Of course, although she was a little shocked, she did not feel any heartache. Instead, she understood why Feng Yuanzhou and Fu Anlan treated her like this. Now that she thought about it, she felt relieved. Fortunately, they were not her biological parents.

Back then, when she was still a baby, she was sold to the green mountain ditch, so the Feng couple didn't raise her for a minute. She was bought by an old couple who was living in a mountain ditch with money from the human traffickers. Fortunately, they took care of her. When the Feng family came to pick her up, the old couple let her leave. They wanted her to live a good life in the city and receive the best education. They probably never expected the Feng family to treat her like this.

The shameless Feng family not only did not raise her for a minute, but they also blinded her and forcefully sold her to Liu Changjiu, that old man in his forties or fifties. When she grew up, the Feng family treated her as a commodity and always wanted to sell her to others. The Feng family did not reflect on this at all.

'The funniest thing was that even though she had already severed all ties with the Feng family, that couple would still bully Feng Qing with their blood ties.

Now that she heard Madam Crimson Snow speak the truth and say that she wasn't related to the Feng family by blood, not only was she not sad at all, but she also felt relaxed.

Feng Qing stared at Madam Crimson Snow and said seriously, "Then you should know who my biological parents are, right?" Since the Feng couple weren't her biological parents, where were her biological parents? What were their identities? Where were they?

Hearing their conversation, the surrounding Blood Demon Group's assassins retreated. However, they still looked at Feng Qing and Netherworld seriously. As long as Madam Crimson Snow gave the order again, they would immediately charge over. However, they also felt that it was very strange. Just a minute ago, Feng Qing and Madam Crimson Snow were still fighting each other, determined to kill each other. Now, the two of them were chatting like good friends.

Feng Qing smiled bitterly. She felt that things were really unpredictable. She never expected that she would believe Madam Crimson Snow's words without a doubt.

Madam Crimson Snow supported her head and folded her hands elegantly on her lap. She looked at Feng Qing and said, "Compared to your parents, I think you should understand Feng Yiru first. She's a legendary figure. I wonder how much you know about her?"

Feng Qing frowned and shook her head. "Other than knowing that she's a Nine-Star Fragrance Master, I don't know anything about her anymore. When I was brought back to the Feng family, I was only twelve years old. I had even less contact with Feng Yiru, my aunt. Even if we add it up, the time we spent together wouldn't exceed two months."

Although she hadn't interacted with Feng Yiru for long, the two of them got along well. Very quickly, the two of them got close and had the best relationship. At that time, only Feng Yiru treated her sincerely from the bottom of her heart in the Feng family. As for what Fu Anlan said about her daughter, it was only limited to her. In private, she was biased towards Feng Jianing. Even the food she and Feng Jianing ate had to be differentiated. The food she gave her was pitifully lacking in nutrition, and the food she gave Feng Jianing was the best in the family.

Madam Crimson Snow said, "Then I'll tell you today. First of all, your aunt, Feng Yiru, is a top genius. Be it the perfume or the poison, it's only the tip of the iceberg of her talent. Just as she was at the peak of her life, she met a man. Have you heard of the Seven Stars Continent? That man is from the Seven Stars Continent. Moreover, the man has monstrous authority in the Seven Stars Continent. He was the one who placed your aunt, Feng Yiru, under house arrest. At that time, Feng Yiru was only seventeen or eighteen years old.”

Upon hearing the words “Seven Stars Continent”, Netherworld, who was standing behind, couldn’t help but look at Madam Crimson Snow. However, he didn’t say or do anything.

Madam Crimson Snow continued, “To describe it in a more appropriate way, that man was a lunatic through and through. He placed Feng Yiru under house arrest for six years and forced her to give birth to four children. Fortunately, the heavens blessed her. Feng Yiru escaped by chance..”
