

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1091

As soon as these words were out, the entire auction house erupted in cheers. All sorts of lewd laughter rang out incessantly. Everyone was experienced and naturally knew what they were laughing at. After the laughter, the guests started bidding.

“10 million!”

“15 million!”

“20 million, don’t f*cking fight with me!”

The guests’ voices rose and fell. There were countless people bidding under the booth. Those who could come here were not short of money, and most of them were people who lived on the edge. Spending money to buy a beautiful woman to ravage could ease their emotions, so most people were very willing to participate in the bidding.

Seeing this, Long Jiuyuan turned to look at the man beside her and said, “Brother Wudi, what’s wrong?”

Women were the most sensitive. From the moment Feng Qing appeared on the big screen, Xing Wudi started to get excited. Xing Wudi's reaction was very big. He was originally not interested in the auction at all, but when he saw Feng Qing's face on the LED screen, he instantly sat up straight. When he saw Feng Qing being sold, Xing Wudi couldn't help but clench his fists. His originally emotionless silver eyes exuded a crazy killing intent. Long Jiuyuan understood that this was a sign that the man was about to flare up.

Following Xing Wudi's change, the entire private room was swept by a violent aura. A cold aura rose from his heels, making people have goosebumps.

Long Jiuyuan shifted her gaze to the LED screen again. She knew about Feng Qing. Naturally, it was because of Xing Wudi that she gradually understood Feng Qing. She had once secretly sent someone to investigate Feng Qing, but after investigating, she found that Feng Qing did not seem to have anything special. Although she was considered very outstanding among ordinary people, she could not be considered as her love rival or opponent. After all, no matter how outstanding Feng Qing was, how could she be compared to her, the daughter of the Long family in the Seven Stars Continent? Therefore, no matter how outstanding Feng Qing was, she never took her seriously. But now, Xing Wudi had actually become so excited for Feng Qing.

What Long Jiuyuan did not know was that Xing Wudi's heart was already wrapped in crazy killing intent. He only had one thought now, and that was to throw the owner of the Divine's Light into the sea to feed the sharks. All these years, the Xing family and the Divine's Light had been cooperating quite frequently. This time, they had only boarded the Divine's Light as VIPs. Moreover, he also knew that the secret of the Chu Clan was about to be auctioned off in the Divine's Light, so he put down his busy work and came here to participate in the auction.

Previously, Xie Jiuhan had told him that if the laboratory information of the Chu clan fell into his hands, Xie Jiuhan would agree to send Feng Qing to the Seven Stars Continent to treat her illness. Of course, he had also raised the condition that Xie Jiuhan was not allowed to come to the Seven Stars Continent with Feng Qing. Therefore, the laboratory information of the Chu Clan was something that he had to obtain.

Once he obtained that information, it meant that Xie Jiuhan had to let go of Feng Qing completely. This was the best chance he had to snatch Feng Qing away from Xie Jiuhan. However, he never expected that Feng Qing would actually appear here and be reduced to the finale auction item. Why did the owner of the Divine's Light want to capture Feng Qing? Did he want to die?

Just as Xing Wudi was about to kill someone, the auction outside the VIP room had already reached its climax. After a few rounds of bidding, Feng Qing's price had already been raised to 160 million, and the bidding was still continuing. Xing Wudi picked up the walkie-talkie and said angrily, "I bid 300 million!"

"Hiss!" The moment this price was out, the entire auction house gasped. This price had already exceeded the expectations of most of the people below the stage. Although these people were not short of money, it did not mean that they would waste money like this. After all, they had exchanged their lives for this money.

Seeing this scene, Long Jiuyuan couldn't help but smile, but her charming eyes were filled with cold emotions. As expected, Xing Wudi wanted to buy Feng Qing. When she was investigating Feng Qing previously, she had obtained the information that Xing Wudi admired Feng Qing. Today, Xing Wudi's actions had completely confirmed the investigation.

Just as everyone thought that 300 million was enough to bid for Feng Qing, an ambiguous voice suddenly sounded. "400 million!"

Because this voice was very tender, many people looked in the direction of the voice. They only saw a bidding sign behind the chair. Not only could they not see where the other party was, but they also could not see his fingers. Only the people sitting in front of this person and on both sides could see this person's appearance.
