li Moying had seen through her secret, and what he said was exactly as it was!

But the most shocking discovery was that Li Moying actually was a peak grade innate talent physique genius!

After the temporary shock, Huang Yueli quickly accepted this accidental news. Li Moying's advancement speed had been so fast, entering the seventh degree realm even earlier than Mu Chengying so this showed that his innate talent was extremely uncommon.....

Moreover, he had voluntarily spoke out his secret and successfully pacified Huang Yueli's uneasiness and apprehensive.

This round since they both knew one another's secret, then it should be..... evened out right?

Huang Yueli laughed, "So you're also have a peak level innate talent physique, no wonder you're so powerful! You should have told me earlier, you really scared me to death!"

Her smile was very sweet but Li Moying still kept a straight face on and even then his expression had turned uglier than earlier.

"You still dare to smile! You're almost scared to death, I'm the one who was almost scared to death! Looks like my words earlier didn't enter your ears at all? Alone hiding in the room and you dare to advance? Moreover to continuously advance several times! Do you even have any brains? Or do you feel your life is too long? Or you want to try the taste of Qi deviation?"

Huang Yueli had seldom received such ominous treatment from him and suddenly felt aggrieved as she pouted, "Wh... Why do you say such things of me! Don't I know that it's dangerous? But I couldn't find any reliable person to protect me! Surely I shouldn't give up the chance to advance just because of this right?"

Huang Yueli subconsciously nudged her little butt, moving backwards but she was wrapped up like a baby silkworm, not able to quickly move away.

Li Moying pressed on one corner of her blanket causing her to lose balance and falling backwards onto the bed.

Chapter 850: This is called having a clandestine love affair (2)

"Hey, what... are you thinking of doing?"

Li Moying's well-built body came pressing towards her and Huang Yueli became tongue-tied, "Don't you dare come any nearer, stop it! I'm warning you!"

She hadn't forgotten that underneath the blanket, she had nothing on at all.

Li Moying turned a deaf ear to her warning, bearing an icy cold face like a sculpture, his gaze unpredictable, forcing Huang Yueli's entire body to stick on the bed, not daring to move one single bit.

But the distance between the two of them were close enough.

Huang Yueli was able to clearly feel that in between the thin blanket, the two of their chests were pressing against each other and this kind of ambiguous feeling made her body started to heat up, her pale face blushing a share of red.

"You....."

Li Moying lowered his head and his breath fell onto her face, "Remember, next time you want to advance, you must tell me and let me protect you. Anyway I already know of your secret so you have nothing to worry about! Do you hear me?"

"Ah?" Huang Yueli went into a blank, "But this will be too troublesome for you.... I don't know when I will advance again. If you're not by my side, does it mean that I shouldn't advance at all? This obviously cannot..... wu wu!!"

Her sentence was stopped by a sudden warm kiss.

If it was said that when they just got to know one another, Li Moying's kiss came from his instructs, then now it could be said that he had gained a lot more experience and it became a lot more unhurried.

In between the exchange of lips and teeth, it was willful and yet fervent.

Just as Huang Yueli's breathing was unstable, he lifted his head and backed down a little, "Little lass, you'd better remember my words well and not try to challenge my patience! If I were to know that you tried to advance when I'm not around, I will definitely punish you!"

"Punish me? What can you do to me?"

Huang Yueli instinctively bit her lips, "..... shameless!"

"You thought I'd kiss you as a punishment?" Li Moying laughed lightly.

Something was not right, there should be a scheme somewhere!

Li Moying's smile became even more unbridled, "I will, but the punishment will not only be a kiss..." Saying that his gaze slid downwards to her fair skinned neck, his tongue sweeping past his own lips.

This devious movement made Huang Yueli's entire body shudder!

"Beast!" She finally couldn't hold it in and spat out these words!

Li Moying rose his eyebrows, "You really bite the hand that feeds you! Have you forgotten? Yesterday when you were in the middle of advancement and met with a bottleneck, who was it who helped you broke through that stage and successfully advance? You dare to say you don't need me by your side?"

Huang Yueli blinked her eyes as she faintly recalled when she was trying to break through, she had indeed failed several times. But later on an accidental Profound Energy entered her body which enabled her to advance successfully.....

Could it be that it was this man?

Wait a minute, that last bit of Profound Energy coming from the mouth, wasn't it also.....

Huang Yueli's face gradually turned redder and Li Moying looked at the changing expressions on her face in a calm and unruffled manner, feeling extremely delightful within.

He knew that this little thing was unable to reject his demands!
