The assassins were collectively dumbfounded as they looked at the energetic Feng Qing. One of the assassins exclaimed, "How is that possible? How could you still act as if nothing happened when you've inhaled Mr. Qingyi's Soul Capturing Fragrance?"

The corners of Feng Qing's lips curled up as a cold smile flashed across her beautiful eyes. She did not say a word and dodged the punch. She grabbed one of the assassins by the throat and kicked out without looking back, sending the other assassin who attacked her to the ground.

"Bad review! As assassins, you actually held back against the target. Are the people in your Blood Demon Group so unprofessional?" Feng Qing teased and took off the gas mask on the assassin's face. At the same time, a ball of pale green powder was scattered in her hand.

Releasing her hand, Feng Qing attacked the other four without turning back. The assassin only took a step forward and fell to the ground. His eyes were bulging and he was foaming at the mouth. He looked like he would not survive.

Outside the bathroom, Xie Jiuhan leaned against the door of the female toilet. The two girls who had just entered quickly came out. From their conversation, he knew that the female toilet seemed to have stopped being used. Hence, he felt that something was wrong. Since the female toilet had stopped being used, how did Feng Qing enter?

The next second, a black-clothed Little Wu appeared at the entrance of the female toilet. She planned to go in and take a look, but Xie Jiuhan stopped her.

“Retreat a little!” Xie Jiuhan said softly.

Little Wu frowned. Her sixth sense suggested that Feng Qing must have encountered something inside. Otherwise, she would have come out after going in for so long. However, she didn’t dare to disobey Xie Jiuhan’s orders and could only retreat.

Xie Jiuhan stuffed the popcorn bucket to Little Wu and tiptoed to the bathroom door to listen. Someone said, “You actually know about the Blood Demon Group. Who are you?”

The person who spoke was a man. His voice was a little hoarse and sounded very unpleasant to the ears, but one could tell from his voice that the man was very shocked.

In the bathroom, Feng Qing’s expression was cold. Her two fists kept attacking the four assassins, and every punch would emit white powder. This powder was colorless and odorless. If one did not look carefully, they would not be able to see it at all. The assassins kept dodging and did not notice anything wrong. In Feng Qing’s eyes, the white powder was gradually fusing into the assassins’ skin.

After a few breaths, the four assassins’ movements clearly started to slow down. They felt their limbs start to numb. Seeing that the effects of the medicine had started, Feng Qing stopped her attacks and stared at them with a cold smile.

“Unfortunately, I have to tell you that your mission has failed. In three minutes, all of you will be paralyzed on the ground. You won’t even be able to control a finger.” Feng Qing said coldly.

The expressions of the assassins sank, and the gaze they used to look at Feng Qing changed completely. They didn’t expect that their prey had transformed into a hunter. They didn’t doubt Feng Qing’s words at all, because their bodies had already started to slow down.

Feng Qing walked up to one of the assassins and waved her hand on his face. "Tell me the truth, what's your mission?"

"My-our mission is to capture the woman closest to Xie Jiuhan alive." The assassin's eyes were dull as he spoke intermittently.

Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. "Where should you bring her after you've succeeded?"

"Duke, Duke Raymond, bring her to him," the assassin replied.

Feng Qing : "..."

It was Raymond again. She had almost forgotten about this person, but she did not expect to cross paths with him again. She had already made it very clear and her attitude was very clear. Logically speaking, Raymond should have given up. Moreover, that day at the Feng family, Raymond had acted very gentlemanly, not like someone who would do such a thing.

What puzzled Feng Qing the most was that if Raymond already knew that she was Xie Jiuhan's woman, not only should he not have sent assassins to kidnap her, but he should have stayed as far away as possible.

Feng Qing looked at the assassin and asked, "Say it again, who gave you this mission?"

The assassin was in a hypnotic state and said irresistibly, "Duke Raymond!"

Feng Qing's brows relaxed. If she wasn't wrong, Raymond didn't know that she was Xie Jiuhan's woman. Otherwise, he definitely wouldn't have sent people to arrest her. Moreover, Raymond was only targeting the closest woman to Xie Jiuhan.. As for these professional assassins, they didn't know her true identity.
