

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 415

Chapter 415: The Daughter of the Shen Family

Feng Qing shook her head to indicate that there was no need to check. After packing her stationery, she walked straight out of Chief Tian's office. The invigilator looked at her back and couldn't help but sweat for her. However, Feng Qing didn't care about it herself, and he didn't want to interfere too much.

--

Three days later, the examination at Capital University ended. At the same time, the results of the first subject were announced. Just as Feng Qing reached the classroom door, she heard her classmates discussing.

"No way! The highest score for this midterm examination is 95 points?"

"Then doesn't that mean that Feng Qing lost the bet? I'm still waiting to see Chief Shen kowtow and apologize to her."

"Then if Feng Qing loses, won't she have to bow and apologize to that old witch, Chief Shen, in front of us? Just the thought of that old witch's smug face makes me sick!"

Ignoring everyone's discussions, Feng Qing sat down on the table. Just as she sat down, Xu Mingqian threw a tablet at her.

Feng Qing scrolled through the screen and said in confusion, "Brother Mingqian, why do you have the contents of my examination?" She could see very clearly that the tablet had her S-level examination paper and a standard answer that the teacher used to grade. Students usually couldn't get such things.

Xu Mingqian whispered, "It's nothing. I was just bored. I went to the school's teaching system to take a look."

"You hacked the school's education system? You're a hacker?" Feng Qing raised her eyebrows.

Xu Mingqian chuckled. "Do you think our school's crappy server needs the ability of a hacker? As long as you know a little bit of programming, you can easily go in and play."

Feng Qing's eyes curved into crescents. Xu Mingqian had made it sound easy. She was a hacker herself, so she naturally knew the difficulty of hacking into the teaching system of Capital University.

Clearly, Xu Mingqian was not telling the truth, but she did not want to pursue the matter. After all, everyone had their own secrets. There was no need to dig deeper.

Feng Qing could see very clearly that on the S-level paper she did, there were 95 marks written in red pen. Feng Qing looked at the standard answer and compared it with her own paper. In the end, she found the spot where her marks were deducted. It was the last big question, and this big question only gave her 5 marks out of 10.

What was special was that the last big question was actually graded by three teachers. 10 points, 0 points, and 5 points. Because the last big question did not belong to the traditional meaning of mathematics and was a defense math question, three teachers gave marks according to the standard answer. Therefore, three teachers gave three completely different points.

"Qingqing, do you know who Chief Shen is?" Xu Mingqian asked.

Feng Qing was stunned before she shook her head. "I don't know, I'm not familiar with her."

“Let’s put it this way. The entire Capital’s education world is ruled by the Shen family, and Shen Suying is the young lady of the Shen family. That’s why she could become the chief at such a young age. However, she is just being gilded. Before long, she will climb up again,” Xu Mingqian explained.

As the King of Hackers in Xia country, apart from a very small number of people, no one could hide secrets from him. It was just a matter of typing on the keyboard to investigate whoever he wanted to know.

Feng Qing’s lips twitched. “I see. If I remember correctly, the Capital University’s school rules are very strict. She’s already the chief. If she still wants to climb up, according to the rules, she has to teach in the countryside for at least three years before she has a chance, right?”

Not only was this promotion method used by Capital University, but almost the entire education world in Xia country was also doing this. It had already become an unwritten rule. Many people with connections in the education world had to follow this rule. For example, the various directors of Capital University had all gone out to teach when they were young.

“She’s the eldest daughter of the Shen family. Letting her be the chief is already letting her experience civilian life. How can she go to that kind of place to teach poor students?” Xu Mingqian rubbed his nose.

Glancing at the last question again, Feng Qing returned the tablet to Xu Mingqian. “Brother Mingqian, I’ve troubled you.”

With that, she took out her phone and dialed a string of numbers..
