Feng Qing said calmly, "If I remember correctly, you're a five-star Fragrance Master, right? In other words, you can go to the fifth to the eighth floor. Which floor do you need me to press?"

In the preliminary round, Feng Jianing won the championship at the start. At the same time, the International Fragrance Alliance gave her a fragrance master certificate, and that certificate was a five-star one.

Hearing the word five-star, Feng Jianing revealed a hint of arrogance on her face. She said smugly, "Although I'm only a Five-star Fragrance Master, I was invited by the President of the International Fragrance Alliance,

Mr. Charles. Therefore, I can enter the exhibition area on the ninth floor." With that, she and Tessa looked at each other before looking at Feng Qing. "Qingqing, if you also want to go to the ninth floor, I can invite Mr.

Charles..."

Without waiting for her to finish, Charles, who was standing side by side with Xing Yue, said, "Feng Qing? Hmm... Why don't I remember her name being in the registered list of fragrance masters?" Seeing that everyone was turning to look at him, Charles sneered and looked at Feng Qing disdainfully. "According to the rules, I can't bring an unregistered fragrance master to the ninth floor."

Hearing this, Feng Jianing almost laughed out loud. She didn't expect Charles to be so supportive. The gaze she used to look at Feng Qing was filled with mockery. With Charles's support, she was no longer fighting alone against Feng Qing.

Ding! The elevator stopped and it sounded. The elevator door opened, and Feng Jianing walked out with Charles and the others. There were a few security personnel at the entrance of the elevator. When they saw Charles, they greeted him respectfully. Feng Jianing, who came with him, wasn't stopped for inspection.

Feng Jianing took a few large strides forward and turned around to look at the elevator. She wanted to see with her own eyes how miserable Feng Qing looked after she was chased away by the security personnel.

As expected, just as Feng Qing walked out of the elevator, a security guard blocked her path. "I'm sorry, Miss. Please show your credentials."

The credentials mentioned by the security personnel are referring to the Fragrance Master's certificate. Any fragrance master who had registered in the International Fragrance Alliance would have a Fragrance Master's certificate. The credentials were also printed with specific stars.

Without waiting for Feng Qing to speak, Xing Yue also walked out of the elevator. He was the President's adopted son. There were not many places in Country F that he could not enter. This was not a secret military base, so it was naturally impossible to stop him. He was also planning to bring Feng Qing in.

Feng Qing smiled at the security personnel, but she did not speak. Instead, she took out a black card from her chest. The security personnel looked at the card and was slightly stunned. He hurriedly took the card and swiped it on the equipment.

“Nine Planets!” When this word group jumped out, the security personnel’s expression was incomparably excited. He handed the black card back to Feng Qing with both hands and turned to the side. His voice was actually trembling as he said, “Beautiful lady, welcome. Please come in.”

Feng Qing pocketed the black card and smiled politely at the security personnel. Then, she walked in elegantly. As for Xing Yue and the rest, they all entered as VIPs.

Charles had walked far away and realized that Feng Jianing wasn’t beside him. Hence, he turned around and asked, “Jianing, what are you doing?”

At this moment, Feng Qing walked past Feng Jianing with a smile. Feng Jianing ignored Charles and frowned at Feng Qing. “Qingqing, how did you get in? Also, what level card did you take out just now?”

In fact, after the International Fragrance Alliance registered every fragrance master, they would award a certificate to the fragrance master and a card containing the fragrance master’s personal information. The certificate was suitable to be placed at home, and the card was suitable to be brought to verify their identities.

Feng Qing ignored Feng Jianing and walked past her directly, as if she didn’t hear her at all. Feng Jianing stomped her feet viciously, but she still chased after her. “Feng Qing, tell me the truth. Did you steal someone else’s card?” Feng Jianing asked.

“Feng Jianing, please don’t think of me with your dirty thoughts, much less using those thoughts on the security personnel.” Feng Qing said in disgust.

Feng Jianing was so retorted that she couldn't speak. She didn't know when it happened, but the person who she bullied all day had actually become so eloquent. Every time she crossed swords with Feng Qing, she was at a disadvantage. Feng Jianing was flustered and threatened, "You stole someone else's fragrance master's card. I'm going to expose you."
