

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1070

Feng Qing said, "Everyone, when you come out to do research this time, you have to be united and listen to my instructions as the team leader. If you're disobedient, I won't care if anything happens, especially those who don't like me or even have objections to me. It's best to put down your prejudices and be obedient."

Lu Yingying glared at her in anger. Feng Qing was talking to her alone. What did she mean by obedient? However, before she could say anything, Senior Liu Yan said, "Alright, everyone, stop talking nonsense. It's getting late. Let's go to the airport quickly."

On the plane, everyone walked into the first-class cabin. These were all rich people, so they simply bought first-class tickets. Liu Yan lowered his head and looked at the tickets in his hand. He was in charge of buying the tickets for this round trip, so naturally, the seats were arranged by him. At the same time, another male and female student carried their luggage directly to the economy class. It was not that they could not afford first-class tickets, but there were only six seats in a first-class cabin.

Liu Yan thought for a while and reserved a seat for himself. He also reserved a seat for Feng Qing. The corners of Liu Yan's mouth subconsciously curled up, and he couldn't suppress the smile on his face at all. After arranging everyone's seats, he handed the seat to Feng Qing and said, "Qingqing, sit here. You can still admire the scenery outside by the window."

Feng Qing took the boarding pass and took a look. Then, she frowned and said, "Senior Liu Yan, are you mistaken? If I remember correctly, my seat should be row three, seat A, right?"

Liu Yan looked at the seat behind Feng Qing. Before he could speak, he saw the bodyguard beside Feng Qing sit down in row three, seat B. Seeing this scene, Liu Yan was dumbfounded. He remembered very clearly that he had bought row two Seat B for Feng Qing when he bought the tickets. Why did it become row three seat B? Moreover, why did this bodyguard come to sit in first class?

Liu Yan turned to look at the man who had just sat down with a face full of confusion. This man was tall and slender. The moment he sat there, he completely blocked Feng Qing, who was sitting in seat A. Liu Yan looked lonely.

However, in the darkness where Liu Yan couldn't see, Feng Qing lowered her head and quietly reached out to pinch Xie Jiuhan's waist. Xie Jiuhan felt the pain and subconsciously turned to look at her. Feng Qing whispered, "Bum Beetle, did you do this?"

The reason why she asked this was because Liu Yan had sent a screenshot of her buying the tickets to the chat group yesterday. She remembered very clearly that the screenshot said that she was in seat B in row two. Why did it suddenly become seat B in row three today?

Xie Jiuhan said in a very low voice, "When he sent the screenshot, I hacked into the ticketing system of the airport and changed your seat number. Other than me, no man is qualified to sit with you."

Feng Qing couldn't help but pinch the man again. She was right. Hacking into the ticketing system of a mere airport was too easy for Xie Jiuhan, a god in the hacker world. It could even be said to be simple. However, this man was too domineering!

Three hours later, the plane landed successfully. Feng Qing and the rest left the airport and took a taxi to a five-star hotel that had been booked in advance. To them, coming to Chenghai to do research for work was actually no different from coming out for a vacation. Naturally, they had to enjoy it.

Unlike the Capital, Chenghai City was surrounded by the sea on three sides. It was a typical peninsula city. Not only was Chenghai City's fishing industry developed, but it also produced aluminum mines underground. Coupled with the fact that the coastline was long enough and had the second largest port in Xia country, Chenghai City's economy had always been advancing by leaps and bounds. It was a super first-tier city in Xia country.

This time, Feng Qing was staying in a Sea View Hotel. Liu Yan couldn't help but frown as soon as he took his room card. He clearly remembered that he had booked room 805, and Feng Qing's room was 806. He had even confirmed with the hotel's front desk. However, when he checked in just now, the computer at the front desk actually showed that his room wasn't 805 at all, but 815. It was at least ten rooms away from Feng Qing's room. Liu Yan exclaimed in his heart that this was too strange!

Ignoring Liu Yan's reaction, Feng Qing carried her suitcase and entered the elevator. Very quickly, she found room 806. Liu Yan was quite considerate and booked the best room in the hotel for her. Feng Qing walked into the hotel suite and walked straight to the huge French window. Outside the window, the blue sky and white clouds were tightly connected to the blue sea. The beautiful sunlight shone on the sea surface with a sparkling glow.
