

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1063

Han Jintian said truthfully, "I also bought it from an underground black market merchant in the Seven Stars Continent at a high price. The black market merchant told me that this thing is a medicine developed by Mr. Qingyi of A Dark Organization. This thing is very popular now. It's really priceless. Don't lose it."

Feng Qing couldn't help but laugh after hearing Han Jintian's explanation. However, she asked curiously, "Brother Jintian, you keep calling him a lunatic and a crazy man. Then can you tell me how terrifying he is?"

At the mention of that man, the smile on Han Jintian's face instantly disappeared, and his eyes were covered in a layer of cold air. He took a deep breath and said, "Little Six, remember Second Brother's words. Don't ever be curious about that man, much less try to ask around and get close to him, nor do you want to go against him. He's a true lunatic, a person without feelings and without warmth. No, he's not a person. He's a cold-blooded animal. Back then, Mom tried her best to warm him. Not only did she fail to warm him, but she was also firmly entangled by him. Until the day she died, she couldn't find a way to completely escape that man. Therefore, you have to listen to Second Brother and stay away from that lunatic. Only then can you live well."

With that, Han Jintian couldn't help but snort self-deprecatingly. His eyes, which were staring at Feng Qing, were filled with warmth again. Han Jintian raised his hand and rubbed Feng Qing's head. "Little Six."

Feng Qing subconsciously replied, "Yeah?"

A smile appeared on Han Jintian's lips again. He said to himself in a very low voice, "As long as Little Six is safe and healthy and lives a blissful life, us brothers will be satisfied."

Before Feng Qing came, he had already discussed with Xing Yue and the rest. Everything that happened in the Feng family tonight would be completely sealed by them. When the sun rose tomorrow, they would no longer know what happened tonight. Feng Qing was still Feng Qing, and she was only the adopted daughter of the Feng family. Other than that, she had no other identities.

Han Jintian retracted his hand and smiled at Feng Qing. "It's getting late. Go back and rest."

Feng Qing nodded and turned to get into the car without saying anything else. She knew that Han Jintian couldn't leave yet because he still had to deal with the aftermath. He wanted to erase everything that had happened in the Feng family tonight. After waving at Han Jintian through the car window, Feng Qing followed Xie Jiuhua and disappeared into the night. Han Jintian placed his hands in his pockets and watched Feng Qing leave with a cool smile on his face. Only when he couldn't hear the sound of the car engine did he heave a sigh of relief. Then, he took out a cigarette and smoked.

Capital Embassy Street.

In Country F's embassy in Xia country, Xing Yue was in a secret room. At this moment, there was a table in front of him filled with various instruments and equipment. He was fiddling with a petri dish for testing.

He had heard every word of Feng Qing's interrogation of Feng Yuanzhou. At that time, he had speculated that Feng Qing must have drugged Feng Yuanzhou. Otherwise, Feng Yuanzhou would definitely not have explained it so readily. The reason why Feng Qing could succeed was also because of Han Jintian. If not for the fact that he had beaten Feng Yuanzhou half to death in advance, causing Feng Yuanzhou's mind and body to enter an exhausted state, it would have been too difficult to drug Feng Yuanzhou to tell the truth. And Xian Mochou's reply just now had already let them know that the news about Feng Qing had already been sent back to the Seven Stars Continent, so now was not the time for them to let Feng Qing acknowledge her ancestors.

Xing Yue believed that in less than three days, someone from the Seven Stars Continent would come to investigate this matter. The Seven Stars Continent would even use the spies that had been hiding in Xia country. At that time, the matter would become very tense. Therefore, he could not let Di Tianxing's people discover Feng Qing, much less let them bring Feng Qing to the Seven Stars Continent.

Just as Xing Yue was experimenting, the door to the secret room was suddenly opened. Xing Yue's figure couldn't help but freeze. Then, he suddenly looked at the door. He exuded a terrifying aura, as if he would kill someone in the next second.

"Brother, it's me!" Tessa walked in and greeted him with a smile.

Seeing that it was her, the killing intent on Xing Yue's body disappeared, and the terrifying expression on his face disappeared. The hand holding the petri dish operated behind him without a trace. Finally, he bumped the drawer with his butt, and all of this was seen by Tessa.

Xing Yue asked, "Tessa, why did you come in?"
