He Xu laughed dryly. He was already 45 years old. At this age, he no longer wanted to climb the ladder. It was enough for him to stay in this position until he retired. So he was not interested in a superpower like the Xie Corporation because if the Xie Corporation couldn't beg him, he couldn't beg the Xie Corporation either.

"Student Feng Qing, I'm the president of the music department, He Xu. Have a good rest and heal the wound on your hand. A girl's hand should not have any scars. Moreover, I heard that you're going to the Hong Meng Theater to participate in a performance in a few days, so heal your wound as soon as possible. You're a special student. Regardless of whether it's in life or in school, you can look for me anytime. I'll definitely help you within my ability." He Xu didn't enter the infirmary and stood at the door to shout.

Listening to He Xu's words of concern for Feng Qing, Shen Suying said with a smile, "President, have you thought about it? Isn't it too coincidental that she's injured at this time?"

He Xu's expression froze. He frowned and said, "Chief Shen, you mean..."

He thought that Shen Suying meant that someone had deliberately planned ahead and caused Feng Qing's hands to be injured. Shen Suying did not have this thought at all because she did not care about this matter at all.

"What I mean is, while Feng Qing's hands are injured, why don't we go with the flow and inform the performance team to find another expert and not let Feng Qing participate in the performance? After all, her violin skills are really... You should know." Afraid that He Xu would misunderstand, Shen Suying hurriedly explained.

As soon as these words were out, Feng Qing, who was hiding under the blanket, had a cold expression on her face. Her eyes seemed to be about to spew fire. She did not understand when and why Shen Suying thought that her violin skills were very lousy.

Suddenly, the man hugged Feng Qing and sat up on the bed. Feng Qing was shocked. Before she could regain her senses, she was placed on the bed by the man.

The man was sitting on the bed with his legs crossed and placed beside the bed. He leaned against the head of the bed and looked at the two of them coldly.

The commotion attracted Shen Suying and He Xu's attention. The two of them looked at the bed and their hair stood on end. They almost fainted on the spot. Shen Suying shouted in surprise. She realized that she had lost her composure and quickly covered her mouth. She never expected that Xie Jiuhan would be in the infirmary, but why was he here?

Shen Suying looked carefully and realized that there was someone sitting at the end of the bed. However, she was covered in a blanket and could not tell who it was. However, from the outline, it should be a woman.

"Ninth, Ninth Master, I really didn't see you here." He Xu reacted quickly and hurriedly bowed.

Although he didn't care much about the Xie Corporation, he couldn't offend him, especially not this man. He was the king of the entire Capital. A word from him could make him wish he was dead. Not to mention retiring peacefully, it would be difficult for him to die even if he wanted to.

"Jiuhan, I'm Suying, your old classmate. Why are you..." Shen Suying said.

Unfortunately, before she could finish speaking, Xie Jiuhan interrupted her coldly. "You guys are disturbing my sleep!"

He Xu and Shen Suying were confused. They looked at the human in the blanket at the end of the bed and Xie Jiuhan at the head of the bed. Everyone understood what he meant. Were they disturbing the Ninth Master?

He Xu hurriedly said, "I'm sorry, Ninth Master. We were blind and walked to the wrong place. We'll leave immediately." With that, he did not care if Xie Jiuhan agreed or not, he pulled Shen Suying, who was still in shock, and disappeared. When they returned to the office, Shen Suying came back to her senses.

"President, you saw that person just now, right? Could that person be Feng Qing? Ninth Master and Feng Qing..." Shen Suying said in disbelief.

He Xu wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. "Alright, this matter ends here. Don't mention it again. No matter what the Ninth Master does, it has nothing to do with us, nor do we need to worry."

"No, it can't be Feng Qing who's with the Ninth Master. What kind of person is the Ninth Master? How can he fall for her?" Shen Suying mumbled to herself.

President He was unwilling to talk about this, so Shen Suying could only comfort herself. There was also something that made her believe that the person wasn't Feng Qing because Feng Qing had just been injured and couldn't serve the Ninth Master at all.. She couldn't provide him with that kind of happiness.
