“Little Uncle, Little Aunt, I don't agree to what you guys just said!” Suddenly, Xie Shihao's voice sounded. Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan turned around and looked. They didn't know when he had walked over.

Xie Shihao stretched out his thumb and pointed at the tip of his nose. He said proudly, “According to seniority, I'm your biological nephew. Therefore, not only do you two have each other, but you also have me as your relative, especially Little Aunt. If you think I'm not close enough, I can be your son.”

Xie Jiuhan snorted coldly and kicked Xie Shihao to the side. “Get lost as far as you can think. I didn't give birth to a useless son like you.”

Looking at Xie Jiuhan's heartless back view, Xie Shihao crawled up from the ground and held his heart. With a sorrowful expression, he pounced into Gu Qingye's arms.

“Qingye, please comfort me,” Xie Shihao wailed.

Gu Qingye raised his leg and kicked him again. “I'm starting to pity your uncle. He's so outstanding, why does he have a useless nephew like you?”

After Xie Jiuhan and the rest left, the ambulance arrived and brought the Feng couple to the hospital.

Fu Anlan's face was already swollen like a pig's head. A few of her teeth had been removed, and she felt a stabbing pain in her head, as if she had a concussion from being slapped.

Feng Yuanzhou was even worse. After preliminary examination, his fingers were shattered and his wrist was fractured. His entire hand was swollen like a bun.

Fortunately, after arriving at the hospital, the two of them regained consciousness. Fu Anlan's injuries were relatively light, so she wanted to accompany Feng Yuanzhou for a checkup. However, before they could enter the emergency room, they were pushed out.

"What do you mean? Why don't you let us see a doctor? Can't you see that both of us are very injured?" Feng Yuanzhou scolded.

Actually, he was in so much pain that he didn't want to say a word. However, because Fu Anlan's face was so swollen, she couldn't speak anymore, so he could only say it.

The emergency doctor raised his eyebrows and said, "I'm sorry, I just received a notice from the leaders of the hospital. For various reasons, the hospital cannot accept you, much less treat you. Don't block the door and affect other people's treatment."

Fu Anlan and Feng Yuanzhou looked at each other in confusion, not knowing what was going on at all. Why didn't the hospital treat them?

"Why aren't you treating us? We've all been registered and paid. Your hospital dares to refuse treatment?" Because her face was so swollen, Fu Anlan could no longer speak smoothly. Feng Yuanzhou endured the pain in his right hand and questioned them.

The emergency doctor rolled her eyes and was completely speechless towards Feng Yuanzhou. She pointed at the billboard on the wall. "Are you two blind? Can't you see the logo of the Xie Corporation on our hospital's logo?"

Afraid that Feng Yuanzhou wouldn't understand, the doctor continued to explain, "Seeing that your injuries are quite serious, I suggest that you quickly find a hospital that doesn't belong to the Xie Corporation to treat your illness. Now, all the hospitals that belong to the Xie Corporation won't accept the two of you. If you continue to delay and miss the best treatment opportunity, you'll probably become handicapped in the future. Hurry up and leave."

Feng Yuanzhou naturally didn't want to go to those small hospitals outside. After all, only large hospitals had the ability to guarantee that his fingers would recover to their original state. The medical standard of small hospitals was simply impossible to guarantee. He didn't want to become a handicapped person in the future and be mocked everywhere he went.

"Tell me clearly, why aren't the hospitals under the Xie Corporation accepting us?" Feng Yuanzhou refused to leave and continued asking.

At this moment, two people walked over. One of them said anxiously, "Doctor Liu, please go out and take a look at our donkey. He vomited and had diarrhea today. I didn't know what happened."

The emergency doctor nodded. "Then what are we waiting for? Hurry up and bring me over to take a look. Although I'm not a vet, I can treat ordinary illnesses."

The Feng couple were dumbfounded again. Since when were they inferior to a donkey? Wasn't this going too far? The hospitals under the Xie Corporation would rather treat donkeys than them?
