

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 400

Chapter 400: The Real Sky High Price

“Hmph, aren’t you very popular? But why didn’t anyone buy the two perfumes you made?” Looking at the LED screen, the corners of Feng Jianing’s lips subconsciously curled up.

The two perfumes that Feng Qing had made were unexpectedly cold and in an unattended state. This made her feel that she had crushed Feng Qing in her heart, and she was instantly smug.

“Uncle Feng, let’s take a photo of Jianing’s perfume and find someone to hype it up after the competition. What do you think?” Seeing that Feng Jianing’s perfume had become explosive, Cao Beining ran to Feng Yuanzhou and suggested.

As the young master of the Cao family, he was naturally influenced by how to earn money since he was young. So how could he let go of such a good opportunity to earn money? He dared to guarantee that as long as it worked well, Feng Jianing’s perfume would definitely bring about the perfume industry of the Cao and Feng families.

Feng Yuanzhou and Fu Anlan looked at each other and could not help but nod. They felt that what Cao Beining said made sense. They were also very familiar with the methods of promoting a product. The three of them discussed briefly before starting the bidding on the designated auction platform. They were not afraid of spending money or others competing with them. Instead, they hoped that the price would be raised to the sky.

300,000, 500,000, 800,000. With their addition, Feng Jianing’s two bottles of perfume had a price of 800,000. At this rate, it would break the million mark sooner or later!

Looking at the crazy number on the LED screen, the audience was shocked. They didn’t expect that Feng Jianing’s perfume could be speculated to such a price. Could it be that her perfume was really that good?

As expected, in just five minutes, Feng Jianing's two perfumes were speculated to be 1.5 million. But the bidding price also started to stagnate.

"1,500,000 going thrice, deal!" Looking at the countdown on the big screen, the host counted down loudly. "Congratulations to this friend. With a price of three million, you've successfully bid for the two perfumes produced by Miss Feng Jianing. Please fill in the address and contact information on the platform directly. There will be staff contacting you."

At this moment, a staff member hurriedly went on stage and whispered something to the host. The host looked shocked and confirmed with the staff before accepting the news.

After brewing for a while, the host said, "Friends, I just received news from the auction platform. Other than Miss Feng Jianing, another contestant's perfume has been auctioned at a sky-high price. It's a true sky-high price!"

A nosy audience member stood up and said, "Host, why aren't you saying anything? Who's the other contestant? How much is the sky-high price you're talking about?"

"That's right. Talking halfway is equivalent to torture. Besides, this is a good thing. Why didn't you say it?" Another audience member echoed.

With these two people taking the lead, the scene instantly became chaotic. Many members of the audience clamored for the host to continue. Everyone also wanted to see who had snatched the limelight that should have belonged to Feng Jianing.

Seeing that the audience was doubtful, the host smiled bitterly and said, "First, I want to apologize to everyone. It's not that I don't want to say it, but I can't. Because this contestant's bid was too large, it caused the web page of the online auction platform to be paralyzed. If you don't believe me, you can look at the LED screen, but our technicians are already starting to repair the web page. I believe it will be restored very soon."

Just as the host finished speaking, the image on the LED screen finally moved. With a flash, everyone saw that the two perfumes that were originally first in the auction had fallen by one spot, and the auction price of the new first place was not able to fit on the LED screen.

“Nine, nine zeros, three, three hundred million?”

“Is the system wrong? Someone actually spent 300 million to buy two bottles of perfume?”

“Oh my god, no wonder the host said that it was a sky high price.150 million for a bottle of perfume. Did this person’s money come from nowhere?”

The audience was stunned. They pointed at the LED screen and started discussing fervently. With a sky-high price of 300 million, no one paid attention to Feng Jianing anymore. Instantly, they felt that the perfume she made was no longer fragrant..
