

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1029

Ever since Feng Qing followed him, she had known many people inside and out. Why did she feel the so-called 'warmth and intimacy' from Xing Yue and the Han brothers? Xie Jiuhan was also puzzled by this matter. He had even secretly sent someone to investigate Xing Yue and the other two. He suspected that the three of them had some conspiracy against Feng Qing in private, so they were obedient to Feng Qing and cared for her especially.

However, after investigating for a long time, he found nothing. This was also what puzzled him the most. It had to be known that be it Xing Yue or the two Han brothers, their backgrounds were not simple, and their connections was not something ordinary people could compare to. Xie Jiuhan did not believe that they did not have a goal in everything they did. Therefore, why did they come into contact with Feng Qing?

However, no matter what Xing Yue and the other two's motives were, Xie Jiuhan had always been suspicious of the three of them. He disdained the so-called warmth and intimacy between Feng Qing, Xing Yue and the Han brothers. Of course, he would continue to send people to investigate the reason why those three had come into contact with Feng Qing and whether there was any other connection between them and Feng Qing.

Before the results of the test report came out personally, they all thought that Feng Qing was the pearl left behind by the Feng family in the Capital and was Feng Yiru's biological niece. Therefore, she was considered the three brothers' cousin. They had also developed a hint of kinship because of their blood relationship. This was still barely acceptable to Xie Jiuhan.

However, the most authoritative appraisal agency had released a report that Feng Qing was not from the Feng family and was not related to the Feng couple by blood. In other words, it was impossible for Feng Qing to be Feng Yiru's biological niece. Since she was not her biological niece, there were no blood ties between her and the three brothers. How could the warmth and intimacy that Feng Qing mentioned still exist? Therefore, in Xie Jiuhan's opinion, this matter definitely did not make sense! Thinking of this,

Xie Jiuhan was even more determined in his heart. He wanted to continue investigating and find out what was going on.

Just as Xie Jiuhan was 'punishing' Feng Qing, on the other side of the Capital, in the Feng family's villa, there was a different scene.

At this moment, Feng Jianing was sitting on the sofa with a cold face. Xie Shihao's scolding voice kept coming from her phone. Just now, she had been scolded by Xie Shihao more than twenty times in a row. Xie Shihao was obviously standing up for Feng Qing, but as the eldest daughter of the Feng family, she didn't dare to refute Xie Shihao at all. Although she was going to acknowledge Xian Cheng as her master soon, Xie Shihao was still the young master of the Xie family. It was best not to offend him if she could. She could ignore Xie Shihao, but she had no choice but to take the Xie family seriously. Otherwise, before she could go to the Seven Stars Continent, she might lose her life in the Capital.

With the thought that a little impatience would spoil great plans, Feng Jianing simply gritted her teeth and exited the group chat. This way, Xie Shihao wouldn't be able to continue scolding her, and she could also pretend not to hear anything. Anyway, if she wasn't embarrassed, others would be. Most importantly, by retreating for the sake of advancing, she could avoid a direct conflict with Xie Shihao and let her classmates and teachers witness how Xie Shihao bullied his classmates with their own eyes. From there, she could become the weaker party and obtain the sympathy of her classmates and teachers.

However, as soon as she exited the group, she stomped her feet in regret and almost threw her phone away. She was angry at herself for being so anxious. She should have kept the voice message of the wild man behind Feng Qing first so that she could listen to it repeatedly in the future. Only then could she better figure out and infer the meaning of Feng Qing's cheap husband's words in the group.

Unfortunately, not only did she not keep it, but she had also almost forgotten that voice. There was only a faint memory in her head. She believed that this memory would completely disappear in a while.

Feng Jianing looked at her phone and tried her best to recall Xie Jiuhao's voice message just now. She even analyzed it herself. "It looks like Feng Qing is married. Otherwise, there wouldn't be a man who would say such things with her phone. A tradition in Xia country? After marriage, a woman will have her husband's surname? Just now, Feng Qing's husband said that Feng Qing doesn't care about the surname Feng at all because she's already Madam Xie now, which means that Feng Qing's husband's surname is Xie!"

At the thought of this, Feng Jianing thought of another person. It was Xie Shihao, who had scolded her crazily just now. Didn't Xie Shihao have the surname Xie? Moreover, he had been protecting Feng Qing in school. As long as Feng Qing went to school, Xie Shihao would follow Feng Qing like a pug.
