At 9 PM.

The entire Capital started to fall silent. There were no more pedestrians on the streets, only cars moving through the city. However, the Feng family's villa was brightly lit, and police cars surrounded the Feng family.

At the outermost area of the police cars, there were also three yellow and black warning lines. The atmosphere at the scene was very solemn. Outside the warning line, there were many people who had specially come over to watch the fun. Among them were the host and media personnel. They all smelled an abnormal smell in the air.

In the darkness, a black Rolls-Royce slowly stopped near the Feng family's villa. Through the car window, Xie Jiuhuan was quietly looking at the Feng family's villa. His lips curled up slightly. Tonight, the Feng family was destined to be sleepless!

In the car, the man was dressed in a suit, neat and clean. The moonlight illuminated most of his body, his breathtaking face and intoxicating eyes.

"Hehe, Ninth Master, why are you here too?" The leader of the operations team jogged over and greeted, looking docile.

The car window rolled down. Xie Jiuhuan did not even look at the leader of the operation. "The God of Thieves, Phantom, snatched something especially important from me. She appeared today, so naturally, I have to come and take a look. If necessary, my men will take action."

The chief of the operations team smiled obsequiously and said, "Ninth Master, don't worry. We've already mobilized the elite troops. The entire Feng family is surrounded by us. Not to mention a living person, even a fly can't fly in. With the Ninth Master's men, we can definitely catch this notorious thief this time."

Xie Jiuhuan snorted coldly. "Notorious thief? Do you mean that a notorious thief can steal from me?"

The leader of the operation's expression froze, and sweat fell from his forehead. He hurriedly said, "Ninth Master, it was my mistake. It's not a notorious thief, it's the God of Thieves, Phantom. I believe that with Ninth Master's help, we will definitely be able to capture the God of Thieves, Phantom, alive this time."

"Do you think you're worthy of my help?" Xie Jiuhuan snorted coldly again. "It's your people who should cooperate with my people and don't be a hindrance at the crucial moment."

The leader of the operations : "..."

Word of this spread like wildfire. Good things didn't come out of doors, but bad things spread like wildfire. The Feng family's villa had been surrounded by the police and was already known by more and more people. All sorts of rumors started to spread. Some said that a murder had happened in the Feng family's villa and three of the Feng family's members had been wiped out. Some said that the Feng family had offended a mysterious big shot and that the big shot was going to raze the Feng family to the ground tonight.

In the living room of the Feng family's villa.

“Mr. Feng, Since the God of Thieves, Phantom is aiming for this five billion, our operation team’s suggestion is to deposit this five billion into the major banks in the Capital immediately. Only in this way can God of Thieves, Phantom, not be able to attack multiple targets at the same time. Even if he succeeds, you will only lose a portion.” An expert from the operations team analyzed.

Feng Yuanzhou’s expression was ugly. He had asked the police to protect the Feng family, but the police had given such a plan. Clearly, the police were not confident.

“No, that’s five billion. There’s still three to four billion yuan in cash that I haven’t touched personally. I haven’t even enjoyed the feeling of having so much money before I return it to the bank. Doesn’t that mean that I don’t have this money?” Feng Yuanzhou said unhappily.

The experts in the operations team : “ ... ”

“Mr. Feng, whether it’s five billion in cash or deposit five billion in the bank, this five billion is yours, so...” The experts said angrily.

“No means no. I won’t deposit a single cent of this five billion into the bank. There’s no going out after it has entered my Feng family.” Feng Yuanzhou shouted.

“Mr. Feng, please calm down. Although it’s very exciting to have five billion fall from the sky, and we can understand your feelings, this money is the safest in the bank.” The expert from the operations team continued to persuade.

“I’ll repeat it one last time. Listen carefully. I will definitely not deposit the money in the bank. The God of Thieves, Phantom, is just one person. If so many of you can’t protect me, then what’s the use of your Capital Operations Office? Why don’t you all go home and sell sweet potatoes? All of you took our taxpayer’s money and neglected your work. I will definitely complain!”
