

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1030

At the thought of this, Feng Jianing's chest rose and fell violently. Her originally cold face was even more unconvinced. She never expected that Feng Qing would actually have such a good life that she could even hook up with the Xie family. Moreover, the Xie family was so protective of her.

However, in her opinion, the person Feng Qing married was very likely only a member of the Xie family's collateral family. Although his surname was also Xie, it was impossible for him to be that powerful. Perhaps his status was not as high as Xie Shihao's in the Xie family. After all, everyone knew that Xie Shihao's main family had very few people. Other than Xie Shihao and Xie Jiuhuan, almost everyone else was dead or missing. The people from the Xie family's collateral families were very strong, and there was no lack of capable elites. Many elites from the Xie family's collateral families also held important core positions in the Xie Corporation, contributing to the Xie family's prosperity.

This time, when she returned to the music school's chat group, she even heard many students in the String Department discussing Feng Qing. They said that Feng Qing's fate was really good. She had just transferred to the Finance Department and had obtained the chance to intern at the Xie Corporation's financial center. Previously, she couldn't figure out the reason, but now, it looked like Feng Qing could obtain this internship opportunity 100% because of her husband behind the scenes. Otherwise, with Feng Qing's ability, no matter how smart she was or how good her studies were, how could she stand out from the group of students and obtain such a precious internship in just a few days after transferring to the Finance Department?

If she had known this news in the past, she would definitely be envious, jealous, and even indignant. She would even be upset for a while. However, she does not feel this way now. She even felt some pity in her heart. The current her was about to have the Xian family, one of the seven major families in the Seven Stars Continent, as her backer. The second young master of the Xian family, Xian Cheng, was her master. In the future, no matter where she went, she was destined to be a high and mighty existence. Only a very few people could swagger in front of her. Moreover, she had to follow Xian Cheng to the Seven Stars Continent. As long as she could gain a foothold there, what would happen then? Not only would the wealthy families in the Capital want to curry favor with her, but even the Xie Corporation would have to bow down to her.

“Hmph, didn’t she just marry a member of the collateral of the Xie family? What’s there to posture about? When I return from the Seven Stars Continent, I’ll settle the old and new grudges with you. At that time, I’ll ruthlessly press you to the ground and let you beg for mercy from me personally.” Feng Jianing said in high spirits. Her eyes were filled with yearning for the Seven Stars Continent and longing for a beautiful life in the future. Ever since she returned to Country F, she had been living in misery every day. She suffered and endured. Now that she finally saw the light, she naturally had to sigh fiercely.

Suddenly, Feng Jianing’s hand touched her pointed stomach. She was instantly stunned. Then, her eyebrows knitted together. Ever since she got pregnant, this was the first time she felt that her baby was in the way.

Feng Jianing lowered her eyes and looked at her stomach. Back then, when she found out that she was pregnant, the first thing she wanted to do was to abort this child because she couldn’t be sure who this child belonged to. However, at that time, she was serving her sentence in Country F’s prison. She remembered the rules of imprisonment and knew that Country F’s legal system was completely different from Xia country’s. In Country F and most other countries in the world, if a criminal was pregnant, they would get a suspended sentence or bail, even a reduced punishment, and so on. This also gave her a chance to find an opening. Therefore, she decided to give birth to this child. She wanted to rely on this child to escape the punishment of Country F’s laws. In other words, the one who really saved her from prison was the child in her stomach.

However, this child saved her and also harmed her. When she was expelled from Country F and returned to Xia country, she realized that her reputation had become a mess in the entire Xia country. The various companies of the Feng family had also shrunk crazily because of her. This made the Feng family, which was already not very prosperous, instantly collapse even more. They almost declared bankruptcy a few times. The perfume brand she founded was also completely taken down in all the major shopping malls in the country. Now, no one wanted it even if it was given away for free.

Under such circumstances, Feng Jianing thought about it and finally placed her gaze on the child in her stomach. She wanted to tie Cao Beining down and tie the Cao family and the Feng family tightly together. The child was the only way, so she ate and slept more every day. Her goal was to give birth to the child steadily and safely.
