'When they arrived at the Duke's Manor, the Sword God and the Night God sighed in their hearts. The ride today actually felt like taking a viking ride. It was simply too exciting!

In the Duke's Manor, the Healer and Netherworld got out of the car. It was still the head of the bodyguards who had come last time. After the metal detector's scan, the head of the bodyguards said to Netherworld, "According to the rules, you need to take off your mask."

Feng Qing turned around, afraid that the Netherworld would attack him without a word. However, she did not expect that Netherworld would actually take off his mask.

"Hiss..." Feng Qing gasped.

What kind of face was this? She wanted to ask the instructor what he had experienced and why his face looked like it had been disfigured. His square face was covered in scars from gunshots and fire, and his right cheek was as bumpy as a beehive. It was disgusting to look at.

The head of the bodyguard's expression froze. If he had known that this was the face behind the mask, he wouldn't have checked it even if he was beaten to death. However, he also realized why Netherworld was so cooperative. It turned out that he was being deliberately disgusting to revolt against them.

"Thank you for your cooperation, but I suggest that you don't take off your mask after you go in, in case you scare Madam Mingxue," the head of the bodyguards said before walking up to Feng Qing. "Alright, the inspection is over. You can go in now," the bodyguard said.

Feng Qing wanted to say something, but she swallowed the words when they reached her mouth. At the same time, Duke Raymond and the butler walked over. They were stunned to see that there was another person beside the Healer.

He sized up Netherworld and although he was a little puzzled as to why Netherworld was with the Healer, he nodded at Netherworld and said to the Healer, "Where's that person from yesterday?"

The Healer said in a low voice, "That person is not feeling well, so there was a different person today."

Duke Raymond was puzzled. "Not feeling well? He looked fine yesterday. Is he sick today?"

The Healer nodded. "It's normal. He's a man after all. There are times every month that are inconvenient."

Duke Raymond : "... " Although he was a little confused, these words were said by the Miracle Doctor after all. Even if he didn't understand, he didn't dare to ask anything. He could only pretend not to hear.

Glancing at Netherworld again, Duke Raymond thought to himself that he had seen this man more than once. Every time he appeared, he would be with the people from the Presidential Manor, especially Xing Yue. He seemed to have an extraordinary relationship with this man. The Presidential Manor even treated this man as an honored guest and treated him well.

In the past, he had even sent people to secretly investigate this man. The result of the investigation was that there was no information about this man, including his age, nationality, and so on. The only thing he knew was that this man even dared to scold the President and did not care about the occasion.

Such a ruthless person was someone he absolutely could not provoke before the investigation was completed.

The Healer was new to the country and could hire this man as a bodyguard. Could it be that the two of them knew each other? Or were they both members of A Dark Organization? His gaze slid over the golden mask. Raymond couldn't figure out the relationship between the Healer and the man, but he was certain of one thing. He couldn't afford to offend either of them, even if this was on his territory.

"The Duke's Manor welcomes you, please!" Duke Raymond adjusted his mentality and said respectfully.

Just like last time, Duke Raymond personally led the Healer to Madam Mingxue's bedroom. Along the way, he said, "Healer, ever since the first treatment, my mother's condition has improved a lot. Moreover, she's slept better than before. According to your instructions, I've been giving her nourishment for the past three days. Now, she's in a much better state. She looks more energetic."

The Healer asked, "Does her head still hurt?"

Duke Raymond replied, "It doesn't seem to hurt anymore. I can't explain it clearly. I heard from the servants that Mother doesn't seem to have a headache anymore, nor will she suffer from insomnia like before, nor will she have nightmares. The only thing I don't understand is that before you left last time, you instructed me not to scold 'old idiot' in front of Mother. At first, I didn't understand what you meant. Later on, I checked on the Internet. It was a vulgar sentence..." Before he could finish speaking, he heard a painful howl from the bedroom in front of him. The owner of the sound was Madam

Mingxue..
