After thinking for a long time, Feng Qing could not understand either. However, looking at Shen Suying's firm expression, she thought that she had really seen Xie Jiuhan. However, this also made Feng Qing a little angry.

"Chief Shen, although you're the dean, you can't underestimate me. I'm also an adult and a normal person. Is it just because I'm a special student that I don't have the right to fall in love with the Xie family?" Feng Qing looked straight at Shen Suying and rebuked her sternly.

Shen Suying raised her eyebrows and said disdainfully, "Ha, you do have the right to fall in love, but you shouldn't be dating Su Yu. According to what I know, Su Yu already has a girlfriend. If you do this, it's equivalent to snatching his love. It's the behavior of a mistress. How can a mistress like you talk about love?"

Feng Qing : "..."

She finally understood what was going on. So the one Shen Suying saw was Su Yu. When she saw her throw the golden roses to Su Yu yesterday, Shen Suying thought that she was wooing Su Yu. However, based on this, Shen Suying thought that she had hooked up with Su Yu. Was she too arbitrary?

After figuring it out, Feng Qing smiled casually. "How funny. After all this time, you're actually talking about Su Yu. I can only tell you that there's no relationship between us. We're just friends."

If Su Yu were present to hear this, he would probably immediately kneel down and kowtow. He would be so grateful that his snot and tears would be streaming down his face as he didn't seem to be qualified to be friends with Little Madam.

Ever since Feng Qing pretended to be Madam Crimson Snow in Zhe City to save Xie Jiuhan, Su Yu had really treated her as the madam of the house. As a man, he admired Feng Qing's courage and boldness. He was also certain that only Feng Qing had the right to be Ninth Master's soulmate.

"Pfft..." Shen Suying laughed. "Friend? Aren't you afraid that the wind will cut your tongue? Do you know who Su Yu is? What position does he hold in the Xie Corporation, and what kind of person is he in the Capital?"

Feng Qing opened her mouth. Although she wanted to say that he was only the steward of the house, Little Yuzi, she still forced herself to swallow it back. She could not answer these questions. If she answered all of them, the misunderstanding would be even deeper. In Shen Suying's eyes, she was just a special student. It was very illogical for her to know so many secrets of the Xie Corporation.

Seeing that she couldn't speak, Shen Suying hugged her arms and said arrogantly, "Hmph, I knew you didn't know. Then, I'll give you a lesson today. Su Yu represents the Ninth Master in the Capital. He has a PhD at a young age and is a top student from a famous university abroad. He obtained an MBA Business Administration certificate at the age of 18 and was chosen to enter the Xie Corporation at the age of 20. In just two months, he went from an ordinary employee to a capable assistant to Ninth Master. He is the current secretary and assistant of the Xie Corporation. Moreover, he just announced his engagement with his girlfriend at the beginning of the year."

With that, Shen Suying walked around Feng Qing and continued, "So, listen to my advice. Before the matter gets blown up and doesn't have any negative effects on our Capital University, you'd better stop now. Otherwise, once the matter is exposed, the school will expel you without hesitation to protect its reputation!"

The corners of Feng Qing's lips curled up. She spread her hands and said, "Chief Shen, I'm sorry. Since you insist on believing that there's something between Su Yu and me, I can only say that your eyes are not good, so you have to treat your eyes."

"What! Feng Qing, say that again if you dare!" Shen Suying roared.

Feng Qing smiled slightly and ignored her. She turned around and walked into the classroom. The bell had already been rang three times, and the teacher had probably already taken her attendance.

“Hmph, since you don’t listen to my advice, for the school’s reputation and the Xie family’s reputation, don’t blame me for being rude.” Shen Suying secretly decided as she stared at Feng Qing’s back.

Gu Qingye and Xu Mingqian rolled their eyes at Shen Suying. The two of them returned to the classroom one after another. They could also tell that Shen Suying had misunderstood, but there was nothing to explain to her.

Di Hui Building, level 95.

“Come in!” Xie Jiuhan said without looking up as he reviewed the documents.

The next second, the elevator door opened and Su Yu walked in. After the assassination attempt last time, everyone had to wait in the elevator when it arrive at the 95th floor. Without Xie Jiuhan’s orders, no one could press the button to open the door..
