

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1031

But now, Feng Jianing looked at her stomach that had grown a little bigger today. She felt that this child had become a burden. If not for this child being a burden, she could have gone to the Seven Stars Continent with Xian Cheng more easily. This child was already six months old. If she forcefully aborts it, some black hospitals would indeed dare to take this job, but she would have to take a considerable risk. It was very likely that two lives would be lost.

Feng Jianing decided to keep this child for now. After she went to the Seven Stars Continent and gave birth to this child there, she would beg Xian Cheng to help her get a household register and identity for the child in the Seven Stars Continent. This way, her child would already be a member of the Seven Stars Continent when he was born. She would naturally settle down in the Seven Stars Continent with him and become a permanent legal resident of the Seven Stars Continent.

It might be very difficult for her to be ranked as a favored child of a certain wealthy family in the Seven Stars Continent with a child. She could only bring the child along and compromise to find a person who was willing to marry the two of them. Her requirements were also very low. As long as that person could give her an identity that could easily crush everyone in the Capital, she would be willing to serve an old man who was more than fifty years old. After all, humans live for a breath and Buddha worked for an incense stick. In order to step on Feng Qing and the wealthy families in the Capital, she was willing to give up everything.

The next day, the Feng family held an apprenticeship ceremony on the top floor of the Diansheng Hotel. In order to organize this apprenticeship banquet, the Feng family had spent a lot of money. The entire Diansheng Hotel was decorated with lights and banners, looking happy. There were rainbow doors, hydrogen balloons, and fireworks.

When the Feng family's convoy drove majestically to the vicinity of the Diansheng Hotel, the Feng couple sitting in the car saw that the sidewalks on both sides were filled with people. Moreover, the people standing at the front were almost all media personnel. All sorts of cameras were squeezed together. There were even more than ten satellite broadcast cars parked by the side of the road and the entrance of the hotel. It could be said that the entire Capital's mainstream media had been mobilized. The road was even filled with all sorts of luxury cars, so the Feng family's Mercedes-Benz car was completely inconspicuous and was inferior to the surrounding luxury cars.

Feng Yuanzhou looked around through the car window and mumbled, "What's going on today? Why are there so many luxury cars here? Are they all guests we invited?"

At the side, Fu Anlan snorted. "These people usually say that they haven't earned any money all these years, but they're all secretly making a lot of money. These luxury cars are the best proof. They came specially to show their strength because they saw that the Feng family had formed a relationship with the Seven Stars Continent."

Upon hearing this, Feng Yuanzhou only nodded and reluctantly agreed with Fu Anlan's words. Using this apprenticeship banquet, the Feng family had sent out many invitations. Many of the invited guests were people they usually couldn't come into contact with. Of course, most of them were wealthy families similar to their Feng family, so he treated these luxury cars as those that were more wealthy than the Feng family. However, this was the first time he had seen so many luxury cars squeezed together. Any one of them was much more expensive than the Feng family's Mercedes-Benz. It was indeed an eye-opener.

Hearing their conversation, Feng Jianing said, "In my opinion, these luxury cars very likely belong to my classmates. This time, not only did I invite my classmates, but I also invited the director and dean of Capital University. I believe they will all come."

She had indeed invited a lot of people. Almost everyone she could remember had been invited by her. Her idea was very simple. She wanted everyone to attend this apprenticeship banquet and let those who had once looked down on her see how she had obtained power and stood at a height that they would never be able to reach in their lives. However, she acted very modestly and magnanimously, as if she did not remember anything from before, in order to slap everyone's faces in public.

Feng Yuanzhou thought for a while and felt that what Feng Jianing said made sense. Not only did he point at the street, but he also said, "Did you see that? I feel that the entire Capital's media is here. It looks like it's impossible for today's apprenticeship banquet not to be grand."

The corners of Feng Jianing's mouth curled up high, and her eyes were filled with smugness. She was trying her best not to laugh out loud. It had been a long time since she had enjoyed the feeling of being the center of attention. The feeling of being the center of attention was too good!
