However, there was something that made Su Yu happy because he could tell that Xie Jiuhan's mood had improved. He really wanted to inform the entire corporation immediately and let everyone be happy.

"Around 2: 15 in the morning, who came to my office?" Xie Jiuhan asked.

"Early morning?" Su Yu was stunned. "Oh, when I went out for breakfast, I heard from the front desk that Long Yuning came over last night. I think she brought you supper."

Xie Jiuhan did not ask anymore. After knowing that it was Long Yuning, he guessed that Xie Yuhuan had asked her to come. Moreover, she had given the elevator card to Long Yuning. Otherwise, she would definitely not have been able to get up.

"Inform everyone that from now on, no one is allowed to enter the 95th floor without my permission, not even my aunt," Xie Jiuhan ordered.

Su Yu's heart tightened as he said respectfully, "Understood!" After that, he started reporting, "Ninth Master, the people who attacked Young Madam at the shopping center yesterday were sent by the Blood Demon Group. After Xie Liu's investigation, they all accepted Duke Raymond's mission. However..."

"What?" Xie Jiuhan asked.

Su Yu took a deep breath and continued, "We haven't found out if Duke Raymond already knows Young Madam's identity."

Under normal circumstances, after knowing that Feng Qing was the madam of the Xie family, Duke Raymond would definitely not send anyone to capture her. Otherwise, he would be provoking Xie Jiuhan, and the consequences were definitely not something he could bear.

Therefore, after Xie Liu brought his secret guards to investigate, he felt that Duke Raymond should not know Feng Qing's identity, so he sent someone to capture her.

Xie Jiuhan leaned against the chair and tapped the armrest rhythmically with one finger. His other hand was pressed against his cheek as he fell into deep thought. Although his sitting posture was lazy and casual, he was still like a high and mighty emperor. His entire body exudes an aura that makes people not dare to look straight at him.

He had heard everything that had happened in the female bathroom yesterday at the door. Even without investigating, he knew the identities of those people and knew who had sent them. He was just curious how Raymond would deal with Feng Qing if he had succeeded.

"You can leave," Xie Jiuhan said coldly.

"Ninth Master, no matter what, those people were sent by Raymond. It's his fault for daring to touch Young Madam. Should we do something?" Su Yu suggested.

"No need. Tell Xie Liu that we'll do things according to the rules." Xie Jiuhan thought for a moment and made a decision.

In the bedroom, Feng Qing was lying under the blanket, her hair piled up on the bed wantonly. Thinking about the scene of the battle last night, she finally felt relieved, knowing that the man would not abandon her.

Ring... Her phone vibrated. Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. She picked up her phone and saw a message from A Dark Organization.

Anonymous message: "Mission: Please send the Healer to Country F to treat Madam Mingxue. The auction price is 2.5 billion."

Feng Qing frowned as she looked at the news on her phone. Everyone knew that the Healer only treated people in the organization and only treated people outside the organization once a year.

Usually, this one and only chance would be auctioned off by the organization on the black market. In the words of the organization, whoever was rich was worthy of being healthy!

A few seconds later, the message on her phone became a messy code. Then, it automatically deleted. Feng Qing did not expect that her one chance to treat people would actually sell for a sky-high price of 2.5 billion one day. However, she was a little troubled. Xie Jiuhan would probably not agree to her going to Country F, much less let her go out as the Healer.

However, she had been assassinated by the Blood Demon Group several times, so she wanted to investigate. Coupled with the words of the assassins yesterday, "They are to capture Xie Jiuhan's closest woman." If Duke Raymond wanted to use her to threaten Xie Jiuhan, she did not mind digging out his heart.

At this moment, her phone vibrated again and she received a new message.

It was still an anonymous sender. "Netherworld Token, kill Madam Mingxue from Snow Castle in Country F within three months. Once the mission is completed, will pay the other half of the bounty."

As soon as she finished reading the message, she received a message from the bank. One of her accounts overseas had just received two billion yuan, and this was only the deposit. Another two billion would be transferred after the mission ended.. In other words, she would earn four billion yuan from this mission.
