

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1004

Seeing Fu Anlan's look of disbelief, Feng Qing added, "If you don't believe me, feel free to call Feng Yuanzhou. The three of us will find an organization that you think is authoritative to personally appraise it."

Fu Anlan completely exploded. She roared with widened eyes, "Feng Qing, are you rebelling?! What paternity test? You're obviously my biological daughter. You're 100% a member of the Feng family. You're Feng Yuanzhou and my biological daughter. You're Feng Yiru's biological niece!"

Upon hearing this, Feng Qing couldn't help but be stunned. Why did Fu Anlan suddenly mention Feng Yiru's niece? It was strange enough that she suddenly pulled her to the Seven Stars Continent. Where did the Feng family obtain the qualifications to enter the Seven Stars Continent? She felt that there was a problem, and it wasn't a small problem.

Seeing that Fu Anlan was pestering her and starting to be unreasonable, Feng Qing said emotionlessly, "Madam Fu, since you don't believe me, let's find a place to do the appraisal personally now and do it again in front of us. The appraisal technique has improved, and it's not as slow as before. The money is spent properly and the results will be out in three hours. I believe we can still wait three hours."

With that, Feng Qing took the initiative to take a step forward, looking like she wanted to grab Fu Anlan and go for the paternity test. Fu Anlan was shocked by Feng Qing's actions and subconsciously retreated hurriedly, afraid that Feng Qing would grab her. Moreover, it could be seen from her expression that she was very flustered.

She definitely didn't dare to do the appraisal with Feng Qing because she couldn't afford to take the risk. Once the results of the appraisal showed that she and Feng Qing weren't biologically related, what should she do? Wouldn't she lose the right to immigrate to the Seven Stars Continent, and the Feng family would completely lose the best chance to become a citizen of the Seven Stars Continent? All of this was unacceptable to her.

Fu Anlan was afraid. She didn't dare to do the appraisal and didn't dare to face the real reality. She wanted to hold this heaven-sent opportunity firmly in her hands. She definitely wouldn't allow the opportunity to pass before her eyes.

Fu Anlan seemed to have gone crazy. She started to tear the report apart crazily until she completely tore the paper into small pieces.

Feng Qing thought that Fu Anlan was crazy, and she heard her say, "Who would believe this? I don't care about the paternity test. I gave birth to you. Even if the heavens come today, you have to leave with me."

Seeing that Fu Anlan had torn the paternity test report to the ground, Feng Qing finally understood. Fu Anlan didn't care if she was the biological daughter of the Feng family at all. Fu Anlan's goal in coming to look for her today was very simple. She wanted to bring her back to the Feng family at all costs and methods.

After figuring this out, Feng Qing roughly guessed that it was probably because of some reason that she had the chance to enter the Seven Stars Continent. Therefore, the Feng family's thoughts instantly became active again. They wanted to use her as a stepping stone to enter the Seven Stars Continent, so the Feng family wanted to bring her back without any care. They even brought many people to arrest her, planning to use force if they couldn't use soft methods. This was because to the Feng family, being able to develop in the Seven Stars Continent or build a relationship with the Seven Stars Continent was an opportunity that they definitely couldn't miss.

Seeing Fu Anlan throwing a tantrum, Liu Yan pushed his glasses up his nose bridge and said with a displeased expression, “Madam Fu, it’s useless even if you tear up the appraisal report. It’s a fact that you and Qingqing did not have any relations. It’s useless even if you don’t admit it. You aren’t related. Why do you have to force it?”

Fu Anlan said angrily, “Who do you think you are? This is our family matter. Do you have to say so much?”

Liu Yan’s expression turned cold. He threatened, “If you dare to let someone arrest Qingqing, I’ll call the police immediately.”

As he spoke, Liu Yan took out his phone, looking like he didn’t dare to move. However, Fu Anlan looked at him disdainfully, not taking his threat to heart at all.

Feng Qing’s expression was indifferent and cold. It was fine if Fu Anlan tore the appraisal. She took out another paternity test report from the document bag. “Madam Fu, you should take a good look at this paternity test report.”

Fu Anlan thought that the test report Feng Qing took out was still the same one as before, so she snatched it from Feng Qing and was about to tear it apart. However, she suddenly saw Feng Yuanzhou’s name written on it. Her hands subconsciously paused. In these few seconds, she saw the results of the paternity test and was stunned on the spot.
