“According to the bet, if you don’t get full marks in the examination, you have to bow and admit your mistake to me, and promise not to talk back to me in the future. Don’t worry, I’m a teacher after all. As long as you admit your mistake properly, I will definitely forgive you.” Shen Suying’s face was brimming with a smile, looking like she had won.

“Shen Suying, you old monster. Look at your face that has been filled with hyaluronic acid. Do you think you’re worthy of being the chief? Do you think you’re worthy of teaching people and make Qingqing apologize to you? Do you have the rights?” Xie Shihao stood at the door and scolded.

Shen Suyin’s head was about to split open after hearing Xie Shihao cursed that her face was filled with hyaluronic acid. Actually, the ‘hyaluronic acid face’ was also a nickname given to her by the students in private. It was just that she pretended not to hear it. However, this was the first time that she had been scolded in public.

Although she was about to explode from anger, the person who scolded her was Xie Shihao, the young master of the Capital’s Xie family and Xie Jiuhan’s nephew. Even if she was the daughter of the Shen family, she couldn’t afford to offend him.

Shen Suying controlled her temper and said, “Young Master Xie, even if Feng Qing is your girlfriend, you shouldn’t be protecting her like this. After all, we’re only fulfilling our previous bet.”

Hearing the words ‘girlfriend’, Xie Shihao’s tongue was tied. “You, what are you talking about? What girlfriend? When did I have a girlfriend?”

Shen Suying sneered and looked at Feng Qing with even more disdain. “Feng Qing, you’ve served Young Master Xie for so long. How have you not even become his girlfriend?”

Seeing Feng Qing’s expression darken, she couldn’t help but feel even more smug. She thought that she had touched Feng Qing’s sore spot. However, she felt relieved after thinking about it. Feng Qing was only a wild girl from a poor mountain ditch after all. She didn’t have status or background, so how could she match a young master like Xie Shihao?

“Shen Suying, shut up! To think that you’re the chief of Capital University. Is this your calibre? How can you talk to students like this?” Xie Shihao scolded angrily, “Let me tell you, don’t play matchmaker there. There’s a price to pay for talking nonsense. Feng Qing isn’t my girlfriend at all. The feelings between us aren’t as dirty as you think. Actually, she’s...”

“Oh my god!”

“Oh my!”

“This is...”

Just as Xie Shihao was about to reveal Feng Qing’s identity, he heard the exclamations of his classmates behind him. Xie Shihao frowned and turned to look out the door. He wanted to see what was going on outside that could cause such a commotion.

In the corridor, the students who were watching the fun automatically split into two rows, instantly opening a path. A tall and strong figure walked over elegantly. The person who came was abnormally handsome. Regardless of whether it was male or female, as long as one took a look, they would be attracted by that face.

Many students who knew the person who came were shocked in their hearts. They did not expect to meet him here. Or rather, why was he here?

As for the students who didn't know him, they were all staring at him in a daze. The girls had eyes like heart, and their faces exuded a spring color. The boys couldn't help but nod and look up at him.

Walking in the crowd, Xie Jiuhan was calm and natural. Behind him, Su Yu and the ten bodyguards followed closely. The huge aura shook the hearts of all the students.

"Hey, Jiuhan, why are you here?" Seeing that Xie Jiuhan was here, Shen Suying quickly tidied her hair and clothes and came out to greet him. With that, she glanced at Xie Shihao, who was at the door. She guessed that it had something to do with Xie Shihao. It was very likely that Xie Shihao had caused trouble in school again.

One should not hit a smiling person. Seeing Shen Suying smiling and welcoming him, Xie Jiuhan only looked at her indifferently. At this moment, another group of people ran over breathlessly. It was the principal and a group of Capital University's higher-ups.

"Chief, Chief Shen, ask Student Feng Qing to come out for a while," Principal Di Zongzhi said.

Shen Suying raised her eyebrows and questioned, "Principal Di, why are you looking for her?"

"Just now, the Ninth Master personally went to the Academic Affairs Office to check the results of the students for this midterm examination. Fortunately, the Ninth Master was insightful and found the problem in Student Feng Qing's test scores.." Principal Di took a few deep breaths and said, "Also, the Xie Corporation has just announced that they will undertake the scholarship of all the students who obtained good results for this midterm examination."
