Feng Qing curled her lips and said loudly, "I said, I'm already married!"

Feng Jianing had just walked out of the bedroom and was shocked when she heard this. She looked at Feng Qing in confusion. She couldn't figure out who would marry a woman like Feng Qing.

"Qingqing, you must be joking with us, right?" Fu Anlan said in disbelief.

"That's right. You must still be angry with us. Without the household register, you can't get married," Feng Yuanzhou echoed.

Feng Qing said calmly, "Marriage is a lifelong matter. How can I joke? Although my name is still on this household register, its page has already been invalid. Before I went to Capital University, my household register had already been revoked."

"No, that's impossible. How is that possible? Why don't we know when your household register has been revoked?" Fu Anlan's voice changed.

Feng Qing flipped open the household register in her hand and looked at every page. In the end, she found the page that belonged to her. According to the laws of Xia country, her household register had already been moved out. The page on the original household register had automatically become invalid.

Feng Qing threw the household register back to Fu Anlan and sneered. "It's normal that you don't know. If you had called the police to look for me once during the years I've been away from home, you would have known that my household register had been revoked. Therefore, the facts have proven that all of you have never looked for me outside before. Even if you have, it's only symbolic."

Fu Anlan was completely dumbfounded as she looked at the household register in her hand. Feng Qing made sense, making it difficult for her to determine whether it was true or not.

"Impossible. You're only nineteen years old this year and have just reached adulthood. Who gave you the household register?" Feng Yuanzhou still didn't believe it.

Feng Qing hugged her arms and smiled. "Who else could it be? The person would naturally be my man."

Finally, Fu Anlan exploded. She shouted hysterically, "You wild girl, I really regret giving birth to you, this unfilial daughter. You actually married a wild man outside so casually. Our Feng family has lost all our reputation. I'll tell you today that even if you're already married, your father and I won't acknowledge this marriage!"

Feng Yuanzhou was also furious. "That's right, we won't agree. What a joke. How can a marriage without your parents' consent be called a marriage?"

They had been husband and wife for their entire lives, so they naturally cooperated well. With a look, they knew what the other party was thinking. They had already decided to get Feng Qing to divorce. No matter who she married, it would not be better than marrying the Duke.

A billion yuan of betrothal gift and so many things. How could they let such a fat piece of meat leave their hands?

"Feng Qing, listen carefully. Get a divorce tomorrow morning. I have a friend at the Civil Administration Office. I'll tell him to help you quickly," Feng Yuanzhou said angrily.

Feng Qing said calmly, "Then I'm afraid you'll be disappointed. My husband and I are very loving. We're a couple that no one can separate. In our dictionary, there's no divorce, only widowed."

Fu Anlan's face turned green from anger. "Qingqing, are you crazy? Can't you see how sincere the Duke is?"

Before she could finish her sentence, she pulled Feng Qing to a corner and glanced at Raymond. She quickly persuaded her, "Qingqing, my good daughter, don't be stubborn. Your father and I are doing this for your own good. Do you know who Duke Raymond is? Do you know what it means to be the wife of the Duke?"

Feng Qing replied, "What has it got to do with me who he is? My husband is a hundred thousand times better than him."

If not for the occasion, Fu Anlan would have almost laughed out loud. In her opinion, Feng Qing was still a child so she could actually say such childish words.

"Qingqing, do you know how laughable your words are? The Duke is an honored guest of the Country F's royal family. The wealth he possesses was accumulated by his family for hundreds of years. It's not an exaggeration to say that he's as rich as a country. The man you're talking about is not even qualified to carry his shoes, much less be stronger than him." Fu Anlan explained patiently.

Feng Qing shook her head. "Madam Fu, your horizons are too low.. According to what I know, there are too many people richer than the Duke in this world."
