

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1021

Coupled with the school's expulsion order, Feng Jianing could only choose to drop out of school obediently. But now, Xian Cheng has directly changed everyone's opinion and attitude towards Feng Jianing. It was as if they had collectively lost their memories. In order to flatter Feng Jianing, the students quickly pointed the spearhead at Feng Qing.

"Ah? I see. In other words, Student Feng Qing already knew that she wasn't from the Feng family, so she live-streamed her severing ties with the Feng couple on the spot."

"I didn't expect Student Feng Qing to have such deep thoughts. She's never mentioned it to us, but I'm very curious. Who are Feng Qing's biological parents? Then can't her surname be Feng in the future?"

"The ultimate question is, why was Jianing's paternity test report from four years ago tampered with? Feng Qing was the one who benefited from this..."

The students each sent a message in the music school group. Although the spearhead had already turned to Feng Qing, they were still very restrained. They more or less took into account the feelings of being fellow students. However, they had already privately discussed that in order to be the daughter of the Feng family, Feng Qing had joined forces with the paternity testing agency to tamper with the report and label her as a scheming bitch.

Feng Jianing deliberately replied in the group, "Qingqing hasn't mentioned changing her surname, but she has completely left the Feng family and is no longer a member of the Feng family. It's only a matter of time before she changes her surname."

A student from the music department said in the group, "I have a feeling that Student Feng Qing might not want to change her surname. Although the Feng family isn't a wealthy family, it's still much better than ordinary families. After leaving the Feng family, her status will naturally plummet."

Seeing this, everyone in the group understood. If Feng Qing didn't change her surname, she could still deceive people who didn't know anything and tell them that she was the daughter of the Feng family in the Capital. She could more or less support herself. However, once Feng Qing changed her name, how could she fool others when she went out in the future? Thinking of this, the students all chuckled in secret and agreed with this student's words.

Xie Shihao looked at his phone. He had been pulled into the music school's chat group by Gu Qingye. Because of his status as the young master of the Xie family, the administrator in the group could only pretend not to see anything. Xie Shihao saw a bunch of people in the group gossiping and watching the fun. He was so angry that he wished he could smash his phone.

Xie Shihao said angrily, "Little Aunt, give me your phone. I'll scold them!"

However, before he could reach out, he saw a hand snatching Feng Qing's phone. The owner of that arm was Xie Jiuhan. Xie Jiuhan had been sitting at the side and listening just now. Actually, he didn't need to look. Just by listening to Xie Shihao's noisy words, he had already guessed that what Feng Qing's phone showed wasn't anything good. Xie Jiuhan's fingers swiped across the phone screen and looked at the chat records in the music school group. He snorted coldly. The man was already considering sending Little Wu to secretly cut off their tongues.

Feng Qing asked softly, "Little Jiu Jiu, how do you think I should reply to such a situation?"

She had been thinking about this matter since just now. Faced with her classmates' doubts and guesses, as well as Feng Jianing's malicious bewitchment, she really didn't know how to deal with it. She couldn't really give her phone to Xie Shihao to scold them, right? Not only would that not solve any problems, but it would also put her in a worse situation.

Xie Jiuhan did not answer Feng Qing's words. Instead, he looked at the chat on her phone. His abnormally handsome face revealed half of his face to Feng Qing. If not for the fact that he had been snorting coldly, Feng Qing would have thought that he was not here. Xie Jiuhan flipped through all the chat records and finally said, "It's just a small scene. I'll help you settle it."

With that, the man held his phone in one hand and quickly pressed on the screen with the other. Soon, he sent a message to the group. "Qingqing is already married. According to Xia country's traditional customs, once a woman gets married, she has to have her husband's surname. In other words, Qingqing is no longer a member of the Feng family, so the surname Feng is dispensable to Qingqing. Moreover, it's not important whether her surname is Feng or not. After all, she's already Madam Xie."

However, less than three seconds after the message was sent, the man pressed the screen again and retracted the message. Then, he pressed the voice button on her phone and said what he had just typed. The man's voice was not loud, and his tone was neither cold nor hot. He spoke neither quickly or slowly. After saying that, he released his fingers. Then, a voice message appeared in the music school's chat group.
