"Hmph, Netherworld, even if I'm very sincere now, you probably don't have any combat strength left," Feng Qing said with her head lowered.

Upon hearing this, Netherworld was slightly stunned. His voice was low. "What do you mean?"

Before he could finish his sentence, his vision darkened. He subconsciously took two steps back. An excruciating pain suddenly rose from his ribs. Netherworld held his left rib and looked at Feng Qing in surprise.

"Hehe, how is it? It feels good, right?" Feng Qing teased. "There's no need to panic. The reason why it hurts is because it was bitten by my poisonous bugs. These bugs don't burrow into your body, they will die in a few seconds after biting you."

"As expected of Mr. Qingyi, you really live up to your reputation. Not only do you know how to use poison powder, but you also know how to breed poisonous bugs. In that case, I've already been poisoned?" Netherworld rubbed his ribs and spoke with an incomparably cold voice.

Seeing that he had been poisoned, Feng Qing relaxed a lot. She leaned against the piano and said, "No, you're not poisoned."

Netherworld frowned. "If you didn't poison me, why did you let the worm bite me?"

Behind the disguise, Feng Qing couldn't help but laugh. "Actually, it's nothing. This worm is called 'Impotent Insect'. As the name suggests, those who have been bitten by it will be impotent in that certain area. In the words of modern western medicine, it means you're impotent."

Netherworld :

Feng Qing looked at Netherworld and said in a low voice, "Now that you've been bitten by the 'Impotent Insect, your function in that area is probably not as good as that of Brother Three Seconds. I reckon you can last for a second, no more."

Netherworld : "..."

He never expected that there was such a bug in the world. He did not doubt Feng Qing's words at all. After all, he was Mr. Qingyi, who made people tremble with fear.

Behind the golden mask, the veins on Netherworld's forehead twitches violently. This woman was too daring to actually poison him with impotent poison. Netherworld stretched out a hand and said with killing intent overflowing from his body, "Hand over the antidote."

He was deliberately showing his murderous intent. After all, the other party was his wife. However, he really wanted to ask Feng Qing now. If she poisoned him like this, does she not plan to live a blissful life for the rest of her life?

Feng Qing wanted to laugh. Even through the mask, she could feel the anger on Netherworld's face. No matter what a man's orientation was, if he was impotent in some aspects, he would definitely be angry. However, she also wanted to say to Netherworld, "Sir Instructor, I'm sorry. I did this because you forced me to. After all, it isn't healthy for your body and mental health if you're having sex with a guy. For someone like you who isn't able to walk when you see handsome guys, what if you get some infectious disease accidentally?

"I'm sorry, there's no antidote. If you want to blame someone, blame yourself for placing your attention on me, so I can only mute your weapon first. Of course, for your own good, I strongly suggest cutting off your thing so that you don't have to think about it anymore in the future. It'll be good for you, me, and everyone." Feng Qing's voice was playful.

A grinding sound came from behind the golden mask. One could imagine Netherworld's current mood.

"Qingyi, I can guarantee that you'll regret it." Netherworld gritted his teeth.

Hearing Netherworld's threatening voice, Feng Qing looked into the man's eyes and said righteously, "This is called enforcing justice on behalf of the heavens. If I don't get a switch for that thing of yours, who can guarantee that you won't do anything rash?"

"Let me ask you again, are you going to give me the antidote?" Netherworld took a step forward with a murderous look on his face, but when he thought of the poisonous powder and insects that were everywhere on Feng Qing's body, he instantly retreated.

"Three days later, accompany the Healer to the Duke's Manor. As long as you can ensure that he comes out safely, the Healer will detoxify you. After all, she can cure all my poison, so you can rest assured." Feng Qing said arrogantly and turned to leave the room.

In reality, she could not help but want to shout. This feeling of scheming against the Netherworld Instructor was too good. She had negotiated with him face to face and even made him suffer. This was something she did not dare to think of in the past.

She would use Mr. Qingyi to poison Netherworld and force him to accompany her to complete the mission. Then, she would cure Netherworld as the Healer. Not only would she not have to pay, but she would also control Netherworld tightly. She believed that Netherworld would definitely go. After all, his sex life was more important than anything else..
