“Impulsive!” Gu Qingye couldn’t help but mutter in the last row.

He did not know how difficult the S-level paper was, but he knew one thing. Ever since Capital University was established, no one had ever gotten full marks for the S-level paper. It was not that he did not have confidence in Feng Qing, but the S-level paper was too difficult.

“Ha, haha, Feng Qing, do you know what you’re talking about?” Not only was Shen Suying not angry, but she smiled. “Very good, the entire class heard it. You said this yourself. If you can really score full marks on the S-grade paper, it doesn’t matter if I kowtow and apologize to you!”

Other people did not know how difficult the S-level examination paper was, but as the chief, she knew very well that Capital University had to form an Advance Class every year to participate in the competition. And the students who could enter the Advance Class were all top ten students in the entire school. However, even they, the top students, could not get full marks. Feng Qing, a mere arts student, actually dared to boast so shamelessly. She was simply stupid.

“However, I’m a teacher after all. Naturally, I can’t bully a student like you, so I’ll be more magnanimous. If you don’t get full marks for your S-level examination paper, then bow and apologize to me in front of your classmates. You can sincerely say that you were wrong and won’t dare to talk back again!” Shen Suying said playfully. She was not stupid. She emphasized again and again that Feng Qing had to pay the price for her words.

The students looked at each other and sympathized with Feng Qing in their hearts. They felt that Feng Qing had purely dug a hole and buried herself in it. How could she be so rash?

Xu Mingqian slammed the table and stood up. He protested, "I object, Chief Shen. As the teacher and chief, how can you make such an unfair bet with a student?"

Shen Suying's red lips curled up and she said coldly, "Xu Mingqian, if you don't want to take your examination, get lost. Don't step into muddy water here. Or do you also want to do an S-level paper?"

In her eyes, there were only two types of people: the poor and the rich. Xu Mingqian was also a special student, so she naturally never looked at Xu Mingqian.

"Very good, we'll do as Chief Shen says. The entire class and three invigilators will testify. If I win, Chief Shen will kowtow and apologize to me. If Chief Shen wins, I'll bow and apologize to Chief Shen. It's completely reasonable!" Feng Qing raised her head and said in a clear voice.

Xu Mingqian hurriedly said, "Qingqing, don't be silly. That's an S-level paper. No one from Capital University has ever gotten full marks."

Feng Qing turned around and looked at Xu Mingqian, giving him a confident look. "I like challenging difficult things. The more impossible things are in the eyes of others, the more I have the urge to conquer them. Only by winning can certain people shut up completely. Am I right, Chief Shen?"

"Ha, Student Feng Qing, I hope you can still be so confident after seeing the S-level examination paper. I also look forward to you scoring full marks for a S-level examination paper to shut me up completely!" Shen Suying said with a face full of disdain.

Seeing that they had reached their agreement, Chief Tian's expression darkened. He looked at Shen Suying unhappily. As a teacher, he felt a little embarrassed for Shen Suying. It was really unfair to Feng Qing to do this. However, after thinking about it, he still endured it. After all, Shen Suying's background was a little special. Otherwise, she would not have become the chief at such a young age.

"In that case, let's do this. The two of you, come with me with your stationery." Chief Tian glanced at Feng Qing and Feng Jianing before turning around and walking out.

In the corridor, Feng Jianing whispered in Feng Qing's ear, "Qingqing, you're really a jinx. Do you have to deliberately expose the cheat notes on the table to Chief Shen? See what has happened? Both of us are going to do S-level papers. We're definitely going to fail this subject!"

Feng Qing followed behind Chief Tian and said indifferently, "What were you thinking when you wrote the notes on the table? Do you only know the severity of the problem now? If I remember correctly, you entered Beijing University with the first place in both your major and cultural subjects. How can an S-level examination paper scare you like this?"
