Feng Qing glared at Netherworld and threatened, "I advise you to watch yourself, and to watch your words. Don't forget that your happiness for the rest of your life is in my hands!"

Behind the golden mask, the man's expression was ugly. "Feng Qing, let me tell you, if you don't cure me, I promise you'll regret it in the future."

Feng Qing: "..."

Upon hearing this, she was dumbfounded. She didn't know why Netherworld said that. Why would she regret it?

After looking at Netherworld carefully, she did not feel like he knew that she was the Blood Loli. If he knew that she was the Blood Loli, Netherworld would have long assumed the posture of an instructor.

What did Netherworld mean? Was it purely to scare her? After thinking for a while, she still didn't understand what it meant.

Feng Qing said, "Don't worry, I'll treat you, but not now. I still have to stay in Country F for a period of time. I'm not that stupid. What if you attack me after I cured you? You don't have to worry. I'll continue to treat you during this period and let you recover a little every day. The day I leave Bali will be the day you completely recover. As long as you don't attack me, I guarantee that you'll become more combatant than before!"

etherworld : "..."

With that, Feng Qing smiled at the man. From his tightly clenched hands, she could tell that the man was about to explode from anger. If not for the fact that his lifeline was in her hands, he would have already killed her.

Feng Qing's beautiful eyes turned and she hurriedly changed the topic. She didn't want to completely anger the instructor. There was a reason why this man was called the King of Killers. If he really wanted to fight her to the death, she wouldn't be able to gain any advantage.

Feng Qing said, "By the way, did you look in the mirror? There's a place on your head that's bald."

etherworld ignored her. He was definitely still angry, so she said softly, "How about this? On account of you protecting me desperately just now, I'll go back and make a bottle of hair nutrient solution for you. As long as you persist in using it for three days, your baldy's condition will be cured. Consider it my repayment."

etherworld: "2???"

If not for the fact that he had to continue pretending to be Netherworld, he would have already thrown the bald wig on Feng Qing's face. What did she mean by developing a bottle of nutrient solution for him? Was it necessary for him when he's young and strong?

Feng Qing did not know what the man was thinking. She was still sighing in her heart. Men nowadays were really under a lot of pressure. A powerful figure like the instructor actually had balding troubles.

Afraid that the man would not agree, she continued, "You have to listen to me. You have to treat balding early. Otherwise, when you get older, you'll have a Mediterranean. At that time, you'll look even uglier than now."

etherworld said coldly, "How long will it take to cure it?"

Feng Qing smiled and said, "If nothing goes wrong, it should start taking effect in three days. According to your current situation, after continuing treatment for a week, it should..." Before she could finish speaking, etherworld said, "I'm asking about my lifeline!"

Feng Qing: "..."

After a short moment of shock, she immediately understood. It turned out that he didn't care about his hair at all and was more concerned about sex life. However, this was also human nature. After all, one could shave their hair or wear a wig. However, there's no helping it when he's impotent. After thinking for a while, she replied, "If nothing goes wrong, you'll be able to recover after fifteen days of continuous treatment. That will also be the day I leave this place."

Netherworld hugged his arms and said in a cold voice, "Fifteen days it is. If I still haven't recovered by then, you can just wait for my crazy revenge."

The revenge he was talking about was not about fighting and killing. Instead, when he returned to the Xie Manor, he would go all out and take "inhumane" revenge on Feng Qing. He swore in his heart that he would definitely make her suffer for fifteen days.

At the entrance of the hotel.

Feng Qing pushed the door open and got out of the car. After waving goodbye to Netherworld, she entered the hotel. Netherworld looked at her back and couldn't help but grit his teeth. This heartless woman actually had the mood to laugh after making her husband suffer so badly. Looking at her innocent appearance, it was really infuriating.

Another twenty minutes later, Netherworld arrived at the Presidential Manor. He went straight to his room and closed the door and window before taking off the golden mask on his face..
