The man snorted and turned his head away. He couldn't tell Feng Qing that he had learned it from the Love Collection Book, right?

Feng Qing pouted and said unhappily, "Little Jiu Jiu, can you give me a heads up on our next date so that I can be prepared? At least I could put on makeup or something."

Xie Jiuhan only said, "That's not surprising enough." Looking at Feng Qing in his arms, the man paused for a moment and said, "You don't have to prepare anything. You just have to enjoy our date. Besides, you're the most beautiful even without makeup."

Listening to the sweet words of love, Feng Qing's pink lips curled up slightly. It was fine if she was with others, but when she was on a date with Xie Jiuhan, she had to dress up beautifully. Only then could she be worthy of this man. Looking at the fresh student suit and the canvas bag on her shoulder, Feng Qing's heart instantly became ugly. This was their first date, how could it be so sloppy?

Feng Qing hesitated when she thought of the Happiness Valley that was filled with people. Wasn't Xie Jiuhan afraid that someone would secretly take photos of him strutting around with her? Most importantly, not everyone knew Xie Jiuhan, but she was very famous now. It was difficult not to be recognized. Until now, the Internet was filled with videos of her falling out with the Feng family.

Seeing that the man did not react, Feng Qing could only walk towards Happiness Valley with a nervous heart. What surprised her was that although it was not the weekend today, there were usually many people who came to play, but today, there was no one. The originally bustling entrance was even more deserted.

“Oh? Why aren’t there any ticket sellers?” Feng Qing raised her eyebrows.

“They’re all on vacation,” Xie Jiuhan said.

Feng Qing stopped in her tracks and pulled the man back. “They’re on vacation, so how are we going to play?”

Xie Jiuhan pulled her in and said calmly, “They go on their vacation and we go on our date. Today, the entire Happiness Valley belongs to the two of us.”

Feng Qing : “...”

She finally understood why there was no one here. Xie Jiuhan had chased them away. To be precise, he had reserved the entire place.

Feng Qing didn’t know whether to cry or laugh as she looked at the empty and even a little cheerless Happiness Valley. Why was it called Happiness Valley? It was because of the atmosphere. What kind of happy atmosphere could the two of them play in the huge Happiness Valley? Was it so difficult for her to want an ordinary date?

Xie Jiuhan’s brows twitched. He could clearly feel that the excitement and nervousness on Feng Qing’s body had mostly dissipated. He couldn’t help but ask, “You don’t like it anymore? You don’t like it here?”

Feng Qing shook her head and said in a weak voice, “The Happiness Valley will only be lively if many people play together. We will listen to everyone’s screams and play with our heartbeats and excitement because that will have an atmosphere.”

Xie Jiuhan frowned and touched his chin as he thought. He looked at the unusually cold and cheerless Happiness Valley and instantly felt that what Feng Qing said made sense.

He nodded and took out his phone. "Inform all the employees of the Xie Corporation immediately. The company will organize a team outing today and bring them to Happiness Valley to play. Then, invite some people in to play on the way. They must be willing to come. You can't force them."

On the other end of the phone, Su Yu was stunned for a few seconds. "Alright, I'll arrange it immediately!"

In a short while, a group of people rushed into the Happiness Valley. Under Ninth Master's orders, the entire Xie Corporation has stopped their operations. Even the meeting was delayed.

The people from the Xie Corporation did not stand on ceremony. Since their boss was the one who invited them to play, they naturally had to have fun once. Most of them were social elites. Their lives every day were nine to ten, making them extremely tired. Although today's leave was strange, everyone still agreed.

Under Su Yu's arrangement, not only did the Xie Corporation's people, but even Xie Jiuhan's bodyguards and secret guards followed the crowd into the Happiness Valley to play. Feng Qing could clearly see that Little Five had even come out in a set of casual clothes.

Looking at the dazzling small shops in the Happiness Valley, Feng Qing pulled the man into one shop and then changed to another shop to choose what she liked. These small shops were all rented out, so they still needed to pay. However, there was no need to pay now.. They could just deduct it from the rent,water and electricity fees.
