

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1096

This time, not only were the guests stunned, but even Mr. Qing Er and Xia Qianxue were so shocked that their mouths were wide open. If not for the fact that they were glasses, their eyes would have flown out. The other party had directly offered an astronomical figure of 10 billion. This was no longer something they could easily resist. They felt that this iron plate was really a little hard.

Mr. Qing Er and Xia Qianxue looked at each other again and saw nervousness in each other's eyes. Then, the two of them looked at God Fu. At this moment, even they couldn't be sure if this brat was still willing to pay a higher price than 10 billion.

At the same time, Long Jiuyuan, who was sitting in private room number three, stood up. She stood on the spot in a daze. After more than ten seconds, she came back to her senses and said, "Brother Wudi, are you crazy? You actually want to spend 10 billion for that woman. Do you want to go bankrupt?"

Long Jiuyuan was not exaggerating. 10 billion was not a small sum even among the seven families of the Seven Stars Continent. Although it was not enough to hurt the seven families, it was definitely not money that you could spend easily. Moreover, Xing Wudi had spent so much money just to buy a woman, and it was even someone from Xia country. If the people of the Seven Stars Continent found out about this, it would definitely cause a huge commotion.

Faced with the woman's doubts, Xing Wudi shouted coldly. His silver eyes released hysterical emotions. "I don't care. I only want her. I won't hesitate to do everything. No one can stop me!"

Just as everyone was knocked out by 10 billion, Di Qianmo was in a secret room on the cruise ship. At this moment, there were dozens of LED screens in front of him. They were filled with everything in the auction, including the scene in the private room. Di Qianmo's gaze landed on the LED screen in private room 3. He saw that it was actually Xing Wudi who wanted to spend 10 billion to buy Feng Qing, and the person competing with Xing Wudi was... a child?

However, just by hearing the little boy's voice just now, he had already recognized him. This little boy who was shooting casually on his cruise ship was his biological younger brother, Di Minghao. Seeing this, the corners of Di Qianmo's mouth couldn't help but curl up. He felt that this matter was a little funny. His silly seventh brother probably didn't know that Feng Qing, who was being auctioned, was the sixth sister he was looking for.

Of course, this was not important. What was important was that regardless of whether Feng Qing fell into the hands of Di Minghao or Xing Wudi, Feng Qing would not be tortured by them. Instead, they would try their best to treat her well. This was not the outcome Di Qianmo wanted to see, so he suddenly regretted it. He definitely could not let these two men get Feng Qing.

The next second, Di Qianmo pulled a control lever in front of him. Then, a huge round glass cover slowly fell from the auction venue. As this glass cover fell, the guests saw that on the roof of the shed directly above the booth, there was actually a black plastic bag, and the plastic bag was filled with things.

However, some guests had super strong vision and saw that it was not a plastic bag at all, but a bunch of large black poisonous snakes. Moreover, every poisonous snake was squirming. At this moment, someone said, "The auction is not over yet. Why is the performance starting?"

The people who often came to the Divine's Light were used to this spectacular scene. This kind of limited performance was for the guests to have fun. Usually, at this time, they would throw some second-rate people into the snake nest and let the snakes bite that person to death. There were even people who would bet on how long those second-rate people could last in the snake group. This time, they released the snake group in advance. They did not know what the owner of the Divine's Light wanted to do.

At this moment, Feng Qing was sitting in the cage, her ears trembling non-stop. Although there was a huge glass cover covering her, she could still hear countless snakes crawling.

The next second, the snakes fell from the sky like fairies scattering flowers. Countless black snakes fell onto the railing of the cage, and some snakes quickly rolled down from the gap in the railing. What made Feng Qing's eyes tremble was that it was unknown if the snakes were too heavy, or if some snakes had brought down something made of iron, but it actually shattered a large portion of the top of the glass cover. Then, countless black poisonous snakes landed on Feng Qing.

At the same time, Mr. Qing Er and Xia Qianxue instinctively wanted to rush forward, but they were stopped by the little boy sitting on the sofa. God Du said in a tender voice, "What are you doing? This is the Divine's Light, not a place for you to mess around. Otherwise, I wouldn't be able to protect you."
