

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1047

Without waiting for her to finish, Han Jintian kicked Feng Yuanzhou over again. He grabbed Feng Yuanzhou's hair and forced him to look at him. Han Jintian's voice was as creepy as if it came from hell. "Feng Yiru isn't from your Feng family. You guys knew about this long ago, right? Tsk tsk, you're really daring. You even dare to lie to the people from the Seven Stars Continent. Feng Yuanzhou, you really have the guts!"

Feng Yuanzhou said vaguely, "No, I, no..."

Han Jintian grabbed Feng Yuanzhou's collar and dragged him towards the entrance of the banquet hall. Han Jintian said with a look of disgust, "Look at you. You're so fat that your stomach is filled with fat. How dare you pollute the air here? You're simply affecting my mood to attend the banquet. I'm happy today, so I'll throw you out for free."

However, Han Jintian pulled Feng Yuanzhou with both hands and walked towards Feng Jianing. When he walked towards Feng Jianing, Feng Jianing felt that she was about to pee her pants after seeing the fierce expression on his face.

Han Jintian walked up to her and asked coldly, "You have two choices. One is that I'll personally throw the two of you out, and the other is that you get lost!"

Feng Jianing felt like her entire body was about to split open as she listened to Han Jintian call her trash over and over again. She used the only brain cell she had left after being shocked to frantically think of countermeasures. At this point, she and the Feng family had already lost the right to continue fighting with Feng Qing. If this continued, with Han Jintian's temper, it was very likely that he would ruthlessly attack her. That would completely embarrass her.

Moreover, she couldn't count on Xian Cheng anymore. After all, even Xian Cheng had to kneel down to Han Jintian in public. Although she didn't know why the Xian family, one of the seven families of the Seven Stars Continent, had to bow down to the Han family in the Capital, it wasn't the time to think about this matter now. In any case, she had no way to understand the matter. After all, she didn't have any channels to inquire about the Seven Stars Continent.

But she was already certain of one thing. The seven families of the Seven Stars Continent weren't as powerful as the legends said. At least, that was the case in the Capital. It was understandable when she thought about it. After all, the Han family was the leader here. No matter how powerful the Xian family was, it was only limited to the Seven Stars Continent. He had to be humble when he's trapped in an inferior situation.

Feng Jianing was shocked by Han Jintian's fierce gaze and his aura. She took a step back. This time, she was really afraid. She wanted to say something ruthless, but looking at Han Jintian's gaze, she didn't even have the courage to say anything. She could only turn around and run out dejectedly.

"Feng Qing, good. You're very good. I'll remember today's grudge. We have a long time ahead of us. I'll definitely repay you ten times the humiliation today." Before walking out of the door, Feng Jianing turned around and looked at Feng Qing viciously. At the same time, she thought fiercely in her heart.

However, seeing that she was about to leave, the students from the music school who had been watching the fun instantly couldn't take it anymore. They all shouted at Feng Jianing, "Feng Jianing, you're leaving just like that? Then what about us?"

“Oh my god, Feng Jianing, are you serious? I came all the way here to attend the banquet. I haven’t even eaten anything yet, and you’re not going to care about me?”

“D*mn, are you serious? What are you doing? What do you think we are? Do you think we’re at your beck and call?”

The guests were confused when they heard Feng Qing say that ‘Feng Yiru is not related to the Feng family by blood’. They only understood one thing from Feng Qing’s words. The reason why Xian Cheng agreed to take Feng Jianing in as his disciple was entirely because Feng Jianing and the Feng family had worked together to hoodwink Master Xian Cheng.

At the thought of this, the students of the music school were shocked. Han Jintian was right. The Feng family was really daring. They even dared to lie to the seven families of the Seven Stars Continent. Anyone with a brain had already thought that they had to completely sever ties with the Feng family in the future. Otherwise, it was very likely that they would be implicated.

Xing Yue pushed Han Jinlu to Feng Qing’s side. After this period of continuous information, Han Jinlu could already stand up on his own. However, because he had been sitting for a long time, the muscles in his legs were very stiff, so he still needed to exercise for a period of time before he could walk normally. Therefore, in order not to embarrass himself, he still chose to sit in a wheelchair when he came out.

Feng Qing knew that they should have many questions, so she said, “Let’s go and find a place to talk.”
