So what if he was the Sword God? In the end, he was also a person. As long as he was a person, he would be afraid of death. Otherwise, why would he still be alive? He might as well slit his throat with his sword. Most importantly, why would he take the initiative to throw his life away if he knew that he would die if he went? This was too stupid. He couldn't accept this.

Feng Qing ignored his dissatisfaction and pointed at the computer screen. "Actually, it's not a big deal. Although this Seven Extremes Array is powerful, it's not impossible to crack. As long as we walk in reverse inside, we can successfully dodge all the attacks and arrangements. We can even use this formation to delay their own people. In short, you just have to follow behind me. You kill when you should, and run when you need to. Don't take it too seriously."

After listening to Feng Qing's explanation for a long time, the Sword God smiled bitterly. In the past, he thought that he was very smart, but now, he felt that he was a fool. Not to mention understanding what Feng Qing was saying, he couldn't even remember it. "Master Qingyi, I yield. I know I'm useless, alright?" The Sword God spread his hands.

Feng Qing's explanation stopped abruptly. Looking at the Sword God's self-deprecating expression, she could not help but sigh. It looked like she could not count on the Sword God three days later. However, she could understand that for people who had never understood or learned this knowledge in the past, these things were indeed too profound and difficult to understand.

“You don’t have to be so dejected. Although you don’t understand these things, your skills are still very strong. When the time comes, just follow closely by my side. As long as there are people who are close to us, you can just kill them. Leave the breaking of the array to me.” Feng Qing comforted him.

Entering the Duke’s Manor three days later could be said to be filled with danger. Not only did they have to be brave, but they also had to have strategy. Otherwise, with Madam Crimson Snow’s methods, they would really die inside.

Hearing her say this, the Sword God seemed to feel more at ease. He patted his chest and said, “Then there’s no problem. I don’t believe in anything else but I’m definitely good at killing people. In the entire Duke’s Manor, other than Madam Crimson Snow, no one is my match.”

Speaking up to this point, the Sword God gave Feng Qing a thumbs up and praised her from the bottom of his heart. “Master Qingyi, you’re really amazing, Not only are you skilled in using poison, but you also know mysterious things like Qimen Dunjia. You’re really amazing, However, I’m very curious.

These things are so difficult to understand. Did you learn them yourself?”

The corners of Feng Qing’s lips curled up. “Of course someone taught me. Even the most talented person needs a teacher. If I relied on myself to comprehend, I probably won’t be able to learn it for the rest of my life.”

The Sword God was like a curious baby. “Then who is your teacher? Isn’t he more powerful than you?”

Feng Qing did not answer his questions. Instead, she said calmly, “I’ve thought about it. It’s best that you don’t go to the Duke’s Manor three days later. After all, you can’t understand how to break the array. If you rely on brute force to barge in, it’s very likely that we’ll die together.”

The Sword God was not dissatisfied when he heard that he was not allowed to go. Instead, he heaved a sigh of relief. He was not a person who was afraid of death, but he did not want to die so foolishly. He would definitely not hesitate to kill his enemies head-on. However, it was too difficult for him to crack the Seven Extremes Array with Feng Qing.

“But you can’t go alone, right?” The Sword God asked. It was always good to have another person to have your back when you’re in someone else’s headquarters, after all, one more person meant one more force. If Feng Qing was to go alone, he would consider reporting this news to the organization. If not, he would cancel this business.

“I need an assistant who can help me break the array. Moreover, this assistant also has powerful combat strength, and he at least has the strength to match thousands of killers. Only this way can it be safe.” Feng Qing said her thoughts.

Upon hearing this condition, the Sword God shook his head. “It’s easy to say. Where can I find such a person?”

The Night God, who had been silent, suddenly said, “I thought of someone...”

“Who?” Feng Qing and the Sword God asked in unison.

The Night God glanced at the two of them and slowly said, “The current number one assassin on the assassin rankings, Blood Loli, definitely possesses the combat strength to fight one against a hundred. Moreover, it is rumored that when she is carrying out missions, she often uses the Qimen Art to kill people without leaving a trace, so she should be the most suitable partner for you..”
