

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1000

However, as the son of that man, the young man was unconvinced in his heart. Therefore, he wanted to prove to that man that he, the fourth young master of the Seven Stars Continent, was definitely not inferior to anyone. Then, he left the Seven Stars Continent and competed with Xie Jiuhuan for a few years. He thought that his scheme was foolproof and would definitely let Xie Jiuhuan lose to him. However, he never expected that not only did he lose this time, but he would also very likely lose his life. It turned out that at some point, his foothold had already been locked on by the Xie Corporation's missiles. After the young man looked at Xie Jiuhuan fiercely, he quickly disappeared from the camera. Fortunately, there was a bomb shelter where he lived. He didn't expect that it would finally be useful this time.

Seeing that the woman in the video had escaped, Xie Jiuhuan finally sat back on the chair and returned to the state of knocking on the armrest. However, his cold and heartless eyes were fixed on the computer screen. At this moment, his entire body was emitting a terrifying aura. The huge murderous aura was like a black hole that kept absorbing the surrounding light.

A violent killing intent wreaked havoc on the entire 95th floor. He wanted to see the missile hit and explode with his own eyes. He wanted this fellow called God Di to disappear from this world. Dozens of seconds later, the scene on the computer screen trembled violently. As a terrifying airwave swept across, the screen instantly fell into darkness.

Xie Jiuhuan knew that the missile had already exploded at the target location. Hence, he took out his phone and instructed his subordinates in Country E, "The missile has already hit the target location. After the explosion calms down, I want you to enter the scene and search immediately. You have to confirm that the God Di is dead before you can end the operation. If she's not completely dead, then shoot her head with more machine guns. I don't want her to be able to breathe the air of this world."

Xie Corporation's financial center, seventh floor.

Meng Kexin received a call from the Xie Corporation's energy company. After the person on the other end of the phone said a few words, she turned to look at the interns and said, "I just received a notice from my superiors that we will continue to follow up on the acquisition of the Chenghai aluminum mine from tomorrow onwards. The Xie Corporation hopes that we can reduce the price of the Chenghai aluminum mine to 1.5 billion for the acquisition."

Upon hearing this, someone immediately said, "If we had known this would happen, we would have negotiated the price with the Chenghai aluminum mine earlier. They might have already agreed."

As soon as these words were out, everyone turned to look at Feng Qing. They clearly remembered that when the meeting ended just now, Feng Qing was the one who was tirelessly persuading Professor Sun to continue the acquisition of the Chenghai aluminum mine. Moreover, she had done a lot of analysis and pointed out that the variable was Xie Jiuhan. Unfortunately, they didn't listen at that time and even questioned Feng Qing. However, the Xie Corporation's shares were rising crazily now. Previously, both parties had agreed to buy it for three billion. Now, they were lowering the price of the Chenghai aluminum mine. The other party wasn't a fool. How could they agree to reduce the price by half?

At the thought of this, all the interns started to regret it. They could have used this opportunity to make a name for themselves, but because they were short-sighted, they missed this opportunity. Now, facing the pressure from the Xie Corporation's energy company, the interns all felt that this was an impossible mission.

"Qingqing?" Senior Liu Yan's voice sounded in Feng Qing's ear. Liu Yan's voice was as magnetic as ever, making one's ears pregnant.

Feng Qing turned to look at Liu Yan. "Senior, what's the matter?"

Liu Yan said, "It's nothing. I just saw you holding your chest just now, so I asked if you were feeling unwell?"

Feng Qing took a deep breath and said, "I don't know why, but I suddenly feel a faint pain in my chest, and it's very stuffy."

Liu Yan had observed very carefully. Feng Qing had indeed felt a tightness in her chest and shortness of breath just now. Not only was her heart racing, but it also hurt. She even suspected that she had a heart attack.

Upon hearing this, Liu Yan asked nervously, "Heart pain? What happened? Should I send you to the hospital for a checkup?"

Feng Qing shook her head. She looked at Liu Yan, her large eyes a little confused. Liu Yan instantly blushed under her clear gaze and hurriedly changed the topic. "I came to look for you because I want to discuss with you. If you're not feeling well, let's talk about it another day."

Feng Qing shook her head again. "Oh, it's fine. I'm much better now. Why don't we discuss it now?"
