Taking a deep breath, the Sword God pointed at the Netherworld on the screen and said, "Back then, I lost in a fierce battle with Madam Crimson Snow. Just as I was about to die, a youth suddenly appeared to save me. That youth was also wearing a golden mask. However, I was seriously injured at that time and didn't notice if the mask on the youth's face was the same as his. I couldn't have expected that the person who saved me back then would have been the King of Killers."

Looking at the man on the screen, the Sword God was so excited that his entire body was trembling. No wonder the young man could save him from Madam Crimson Snow at such a young age. It turned out that he was the King of Killers, a person with the highest combat strength in this world, the Netherworld River that countless people feared.

It was this young man who had saved him. Later on, he was respectfully called the King of Killers. As long as he was alive for a day, no one dared to use this title, and this young man had even established the world's strongest assassin organization, Six Netherworld Organization.

The only regret was that he suddenly announced his retirement from the assassin world and no longer accepted any missions. He only became an instructor and personally nurtured a group of killers. The killers he nurtured also occupied the top twenty on the assassin rankings.

"I'm very curious. He has disappeared for so many years. Why did he appear in Country F today? Why did he appear in the Duke's Manor?" The Sword God asked, but no one answered him.

After some operation, a line of green words appeared on the computer screen, indicating that the Night God had forcefully locked onto the IP address of all electronic devices on Netherworld.

Feng Qing said, "Try sending him a message and see if he can receive it."

'The Night God did not speak either. He crossed his ten fingers and forcefully cracked his fingers. Then, his fingers started typing on the keyboard. His speed was so fast that afterimages appeared on the keyboard.

One minute, five minutes, fifteen minutes had passed. Suddenly, Night God's hands stopped. His eyes were fixed on the man on the screen, his eyes filled with shock.

Seeing his abnormality, Feng Qing raised her eyebrows and said, "What's wrong? What happened?"

A drop of sweat slid down Night God's temple. At this moment, on the computer screen, the original green words had all turned red. At the end of the words, there was a large exclamation mark flashing.

"I, I failed. I couldn't hack into his electronic equipment," Night God said with difficulty. Ever since he joined A Dark Organization, this was the first time he had encountered a situation where he could not hack or crack on a mission. He was one hundred percent certain that the defense program in the Netherworld phone was something he had never seen before. Many of the programs were unimaginable. This was definitely the strongest defense system he had ever seen.

At this moment, a line of red text appeared on the computer screen. "Warning! Someone is hacking the system!"

The Night God came back to his senses and hurriedly exited the hacker space. Then, he forced the computer to shut down. The computer, which had been operating soundlessly, was actually so hot that it was burning. One could even smell a burnt smell.

'The Sword God asked, "Night God, are you alright?"

The Night God turned around to look at Feng Qing and the Sword God. He said with lingering fear, "My computer was almost hacked, and I couldn't resist it at all. The speed of the other party's hacking is too terrifying."

"What? Your invasion didn't succeed, but someone else invaded? This is really the first time." The Sword God was shocked.

"If I'm not wrong, the defense system in the Netherworld phone should be called the Tian Sha's Shield." Night God said after calming down.

Feng Qing and the Sword God looked at each other. The two of them looked at the Night God curiously. The Sword God couldn't help but say, "I don't know what the Tian Sha's Shield is, but I've heard of Tian Sha. He's the founder of your hacker alliance, the only person who has the title of the King of Hackers. When you, the current chief of the hacker alliance, see him, you have to call him a living ancestor." After showing off his knowledge, the Sword God went up to the Night God and said with a gossipy look, "Tell me quickly what the Tian Sha's Shield is and let me broaden my horizons.."
