Not long after they left the bedroom, Duke Raymond came up to them. He asked eagerly, "Healer, how is my mother?" Seeing that Raymond was a little close, the Sword God took half a step forward and stood slightly in front of the Healer. The ancient sword on his back trembled slightly, obviously not at ease with Raymond.

Feng Qing walked out from behind the Sword God and looked at Raymond. After seeing his innocent look, Feng Qing understood that he should be unaware of what had happened in the bedroom. However, as the Duke, he should know that his mother was Madam Crimson Snow, right?

Recalling how Duke Raymond had sent the Blood Demon Group to assassinate her in Xia country, Feng Qing was even more certain of her speculation. However, there was no need for her to point it out.

"Madam Mingyue won't have a headache for three days after the first stage of treatment is completed. Three days later, we will come and give her one last treatment. Her illness will be completely treated then." The Healer said confidently. With that, Feng Qing did not stay any longer and walked out. Duke Raymond followed behind her and prepared to personally send them away from the Duke's manor.

"Then is my mother's condition serious? Or is it that her illness is only temporarily controlled? She will definitely be cured in three days, right? By the way, where are you two staying? If you don't have a place to stay, I can arrange a place with excellent scenery for you. You can look at the entire Country F."

Along the way, Raymond talked non-stop, as if he had endless questions. Feng Qing found it funny that Raymond was like a child. But she was the cold Healer now, so she naturally wouldn't say another word.

When the three of them arrived at the entrance of the Duke's Manor, the Healer said, "Your mother is very weak and needs to eat nutritious food. Don't make her angry, nor should you curse in front of her, such as 'old idiot'."

Upon hearing the words 'old idiot', Duke Raymond was stunned. Although he knew that this was an insult, he didn't understand why the Healer had instructed him like this.

The Sword God almost laughed out loud after seeing his silly look. He pinched his arm hard and suppressed his laughter.

After watching them leave, Duke Raymond stood at the door for a long time. After returning to the Duke's Manor, he called the butler over and asked, "The Healer said that we can't curse in front of Mother, such as 'old idiot'. Is there any special meaning about this word?"

Although the butler knew Xia country's language, he was also confused as he scratched his head. "Duke, you should ask someone else. I also don't know what special meaning it has."

What Raymond didn't know was that the word 'old idiot' had become famous in the entire Duke's manor. Many servants were thinking about the meaning of this word and why they couldn't mention it. Many servants even jokingly scolded each other as 'old idiots' when they met.

However, what puzzled the servants the most was that every time they said the word 'old idiot', they would hear a cry of pain in the Duke's Manor.

In the van.

The Night God drove steadily. The Healer and the Sword God were sitting in the backseat. The Sword God clenched his fists tightly. He, who had always been insensitive, was rarely nervous.

Finally, the Sword God couldn't take it anymore. He looked at the Healer beside him and said, "Can you take off your mask again?"

Feng Qing took a deep breath. She knew what the Sword God meant, but she did not refuse. She reached out and took off her mask. Anyway, he had seen her just now.

Night God, who was driving, looked in the rearview mirror and braked. Fortunately, he reacted quickly enough to avoid hitting the railing by the road.

"Mr. Qingyi?!" Night God was inexplicably shocked. Everyone in A Dark Organization could not know anyone, but everyone had to know him. Otherwise, they wouldn't even know how they died.

Although this was the second time the Sword God had seen this face today, it still shocked him to the point that his mouth turned into a circle. He subconsciously leaned against the car door and regretted not bringing a gas mask today. The famous poison master, Mr. Qingyi, was sitting beside him. If he was unhappy with him, he would pour some poison powder on him..
