

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1114

Di Qianmo handed the gun to Feng Qing and said, "Let's bet again. This time, you take the gun."

Seeing this scene, the bodyguards sitting at the side frowned and couldn't help but put their hands on the pistol at their waists. One could see vigilance in their eyes. As long as Feng Qing dared to move, they would shoot Feng Qing mercilessly. However, they didn't understand why Di Qianmo handed the gun to Feng Qing. Wasn't he afraid that Feng Qing would point the gun at him?

Feng Qing's expression was slightly cold. She took the gun from Di Qianmo's hand without hesitation. This gun was very heavy and its shape was filled with technology. Its length was as long as Feng Qing's forearm. This was the first time she had seen such a big and heavy gun. The others looked at Feng Qing playing with the gun and all had the illusion that Feng Qing was so thin that she probably couldn't even raise the gun.

Feng Qing still maintained her sweet voice and said, "Aren't you worried that I'll shoot your head off if you hand me the gun?"

Di Qianmo sneered from behind the mask. "You can try."

No matter how stupid Feng Qing was, she wouldn't use such a heavy gun to assassinate Di Qianmo. As long as she made any abnormal movements, she would probably be shot into a hornet's nest by the two bodyguards sitting beside her before she could raise the gun. Even without the bodyguards, with Di Qianmo's skills, she might not succeed. It was very likely that Di Qianmo would snatch the gun back and shoot her in the forehead. Therefore, Feng Qing didn't have this plan at all. The reason why she asked this was because she was deliberately teasing Di Qianmo. If she really wanted to attack Di Qianmo, she had more and better methods.

Just as the two of them were fighting, the third battle between humans and beasts started. Unlike the first two battles, the third battle was a group battle. There were a total of eight humans against eight hyenas. Everyone knew that hyenas were wild beasts that lived in groups. Not only were they strong, but they also knew how to cooperate and catch their prey. They were an animal group that even lions were afraid of on the primitive grassland. Most importantly, the bite strength of hyenas was very terrifying. The bite of adult hyenas far exceeded lions and could reach an astonishing 460 kilograms. They were really powerful and fierce medium-sized wild beasts.

As soon as the eight hyenas were released from the cage, they immediately lined up in a hunting formation. For this competition, the eight hyenas had been hungry for three days. Before they went on stage, the water they were fed was even mixed with stimulants to ensure that every hyena could be in an extremely excited and crazy state. They all stared at the eight humans opposite them. Vicious and violent low roars came from their throats. The aura that was filled with wild beasts and bloodlust made everyone in the stands feel a chill on their backs. Fortunately, the surroundings of the stands were surrounded by bulletproof glass. No matter how high the hyenas jumped, they could not run out. It was useless even if they jumped out because there was a layer of electric railing in the middle. A hundred thousand volts of high-voltage electricity was enough to instantly paralyze and stun any wild beast and human. However, this feeling of being able to only see but not eat made the eight hyenas especially irritable.

The eight humans were all holding different weapons. There were machetes, iron rods, and steel forks. The worst was also holding a kitchen knife. Although the eight hyenas were very hungry and wanted to pounce on the eight humans in front of them and eat them up, their instincts told them that these eight people were not so easy to eat. These eight humans were very threatening.

However, just as Feng Qing was observing the eight humans, Feng Qing's ears couldn't help but twitch. Immediately after, her two large eyes trembled. She had actually heard an extremely familiar heartbeat just now. It was Xie Jiuhuan's heartbeat. Feng Qing was very certain that the extremely special heartbeat frequency was Xie Jiuhuan. She resisted the urge to stand up and look for the man and barely controlled her expression to not change. She was afraid that Di Qianmo would notice her abnormality. Di Qianmo had captured her here to take revenge on Xie Jiuhan. If Di Qianmo found out that Xie Jiuhan was also on the Divine's Light, she and Xie Jiuhan would be in real danger.

Feng Qing's eyes were fixed on the eight people in the field. Although she did not show it on her face, her nervousness gradually spread in her heart. It was as if a drop of ink had fallen into clear water. From the accident in the underground mine to the moment she sat on the chair and watched the beast fighting competition, less than twenty-four hours had passed. She originally planned to use four to five days, or even six to seven days to slowly find a chance to escape from Di Qianmo. However, when she felt Xie Jiuhan's heartbeat, she actually felt like a lifetime had passed.
