Little Wu rushed into the bathroom and found a few corpses lying in a pool of blood. The smell of blood rushed to her nostrils, so she hurriedly informed the bodyguards to come in and deal with the aftermath.

Looking at Feng Qing's trembling shoulders, Little Wu said softly, "Madam Qingqing, are you crying?"

Feng Qing did not answer. As the man left without turning back, her tears fell uncontrollably. Countless feelings of grievance and heartache surged. As Xie Jiuhan's woman, she had always felt a huge pressure. It was so strong that she felt like she was suffocating.

To her, Xie Jiuhan was the lighthouse, and she was the lost wave boat on the sea. Under the guidance of the lighthouse, she could find the other shore. However, when the lighthouse no longer guided it, she would completely lose her direction and drift along the waves.

Xie Jiuhan placed his hands in his pockets and walked out of the shopping center with a cold face. From afar, the customers could feel the cold air blowing at them.

"Tsk tsk, this handsome man is really handsome, but he's too cold."

"That's right, that's right. Looking at him makes me feel like I'll be crushed to death at any moment. His aura is too strong."

“Jesus, I was scared to death. I just walked past him. I couldn’t even move my legs. It was like I was frozen to the ground.”

The customers discussed and looked at Xie Jiuhan strangely. Just like at Capital University, even though he was wearing a mask, everyone could still feel that he was extremely handsome.

Su Yu ran over. “Ninth Master, Little Wu just reported that Young Madam seems to be crying...”

Xie Jiuhan’s footsteps paused. One of his legs stopped in midair, and an even colder aura exploded from his body. Su Yu lowered his head and trembled.

The sentence ‘Young Madam seems to be crying’ pierced into his heart like a steel knife. An indescribable pain stimulated his brain. His violent and bloodthirsty genes were agitated crazily, as if they would burst out of his blood vessels at any moment.

The veins on his forehead throbbed, and the blood vessels in his fists throbbed. The expression on the man’s face changed from cold to bloodthirsty and sinister, as if he was possessed by a demon. Regarding Feng Qing, just one sentence could make him act up.

The man’s body couldn’t help but tremble. He forcefully closed his eyes and ordered, “Immediately get someone to seal this place. Those who want to die, stay behind. Those who don’t want to die, chase them out!”

Su Yu hurriedly asked, “Ninth Master, what about Young Madam?”

Xie Jiuhan’s face was pale, and his teeth were chattering. “Ignore her. Let’s go back to the company.”

Su Yu: “???”

If not for the fact that he could tell that Xie Jiuhan was about to relapse, he would have asked the man. Didn't they agree to give the entire Xie Corporation a day off? Why did you let us continue working after playing with Young Madam?

After receiving Su Yu's notice, all the employees of the Xie Corporation were dumbfounded. They sighed at the unreasonable exploitation of the capitalists. However, despite their complaints, they still returned to work obediently.

Di Hui Building.

Su Yu followed behind Xie Jiuhan. Although he didn't know what had happened, he knew that Xie Jiuhan's relapse had something to do with Feng Qing.

Xie Jiuhan did not explain or say what was going on between him and Feng Qing. As soon as he arrived at the company, he started to hold meetings with the higher-ups. Following the orders, the employees of the various departments started to work overtime. Until 11 PM, the entire building was still brightly lit. It was an atmosphere that said, I love work, and work makes me happy.

In the president's office on the 95th floor.

Su Yu came in with a bunch of documents and found Xie Jiuhan sitting on the boss chair looking at the report. The dinner on the table was untouched. He did not even take a sip of water.

Looking at Xie Jiuhan, who had turned on his workaholic mode, Su Yu was confused and broke out in cold sweat. He looked at the information in his hand nervously and gently placed it on the desk.

After returning from the shopping center, in a few hours, seven departments of the corporation had already been implicated. They were all subdued by Xie Jiuhan.

“Contact the headquarters in America immediately. I want a video conference in 15 minutes. All the leaders above the middle level must attend.” Xie Jiuhan reviewed the report and instructed without raising his head.

Su Yu : “...”

It was almost midnight.. According to their Ninth Master, he planned to bring all the employees of the corporation to work until dawn. So now, even the overseas branch couldn't escape?
