

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1166

Xie Jiuhan used Mr. Qing Er's phone to enter an unfamiliar number and dialed it. At the same time, in the embassy of Country F in Xia country, Xing Yue's phone rang, startling Tessa, who was secretly opening Xing Yue's password box in the living room. This was because the sound of the phone was coming from the password box. Tessa had always been very curious about what was in this password box. Today, when Xingyue was not around, she used the special agent lock picker to try. She didn't expect that it would really succeed. After the password match was successful, the password box was finally opened, but there was only a phone inside. Tessa took out her phone and realized that it was an unfamiliar number. Hence, Tessa pressed the answer button. However, she wasn't in a hurry to speak. Instead, she pricked up her ears to listen. She wanted to hear if it was Feng Qing on the other end of the phone, but very quickly, a low man's voice came from the other end. "Xing Yue, something happened on the Divine's Light."

Just as Xie Jiuhan finished speaking, he sensed that the atmosphere on the other end of the phone was not right. His voice instantly turned cold. "Xing Yue?"

Even though she did not see the man who spoke, Tessa was still suppressed by this man's aura. She said in fear, "Brother Xing Yue is in a meeting. Why are you looking for him? If it's convenient, you can tell me. I can pass it on to him for you."

This time, Xie Jiuhan did not speak. Instead, he snorted coldly and hung up the phone. Xing Yue's private phone was actually picked up by a woman?

Tessa put down her phone and took out a plastic tube from the secret compartment of the password box. There was actually a small amount of hair in it. Tessa could obviously tell that this was a woman's hair. Tessa didn't know whose hair this was, but since Xing Yue cherished this hair so much, it meant that the owner of this hair was very important to Xing Yue. Hence, Tessa took a look and pulled out a few strands of her hair to replace her original hair. After doing all of this, she carefully placed the password box back. Then, she left Xing Yue's office without anyone knowing.

Since Xie Jiuhan could not rely on Xing Yue, he made up his mind and hacked all the broadcast equipment on the Divine's Light through the computer. He picked up the microphone and said, "Gentlemen and ladies, I have something very interesting to inform you. At this moment, the Divine's Light is driving in the direction of the Seven Stars Continent as quickly as possible. In about three hours, we will be able to enter the attack range of the Seven Stars Continent's navy. According to what I know, the Divine's Light is not loaded with heavy defense missiles. Therefore, in three hours, it will be the time we die at the bottom of the sea."

With that, the man's teasing voice sounded again. "But this is good too. Letting you people from the Seven Stars Continent die in the Seven Stars Continent can be considered returning to your roots."

Xie Jiuhan had thought it through very clearly. Why doesn't he let a ship full of people think of countermeasures with him? He didn't believe that so many guests wanted to die on the sea. These guests were either rich or desperate. It was impossible for them to sit back and do nothing.

As expected, Xie Jiuhan's actions worked. When the guests heard that they were driving towards the Seven Stars Continent, some of them panicked. One of the guests who was related to the Seven Stars Continent's navy immediately made a satellite phone call. The other guests also contacted the other departments of the Seven Stars Continent. They would never allow themselves to die here. Most of them were cursing Ziwei Star.

Di Qianmo sneered. He didn't expect Xie Jiuhan to actually discover the direction of the Divine's Light. Moreover, Xie Jiuhan had cleverly used all the guests' connections in the Seven Stars Continent. This move was smart. Even he couldn't help but want to applaud.

Feng Qing looked at Di Qianmo in a daze and said, "Did you really kill Mom? No, Mom died of illness!"

Di Qianmo sneered. "Die of illness? Mom's health is very good. She's still young, so how can she die of illness?"

Feng Qing said, "You went to Penang five years ago?"

The corners of Di Qianmo's mouth curled up. "That's right. If I could have met you at that time, I would have realized sooner that you were my sixth sister."

Feng Qing's eyes were red. "Why did you do this?"

Looking at Di Qianmo's cold and heartless appearance, Feng Qing felt a tightness in her chest. When she thought about how the face behind the mask was identical to hers, this incomparable heartache was even more unbearable.

Di Qianmo replied crazily, "Because... Mom begged me to kill her..."
