"Ninth Master, this person's name is Cao Beining. He's an intern in the marketing department. I've already explained the rules to him, but I don't know how he got in here and stained your exclusive elevator. I'm really sorry." The marketing manager bowed.

Xie Jiuhan did not say anything. He turned around and walked towards the corner. There was a spare VIP elevator there. It was usually switched off, and now was the time to use it.

After entering the elevator, Xie Jiuhan turned around and looked at the crowd. His gaze pierced through the crowd and landed on Feng Qing's face. He knew very well that Feng Qing was definitely related to the reason why Cao Beining was injured in the elevator. This was because only Feng Qing could control the VIP elevator after it had been modified.

"Give me a new elevator in three days. If you can't finish it, you don't have to come to work anymore." Xie Jiuhan said to the marketing manager as the elevator door slowly closed.

"Yes, Ninth Master, rest assured. I will definitely complete the mission." The marketing manager said as he wiped off his cold sweat.

Accompanying a ruler was like accompanying a tiger. Being with Xie Jiuhan was just that exciting, he could be replaced at any time. Using Xie Jiuhan's words, the Xie Corporation needed an endless supply of fresh blood.

"Wow, I'm so happy. I didn't expect the Ninth Master to look at us twice. He must be interested in me."

“It’s over, I’ve fallen. Ninth Master, you’ve successfully conquered me!”

“Stop it. The Ninth Master has already made it so obvious. Why don’t we be more daring and take a photo with the Ninth Master? I want a hug.”

A few female employees chattered as they squeezed towards Xie Jiuhan from all directions, looking like they were about to give him a child.

Feng Qing’s lips curled up. She grabbed the female employee who had scolded her just now. “Where are you going?”

The female employee was stunned and frowned. “Let go, don’t stop me. I’ll go and ask the Ninth Master for his autograph!”

“Have you sought my opinion before asking the Ninth Master for his autograph?” Feng Qing sneered.

The female employee’s expression darkened. She pulled her arm back forcefully and wanted to break free from Feng Qing’s grasp, but she was held tightly by Feng Qing.

“Since you want to die so badly, don’t blame me for being rude!” The female employee shouted and a small dagger appeared in her hand. In the next second, the dagger pierced towards Feng Qing’s chest with the sound of wind.

There was a hint of disdain on Feng Qing’s lips. How was she a female employee? She was clearly a female killer. Feng Qing grabbed the female employee’s arm and pulled hard, causing the female employee to stumble. Before she could react, a hand accurately hit her neck.

Feng Qing shouted, "Jiu Jiu, be careful, there's a killer!"

From the first time she heard their heartbeats, Feng Qing had realized that something was wrong. Although they acted like little fans who had been captured by Xie Jiuhan, their heartbeats had betrayed them. Other than trained killers, how many people could control their hearts to suddenly stop?

Feng Qing knew that when some powerful assassins were on a mission, they would deliberately control their heartbeat and breathing to integrate themselves into their surroundings. It was an extremely powerful concealment technique.

Seeing that Xie Jiuhan was about to leave, these female killers finally couldn't hold it in anymore. They all rushed towards Xie Jiuhan with all sorts of excuses. Fortunately, Feng Qing didn't notice it too late and reminded Xie Jiuhan in time.

"Damn it!" The matter was exposed, and the female killers shouted angrily.

They lifted their skirts and took out their pistols from their inner thighs to aim at Xie Jiuhan. In order to complete the mission, they had infiltrated the Xie Corporation's headquarters for a long time. They only had one chance, so they could not fail.

Outside Di Hui Building, a few security guards dragged Cao Beining and threw him onto the street in disdain.

"Please, let me go back and explain to Ninth Master that I'm the future successor of the Cao family in the Capital. Ninth Master will definitely believe me. I was schemed against by a slut..." Cao Beining rolled and crawled towards the entrance of the Di Hui Building with a sobbing tone.

The security guards sneered. Just as they looked at the coquettish Cao Beining and were about to say something, they heard a series of ear-piercing gunshots coming from Di Hui Building. The security guards were shocked. They did not care about teasing Cao Beining as they ran towards Dihui Building.

Cao Beining was sprawled on the ground as he listened to the gunshots. His face was pale. Although he did not know what was happening inside, he was glad that he had been thrown out. It was better to be embarrassed than being shot.

A woman in a work suit ran out of the door. Her face was filled with panic. Cao Beining knew her. She was none other than the female employee of the marketing department, Lily.. After many tests, Lily had just become an official employee at the start of the month.
