

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1065

Xing Yue did not speak and only answered her question with a cold and warning gaze. Tessa's heart tightened. This was the first time Xing Yue had looked at her like this. She continued to puff up her cheeks and say, "Brother, you've really changed. You're completely different from before. In the past, you would agree to whatever request I had, but now..."

Without waiting for Tessa to finish, Xing Yue interrupted, "Enough, please get out immediately!"

Faced with Tessa's pestering, the last bit of patience Xing Yue had for her had been exhausted. He had already restrained himself by not swearing. At this moment, his voice had completely lost its warmth. Seeing that Xing Yue was about to flare up, Tessa did not dare to continue provoking him. She could only stomp her feet angrily and turn around to walk out of the secret room. After watching her leave, Xing Yue took out his phone and called the people in the embassy. He wanted to have a good chat with the embassy staff.

The gray Bugatti Veyron drove on the streets of the Capital in the early morning. Feng Qing leaned back in the front passenger seat and leaned on the car window to look at the night scenery outside. The Capital's streets were a little deserted at this time. Occasionally, one or two pedestrians could be seen by the side of the road, and there were not many cars coming and going. Only the neon lights on both sides of the road emitted a blurry glow.

Suddenly, she saw a landmark building unique to the Capital. Feng Qing turned to look at the man driving and said, "Little Jiu Jiu, aren't we going back to the Xie Manor? Why are we taking this road?"

This was the first thing Feng Qing said in the car after leaving the Feng family's villa. From the start to the end, Xie Jiuhan was only focused on driving and did not disturb her because he knew that Feng Qing needed to be alone.

Xie Jiuhan replied, "Pet hospital."

Feng Qing asked in surprise, "Why are we going there so late?"

Xie Jiuhan said, "I just received news that one of March's wives has finished giving birth."

Feng Qing instantly perked up. "What? It's already born?"

With that, she hurriedly took out her phone and checked. As expected, there were more than ten missed calls on her phone. In order to not be disturbed when interrogating Feng Yuanzhou just now, she had specially turned her phone to silent mode. Therefore, she had missed the call from the pet hospital. She reckoned that they really couldn't contact her. In the end, the pet hospital could only call Xie Qi. If Xie Qi knew, it meant that Xie Jiuhan knew.

Capital Pet Hospital.

Ten minutes later, Xie Jiuhuan and Feng Qing finally arrived at the pet hospital. The two of them left the car on the street and entered the pet hospital. The director was already waiting at the entrance. When he saw the two of them coming over, he was so excited that his eyes were filled with tears. He personally welcomed them. March's wives' pregnancy time was almost the same, and the time of delivery was almost the same. Therefore, they were mainly in the same room. The nurse led them in and pointed at a pet box. "Its name is Huahua. It's March's fourth wife, but it was the first to give birth. It gave birth to four babies, three males and one female."

Feng Qing stood in front of the pet box and saw a black dog through the glass. At this moment, the dog had just given birth and was very weak. It was lying on a long soft mat, and beside its stomach were four little puppies that looked like March.

Feng Qing not only praised the strength of March's genes in her heart, but she also praised March for making his brood look two-thirds like him despite being a different breed of dog from Huahua.

Feng Qing leaned on the pet box and stared intently at the four little puppies sleeping inside. Huahua seemed to know Feng Qing, so she didn't feel nervous when she saw her watching from the side. Instead, she kept licking the four little puppies' bodies. Feng Qing looked at them for a long time until her legs ached. However, she didn't leave. Instead, she studied the knowledge of taking care of the little puppies and some things to pay attention to with the young nurse beside her. Fortunately, she had the experience of taking care of March, so she studied quite happily.

Feng Qing looked at the little puppies in the pet box, and her entire heart was about to melt. After the nurse at the side introduced the nursing knowledge, she said, "We've already contacted Huahua's master. The other party said that he can't afford to raise so many puppies. Moreover, there aren't many places to raise them at home, so the other party is very willing to give these little puppies to Madam Xie. Moreover, the other party has expressed that he believes that Madam Xie is kind-hearted and will definitely treat these little lives well."
