

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 511

Chapter 511 Stall

The royal guard member had already said it very tactfully. He didn't understand why Xing Yue was only interested in the ring. Shouldn't he focus his attention on the small round box? Moreover, President Charles had already judged that the thing in the small round box was the source of the problem in the competition.

At this moment, Feng Qing walked over. Looking at the red coral ring in Xing Yue's hand, she said innocently, "I'm sorry, can you return the ring to me? This is an ordinary ring. I bought it for fun when I was shopping at the stall."

Xing Yue : "..."

If not for the fact that he was afraid of exposing this matter, he would have shouted, "Only a ghost would believe". If he could buy the Demon Blood Ring from the stall, he would find a piece of tofu and kill himself.

His eyes met Feng Qing's. Looking at the clean and clear gaze in the woman's eyes, he couldn't combine the words Feng Qing and the underworld, especially the terrifying Blood Demon Group together.

Not only him, but anyone who saw Feng Qing would probably not think that she was Madam Crimson Snow, who could lead the entire Blood Demon Group. After all, she was too young and cute.

After looking at the red coral ring again, Xing Yue was very certain that this ring was real and definitely not an imitation. Moreover, did anyone dare to imitate Madam Crimson Snow's ring? "We can't let too many people notice this ring, or else it will definitely be discovered by someone with ulterior motives. With this thing, they can command the entire Blood Demon Group. Countless people want to take it for themselves. If they find out that this thing is on Feng Qing, then her situation..." In an instant, Xing Yue thought of many things.

Smiling at Feng Qing, Xing Yue stuffed the red coral ring into her hand and covered it tightly, as if he was afraid that others would see it.

Feng Qing put the ring back into her pocket and smiled. "Thank you, Brother Xing Yue. I only saw this ring by chance at a stall in Country F, but I forgot where it was. I'll tell you when I remember."

In Xing Yue's eyes, Feng Qing's smile was even more beautiful than a flower. Her bright and dazzling eyes and mesmerizing face were a form of enjoyment to look at her smile. It could make one forget all their worries and troubles. Especially when she said 'Brother Xing Yue' just now, her voice was mixed with a coquettish tone. It made Xing Yue's heart bloom with joy as a pleasant feeling rose spontaneously. The corners of Xing Yue's lips curled up uncontrollably. Looking at Feng Qing's smiling face, he concluded that his resistance to Feng Qing's smile was zero. If there was a hint of coquettishness in her smile, he would completely put down all his defenses and surrender.

At this moment, the royal guard walked over with a small round box. "Sir, this was found on contestant Feng Qing and was also mixed in the perfume."

Xing Yue glanced at the little round box and then looked at Feng Qing and asked, "Tell me how this thing came about. Don't tell me that you bought it from a stall."

Feng Qing rubbed her hands and blew out a few mouthfuls of hot air. "You might not believe me, but this is the truth. This thing isn't mine. Someone secretly placed it in my pocket just now. As for what their intentions are, you'll understand after seeing the current situation."

The moment this was said, the other contestants immediately couldn't take it anymore. They all stretched their necks and scolded.

"Bullsh*t! What do you mean it's not yours? Could it be that it's someone else's?"

“That’s right. Someone placed it in your pocket? Although your excuse is very clever, it’s filled with loopholes. For example, why didn’t you take the initiative to mention it at the start or catch the person who placed the thing in your pocket?”

“You barely made it into the finals to begin with, and now you’ve done such an embarrassing thing in the finals. Why on earth did you do this? What good is it to you to disturb the order of the competition? Or were you instructed by someone to deliberately cause trouble here?”

“Is there a need to ask? She just wants to eliminate all of us and then let herself win the championship to the greatest extent. This kind of harming others to benefit herself is too dirty.”

“Feng Qing, don’t quibble anymore. Facts speak louder than words. Since it was found on you, it’s useless no matter how you deny it. Someone like you is not worthy to be a perfume maker!”

After hearing Charles’s judgment, the contestants were completely angry. They were all very agitated, especially the contestants who had failed many times in making perfume. If not for the royal guards stopping them, they would have rushed forward and attacked.
