At this moment, Feng Qing walked back with the paper and patted Feng Jianing's paper on the table. "Invigilators, please take a look. Were the words on the table and this paper written by the same person?"

The three invigilators took the examination paper and looked at it carefully for a while. They nodded one after another and gave affirmative answers. Chief Tian held the examination paper and decided, "Student Feng Jianing, you're suspected of cheating in the midterm examination. According to the school's examination rules, you will fail for this subject. Please leave the examination hall now."

Shen Suying : "..."

Hearing Chief Tian mentioned that the person was Feng Jianing, Shen Suying secretly pulled Chief Tian's arm and said in a very low voice, "Chief Tian, you're mistaken. The person who gave you the test paper just now was the one who cheated in the examination. Her name is Feng Qing, not Feng Jianing."

Chief Tian was slightly stunned. He frowned and took a closer look at the paper in his hand. "I'm not wrong. Feng Jianing is clearly written on this paper. Which one of you is Feng Jianing? Please quickly leave the examination room with your things!"

Feng Jianing's face turned pale. Chief Tian said her name again. The looks of disdain from the students made her face burn.

Shen Suying did not believe it. She took the paper from Chief Tian and looked at it. She carefully compared the handwriting on the paper and the table. No matter how dissatisfied she was, she had to admit that the handwriting was the same.

Rolling her eyes, Shen Suying said, "Chief Tian, you're mistaken. Before the examination started, I changed their seats."

Chief Tian frowned. "Change seats? Chief Shen, you mean..."

"What I mean is, although the cheat notes on the table were written by Feng Jianing, she didn't really use it. Instead, Student Feng Qing became the biggest beneficiary." Shen Suying explained.

Chief Tian was a little stunned by what she said. He looked at the cheat notes on the table and then at Feng Qing. For a moment, he could not react at all. Shen Suying continued, "So I think Feng Qing should be the one to be kicked out of the examination room!"

The other two invigilators looked at each other and looked at Shen Suying in confusion. They did not know why Shen Suying was so against Feng Qing.

"Chase me out of the examination room? Chief Shen, I didn't even write my name on the examination paper, nor did I do a single question. How did I cheat?" Feng Qing questioned.

Feng Qing's words immediately hit the nail on the head. Chief Tian also reacted. Many students nodded in agreement. Feng Qing did not even write a word, so how could she say that she cheated?

The corners of Shen Suying's lips curled up, as if she had already expected Feng Qing to say this. Hence, she boasted shamelessly, "Hmph, don't give me that. Although you haven't written a word, you've been staring at the table just now. I believe you've memorized a lot of answers, right? As long as you've memorized them, it'll be considered cheating in the examination room!"

The smile on Feng Qing's face disappeared, and a layer of indifferent cold light flashed across her eyes. She looked straight at Shen Suying. "Chief Shen, are you unhappy with me?"

Shen Suying shuddered. Her back turned cold from Feng Qing's cold eyes. This was the first time she had seen such an aura on a student.

"You, you're talking nonsense. As a teacher, it's my responsibility to monitor fairness!" Shen Suying denied.

Feng Qing did not speak and only stared coldly at Shen Suying. The atmosphere in the classroom was cold and awkward. Chief Tian was the first to speak up to smooth things over. "Alright, I understand. Everything you say makes sense. In that case, why don't we randomly draw an S-level question from the question bank for the two of them?"

"Hiss..."

Upon hearing Chief Tian's words, the students gasped. Everyone knew that Capital University had always divided the examination questions into the five difficulty levels of SABCD, and S-level was the most difficult one. It was called the Purgatory level of difficulty. Not to mention the literary scum like them, even the top students could not guarantee that they would pass.

"Chief, I..." Feng Jianing's face turned pale. She couldn't say anything.

Feng Qing stared intently at Shen Suying and said, "Chief Shen, you can ask me to answer the S-level question, but I have a condition."

Shen Suying raised her eyebrows. "What condition?"

“If my S-level paper gets full marks, you have to kowtow and apologize to me!” Feng Qing retorted.
