“Five, three, one, time’s up!” Feng Yuanzhou finished counting down and looked up at Feng Qing. “Haha, it’s already been half an hour. Didn’t you say that five billion would be sent in half an hour? Why didn’t I see a single cent?”

Fu Anlan curled her lips. “What five billion? What are you talking about? Who would believe you? You should be more professional when it comes to lying. Would someone with five billion really like someone like you?”

“Qingqing, listen to me. Hurry up and divorce that wild man outside. Follow the Duke back to Country F obediently and enjoy the noble life of the wife of the richest man in Country F.” Feng Yuanzhou persuaded earnestly.

Seeing the couple singing the same tune again, Feng Qing curled her lips and looked at her phone. “Mr. Feng, Madam Fu, the two of you should take a closer look. It’s not even half an hour.”

Feng Yuanzhou and Fu Anlan checked their watches and realized that their time really didn’t match. He looked up at the clock on the wall and realized that his watch was indeed a few minutes faster.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Suddenly, a deafening buzz sounded in her ears, and the entire villa trembled.

Other than Feng Qing, everyone was shocked. Feng Yuanzhou frowned. "What happened? There was an earthquake in the Capital?"

Boom, boom, boom! The sound grew louder. In the room, the people couldn't even hear each other anymore. Glass rattled and the ground trembled slightly.

Fu Anlan's face turned pale as she shouted, "It's an earthquake. Run out quickly, or else you'll be buried alive."

Feng Yuanzhou was the first to run out. On the second floor, Feng Jianing was also flustered. However, she had only run a few steps when she realized that something was wrong. Although there were tremors everywhere, this feeling didn't feel like an earthquake. Moreover, she saw Feng Qing smiling and standing on the spot without moving. However, she still walked down the stairs while broadcasting.

At the critical moment, Feng Yuanzhou and Fu Anlan unleashed their potential. Although their footsteps were a little weak, they were very fast. In the blink of an eye, they arrived at the door of the villa. Without caring about wearing their shoes, the two of them pushed the door open forcefully.

The moment the door opened, a terrifying airwave attacked, sending the couple flying and falling to the ground.

Feng Yuanzhou and Fu Anlan were only blown down by the wind and were not injured. The two of them fell to the ground and looked out of the door. They realized that there was a helicopter hovering in the sky. They looked at each other and crawled towards the door again. They wanted to see what was going on. It was not that they did not want to get up, but they were suppressed by the wind and could not get up at all. In fact, because the wind was too strong, it blew away the air and made them feel like they could not breathe.

More than twenty helicopters were parked in the air above the Feng family's villa. The Feng couple finally realized why there was such a strong wind and such a huge commotion. It was natural that there would be such an effect when more than twenty helicopters were floating in the same place at the same time.

They lay on the ground and tried to look up. They saw a steel cable hanging under each helicopter, and in the middle of the steel cable was a huge container.

Boom boom boom!

The propeller spun rapidly, causing strong wind to blow. The more than twenty helicopters seemed to have heard an order and slowly landed together. In the end, they placed the container steadily in the courtyard of the Feng family's villa, and even crushed many things in the courtyard.

Clang, clang! The sound of steel cables being removed rang out. After putting down the container, the more than twenty helicopters disappeared in the same direction.

From the moment they heard the rumbling to the moment the helicopters disappeared, only a few minutes had passed. It felt like they had disappeared without a trace.

After the helicopters flew away, the Feng couple crawled up with weak legs. They rubbed their ears as they gasped. The roar was so loud that their ears temporarily malfunctioned.

Seeing their sorry state, Feng Qing smiled faintly and dug the cotton out of her ears. She had gotten the cotton from the living room sofa. She doesn't want her ears to have problems when her eyes are healed.

She opened the Feng villa's refrigerator and took out a can of grape juice to drink.. Seeing that Duke Raymond was licking his lips and looking very thirsty, she threw another can to him and the two of them sat on the sofa and drank the juice.
