

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1119

Boxing King Potian did not let his guard down upon seeing the seven of them charged towards him. Instead, he chose to play guerrilla warfare with them. Without hesitation, he turned around and ran towards a place with no one around. Previously, he had tied the second hyena to the guardrail with a rope. This time, the hyena became his ally. Potian quickly ran to the guardrail and cut the rope. Then, as he grabbed the rope, he rode on the hyena. The hyena struggled violently and wanted to get Potian off its back, but the rope was fiercely tightened by him. At this moment, the rope had become a reins, and the hyena kept howling. Potian roared, "If you don't want to die, kill them with me. Otherwise, neither of us will live."

The hyena seemed to understand. Although its dog eyes revealed an unwilling expression, it still turned its head to the seven people who were rushing over. Then, it let out a low roar and pounced on the closest person. Its thick and large claws slapped towards the person's head with the sound of the wind. The person barely dodged sideways, but he was kicked to the ground by Potian.

Potian flipped the dagger in his hand and gently cut the hyena's neck. The wound bled. Although his wound was not deep, it was enough for the hyena to feel pain. As expected, the hyena let out a shrill roar. Potian was not trying to kill the hyena, nor was he trying to kick it to the curb after using him. He just wanted to use this method to stimulate the hyena. Wasn't there a saying? An injured beast was the most terrifying. By doing this, he could warn the hyena too. He was the one who really controlled life and death.

The hyena seemed to understand what Potian meant. From the way it looked at the man, one could tell that it had submitted. Potian sat on the hyena's back and looked down at the people below with his black and silent eyes. At that moment, the hyena became his mount, and he seemed to have become a beast king that could control everything. The man and hyena looked coldly at the seven people in front of them, as if they were looking at seven corpses.

Unable to stand their bloodthirsty and violent gazes, one of the western youths rushed towards them with an ax. His sinister expression and fierce gaze incomparably indicated his determination to kill this man and hyena. Potian jumped down from the hyena's back. Without needing his instructions, the hyena opened its bloody mouth and pounced on him. The next second, the person was pounced on by the hyena and had his shoulder bitten by the hyena. Then, without waiting for the person to fight to the death, the hyena bit off the person's neck. Warm blood sprayed out of the man's neck. The remaining six people all revealed frightened expressions when they saw this scene. However, in the face of death, they still gathered their courage and tried to circle behind the hyena. But how could Potian let them do as they pleased? He whistled twice and the hyena obediently changed directions like a police dog. The hyena growled and lowered its front body. Then, it kicked its legs and pounced on the two people who had circled behind it.

Seeing this scene, the guests in the sky were no longer calm. Even Di Qianmo couldn't help but let out a low whistle. This boxing champion was too powerful. Not only could he subdue the hyena, but he could also make a wild beast obey him so much in a short period of time. It was simply unbelievable!

"I've decided. I want to buy this Boxing King Potian. None of you can fight with me!" Di Minghao rode on Xia Qianxue's neck and shouted. However, Xia Qianxue's eyes were fixed on Boxing King Potian. Her beautiful eyes were suffused with a look of disbelief, and even her body was trembling gently. She could be considered to have lived a life of licking blood on the tip of a knife all year round and had also experienced countless bullets. Looking at the bloodthirsty and violent gaze of Boxing King Potian, a feeling of fear actually rose from the bottom of her heart. This man was too strong, so strong that no one could resist.

Xia Qianxue was very clear that it was the man's aura that had completely suppressed the hyena, which was why the hyena was so obedient to him, especially these wild beasts. Their sixth sense was even sharper, and they could easily sense who was the stronger side. And for Boxing King Potian to be able to make a ferocious wild beast like the hyenas submit, it was obvious how terrifying this man was.

Just as everyone was shocked that Boxing King Potian could subdue the hyena so easily, the hyena had already gone completely crazy on the field. It was unknown if it was because of the tragic death of his other companions or because he felt the terrifying aura of Boxing King Potian, but the hyena erupted with unprecedented strength. Humans had potential, and wild beasts were even more so.