Duke Raymond : "..."

At this moment, he suddenly had a thought that he's probably dreaming. How did the incomparably beautiful Miss Feng Qing become the Healer of A Dark Organization? The contrast was too great, right?

He secretly pinched his palm and felt a stabbing pain. He knew that this wasn't a dream. Everything in front of him was real. He looked at Madam Crimson Snow and Feng Qing, who was smiling, and suddenly thought of a possibility.

However, before he could ask, Madam Crimson Snow saw through his thoughts and said, "I know what you want to ask, but I'm not joking with you. Qingqing is indeed the Healer. It's all thanks to her that I can escape the torture of the Blood Venomous Bug."

Duke Raymond: "???"

After obtaining confirmation again, he finally accepted this fact. It wasn't that he wanted to accept it, but he had no choice but to accept it. After all, Madam Crimson Snow was his mother, and he naturally had to believe his mother's words.

When his gaze landed on Feng Qing's palm-sized face, Raymond's eyes gradually changed from confusion to respect and admiration. He never expected that Feng Qing was actually the Healer. It was too unbelievable.

Duke Raymond asked, "Miss Qingqing, are you really the Healer?"

Feng Qing smiled faintly and gestured for him to keep quiet. "Duke Raymond, you have to keep this a secret for me. I don't want this identity to be exposed."

Just as she spoke to Raymond, there was a shiver of cold behind her, as if someone had turned the air conditioner on.

Duke Raymond nodded. Actually, he was still a little stunned. This matter was too shocking for him. He didn't expect that the woman he had always liked was the Healer who was called the Miracle Doctor.

Madam Crimson Snow said, "It's been hard on you this time. I'll send you out."

Feng Qing nodded and instructed, "Madam, although your illness has been treated, your body is still very weak. If you want to completely recover, you have to replenish your nutrition and have a good rest for a period of time. This is the prescription. Later on, get someone to help you collect the herbs. Remember to have enough herbs and the herbs are aged well. Take two times a day, one after breakfast and one after dinner. There will be one treatment every seven days and a total of three treatments will do." As she spoke, she handed a prescription that she had written in advance to the butler. The butler received it with both hands and was extremely respectful to her. Not only was the butler like this, but all the servants in the Duke's Manor looked at Feng Qing with gratitude.

Duke Raymond smiled and said, "Miss Qingqing, no matter what, I'm really grateful to you this time. You've already saved my mother twice."

A few days ago at the shooting range, Feng Qing was the first to discover the killer, which was why she saved Madam Crimson Snow. Now, she has even treated her chronic illness.

Feng Qing smiled and said, "Duke Raymond, you're too polite. This is what I should do. If there's nothing else, I'll go back first." With that, she put on her new mask and cap, put on a black robe, and walked out of the Duke's Manor with Netherworld. The matter here had already ended, so there was no point in staying.

Duke Raymond hurriedly followed beside Feng Qing. His face was about to bloom with laughter, and his attitude was even more passionate. "Miss Qingqing, I didn't expect you to hide so deeply. You became a Miracle

Doctor at such a young age. You're really too outstanding. Amongst your peers, you're definitely the strongest. Even when compared to the older ones, you're definitely invincible. My admiration for you is like the waters of the Mississippi River, flowing non-stop. I finally understand something. I'm not worthy of such a perfect and outstanding you."

With that, he took a deep breath and continued flattering her. "Miss Qingqing, you're electricity, you're light, and you're the only legend in my heart. Someone like me can only treat you as a goddess and treat you as a beacon on the road to life."

aymond glanced at Netherworld in confusion. He felt that he was getting colder the more he spoke, as if someone had stuffed ice cubes into his body, and this cold air was coming from Netherworld.

The next second, Netherworld flashed and appeared between Raymond and Feng Qing, separating them. Duke Raymond frowned slightly and glared at Netherworld in dissatisfaction. Then, he went around to Feng Qing's other side.

Before he could speak, his vision blurred again. Netherworld actually separated him and Feng Qing again. Just like that, the two of them did it a few more times. In the end, Feng Qing was dizzy from the two of them swaying in front of her..
