

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1109

The elevator stopped on the second floor. When the elevator door opened, someone kicked the key and it flew out. Di Qianmo's reaction was extremely fast. He raised his leg and stepped on the key that was about to fall into the gap of the elevator. Then, he turned to look at Feng Qing. However, Feng Qing pretended not to see anything and walked straight out of the elevator. Anyway, only one ankle was wearing the remaining shackles. This no longer affected her any movements. Moreover, if her shackled feet kicked anyone else, the feeling...

Seeing that Feng Qing really didn't pick up the key and left without a care, Di Qianmo's cold snort came from behind the mask. Feng Qing's damned temperament was really identical to his. Feng Qing walked out of the elevator and walked forward for a while. Then she turned around and looked behind her because she realized that no one was following. In the end, she saw Di Qianmo and the two bodyguards leave in the other direction after leaving the elevator.

Feng Qing was stunned for a moment before she hurriedly chased after Di Qianmo and the two bodyguards. She didn't expect Di Qianmo to be so vengeful. He knew that she had taken the wrong path, but he didn't shout out to her. As expected, this path was different. The ground was covered in a red carpet, and there were signs for the VIP passageway on the wall. However, she didn't meet any so-called VIP guests along the way.

This was the second underground floor, which was also the most shady place on this cruise ship. This was because this floor was the colosseum, and it was a sunken semi-circle. If the audience couldn't see clearly in the stands, they could watch the battle in the arena through the huge LED screen above the colosseum.

Feng Qing followed Di Qianmo all the way to the middle of the VIP viewing area. This was the center of the entire colosseum and was also Di Qianmo's exclusive seat. The others who sat in the wrong position had already died on the open sea. Di Qianmo's arrival immediately attracted the attention of many guests. When they saw Feng Qing following behind Di Qianmo, it caused a commotion in the entire venue. Everyone looked at her in surprise.

“Eh, that Xia countryman called Feng Qing is actually still alive. It’s simply a miracle!”

“Oh my god, how did she survive? I thought she had already become the food of a shark.”

“Logically speaking, her efforts to escape from the auction will be dealt with directly. Moreover, she doesn’t have any shackles on her hands and feet. Could it be that she has already regained her freedom?”

The guests were discussing fervently. They didn’t expect Feng Qing to appear safe and sound, nor could they understand why. Everyone knew the rules on the Divine’s Light. Under normal circumstances, Feng Qing definitely wouldn’t have lived until now. However, not only was she alive and well, but she also appeared with Di Qianmo. Could it be that there was a special relationship between them?

Feng Qing did not care at all about everyone’s pointing fingers. It was beneficial to her that Di Qianmo had brought her to a venue with so many people. From the moment she woke up until now, she had been tortured by Di Qianmo, so she still did not know what the internal structure of this cruise ship was, nor did she know what the chances of her escaping the cruise ship were. Now that Feng Qing was sitting among the guests, she could capture everyone’s discussions. She finally knew that Di Qianmo was actually the master of the Divine’s Light.

Feng Qing felt a little dazed when she thought about how she had appeared on the famous Divine's Light when she woke up. Before she fainted, she and Xie Jiuhan were still investigating underground in the Chenghai aluminum mine. Why did she wake up on the open sea? This feeling of a high difference in time and space made her wonder if she was dreaming. However, she still knew a little about the Divine's Light. This cruise ship usually only appeared in the sea near the Seven Stars Continent. Not everyone had the right to come up. Moreover, the Divine's Light was not under the jurisdiction of any country, so it had always been engaged in all sorts of crooked business.

However, through eavesdropping on the discussions of some guests just now, Feng Qing realized that most of the guests sitting here were from the Seven Stars Continent. Moreover, she heard a very small number of people call Di Qianmo the Ziwei Star. Feng Qing came to a realization. It turned out that her perverted fourth brother was actually the Ziwei Star of the Seven Stars Continent's Seven Stars Temple!

On the surface, the sea around the Seven Stars Continent was under the jurisdiction of the Seven Stars Continent's Ocean Bureau, but those with some status knew that the only person who really had the right to speak at sea was actually the Ziwei Star of the Seven Stars Continent's Seven Stars Temple. Ziwei Star centered on the Seven Stars Continent's sea and controlled almost all the high seas in this world, so the reputation of Ziwei Star was also terrifying.
