

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1056

Xie Jiuhan nibbled on Feng Qing's snow-white skin that was like milk pudding. After eating the real 'dessert', the soreness in his throat was relieved, and the depression in his chest was swept away. The man's kiss was very strong, causing the blush on Feng Qing's face to spread to her collarbone. A few strands of black hair were stuck to the side of her face. Feng Qing sat in the bathroom. She deliberately had her back facing Xie Jiuhan, so she couldn't see the emotions in his eyes at all. However, she could hear the satisfied sound after he ate and drank.

Feng Qing said, "Little Jiu Jiu, I plucked a few strands of hair for Brother Xing Yue today."

Upon hearing this, the man's expression immediately darkened. However, he did not say a word and only stared coldly at the woman's back. To the people of Xia country, their bodies, hair, and skin were taken by their parents. Under normal circumstances, they would especially cherish their hair, especially a woman's hair. It even represented a woman's chastity. Other than their husband, they would basically not give it to anyone. However, Feng Qing had given a few strands of her hair to Xing Yue. Xie Jiuhan could not help but lick his upper jaw. The sourness that had just disappeared appeared again.

Feng Qing did not turn around, but she could feel the change in the man's emotions. Hence, she explained, "Don't misunderstand. I gave Brother Xing Yue his hair to do a DNA test. Brother Xing Yue was the one who suggested this. He suspected that I'm related to them by blood because he realized that we look similar."

Speaking up to this point, Feng Qing took a deep breath and asked, "Little Jiu Jiu, do you think it's possible that Xing Yue, Han Jintian, and Han Jinlu are really my brothers?"

Seeing the woman think this, Xie Jiuhan snorted. "Brothers? Then do you know their true identity?"

Upon hearing this, Feng Qing finally turned around to look at Xie Jiuhan. Her long black hair was scattered on her back and shoulders like seaweed. Under the contrast of the sparkling mist, her exquisite face had a hint of beauty. The skin on her face seemed to be delicate and had become more and more charming, making one want to pounce on her and take a bite. Feng Qing looked at Xie Jiuhan without saying anything, but her eyes were filled with questions.

Xie Jiuhan said, "Actually, this is not a secret. As long as one has been to the Seven Stars Continent, they will know. Be it Xing Yue or the Han brothers, they were originally from the Seven Stars Continent. Moreover, they are the biological sons of the current Prime Minister of the Seven Stars Continent, Di Tianxing. Therefore, if the DNA identifies that you have the same genes as them, it will mean that you are Di Tianxing's biological daughter."

Hearing the man's words, Feng Qing only had an "I see" expression on her face, but she was not surprised. In fact, even if the man did not tell her, she had long guessed a little with her high IQ. Now, she had only confirmed her guess.

Feng Qing took a deep breath again and smiled at the man. "Oh, if that's the case, then I'm the daughter of the Seven Stars Continent's Prime Minister. No wonder Xian Cheng said that I was the Sixth Princess."

Xie Jiuhan sat behind her. White mist lingered around him. The man's bangs were wet by the water vapor and stuck tightly to his forehead. Feng Qing looked at his handsome face and murmured softly, "Little Jiu Jiu, are you afraid of losing me?"

The man's fingers couldn't help but tighten on the edge of the bathtub. His nails collided fiercely with the wall of the bathtub. The man's cheeks tensed up, and the lines of his face immediately became fierce. Xie Jiuhuan said, "Remember this clearly. From the moment you married me, you've already been mine. It will be the same in the past, now, and in the future. Regardless of whether you're the Sixth Princess of the Seven Stars Continent or not, and regardless of what Di Tianxing thinks, I won't let you leave me by even half a step!"

Listening to the man's domineering words of love, a hint of tenderness and peace appeared in Feng Qing's large eyes. She reached out and held the man's face. "Don't worry, no matter what the results of the appraisal are, I'll always be me and your woman. This has nothing to do with whose daughter I am, nor will it change our relationship because of my change in identity."

Speaking up to this point, Feng Qing suddenly thought of something and asked, "Eh, that's not right. Why aren't you surprised at all when I said that I would take the DNA test with them? Did you already know? Did Xie Ba report it to you?"

Ever since Little Wu started taking care of Xie Shihao, Xie Ba and Xie Si had automatically become her secret guards. However, Xie Ba was in charge of going out with her, and Xie Si was in charge of the secret guards in the school and Xie Manor.
