

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1079

However, just as the door of the elevator closed, the elevator that Feng Qing and Manager Lin were on seemed to have been cut off by someone. It fell at an indescribable speed. In an instant, they disappeared in front of everyone along with the elevator. Xie Jiuhuan, who was standing beside the elevator, regained his senses. Under everyone's dumbfounded expressions, he jumped after the elevator. All of this happened too quickly. It was so fast that no one could react.

"Ah!!!"

"F*ck! What's going on?"

"What happened? Why did the elevator fall down? Did someone jump down just now?"

The miners were completely dumbfounded. One by one, they looked down the elevator in fear. However, just as the miners were at a loss, the entire mine shook. Then, the wall cracked and countless dust fell. The mine lights flickered for a few moments before they were all destroyed. Hence, the entire mine fell into darkness amidst the screams of the crowd.

On the surface of Chenghai City, a super-large ship slowly set sail. With a series of whistles, it gradually sailed towards the sea. From a close distance, it looked like a mountain was swimming in the sea. The scene was as spectacular as possible. The cruise ship had a total of 16 floors. There were all kinds of settings on it. It could satisfy the various needs of all tourists. Moreover, its endurance was extremely strong. Even if it did not need to replenish its supplies midway, it could sail safely on the sea for half a year.

At this moment, in the VIP room on the top floor of the ship, a thin and weak girl was lying on a super round ship. The large round bed was bright red from top to bottom, inside to outside. It was a little scary. Feng Qing was lying on her side on the bed. Her body was not covered by a blanket. Her long black hair was casually scattered on the bed like a waterfall. Her fair and tender face was accentuated by the bright red.

At this moment, someone walked to the side of the round bed and stared straight at Feng Qing's face. He scanned Feng Qing's face inch by inch like a scanner. Feng Qing's skin was delicate and fair. Her fan-like eyelashes fluttered from time to time, creating a beautiful scene.

The light from the bedside lamp cast a faint shadow on her face. Feng Qing's expression was very calm. Her large eyes were tightly shut, as if she was sleeping very soundly. The man standing at the corner of the room slowly reached out his hand. He was wearing white gloves. It could be seen that the shape of the man's hand was very beautiful. The outline of his five fingers was charming. The man did not touch Feng Qing's face. He only stopped his hand about a fist's distance above her face. Then, the hand moved down along Feng Qing's forehead, eye sockets, nose bridge, and so on like a scanner.

A puzzled expression appeared on the man's face. When his finger landed on Feng Qing's chest, a sharp killing intent suddenly erupted from the man's body. Just as the man's hand was about to grab Feng Qing's neck, Feng Qing, who had been sleeping, suddenly raised her hands. Two streams of black smoke spewed out. At the same time, she opened her eyes wide. However, her expression froze when she saw that the man was actually wearing a mask. The man did not dodge. Instead, he allowed the two streams of black smoke to land on his body. The moment the black smoke came into contact with the man's clothes, his clothes started to melt. It was as if a piece of butter had fallen into a furnace. The man did not care about his corroded clothes. Instead, he wore white gloves and pounced towards Feng Qing. His ferocious appearance made him look like a wild beast that was hunting.

The man's speed was extremely fast. Feng Qing could only raise her leg and kick the other party's abdomen. She had used all her strength in this kick and used the strength of the number one killer, the Blood Loli. She wanted to make the other party lose his combat strength. However, not only did her kick not land on the man, but her ankle was also grabbed by the other party. But Feng Qing was very experienced in combat. She did not panic. Instead, she did a snake-like flip on the spot. She did not have any weapons on her at this moment. When she was captured here, she had already been taken away. Only some of the drugs hidden in her hair had not been discovered.

After Feng Qing's legs were freed, she immediately threw another punch at the man. Her speed and strength had reached their limits. From the move just now, she could tell that this man was definitely an expert. Furthermore, he was an expert who was not inferior to her. Before Feng Qing could punch him, the man grabbed Feng Qing's shoulder and threw a punch at Feng Qing. In the next second, Feng Qing fell onto the bed, and the man was forced back by her punch.
