

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 512

Chapter 512 Framing

It was normal when they thought about it. After all, everyone had come all the way to Country F to participate in the competition so that they could achieve a good result. Many people had spent a long time preparing for this, and they had practiced all sorts of perfume hundreds to thousands of times. Now that all their hard work had been wasted, they were naturally angry.

The corners of Feng Qing's lips curled up, and her large eyes swirled with light. She placed her two hands in her pockets and stood there without moving. Today, she was wearing a pink coat and a pink bear hair clip on her head. She looked very youthful. Coupled with her current expression, she was simply as cute as possible.

"Hmph, this is a competition. You've made a serious mistake. Don't think that it's fine by pretending to be cute."

"Feng Qing, you looked so innocent, but in actuality, you're really a vicious woman. A person like you shouldn't have participated in the competition. You'll pay the price for your actions."

"With the Imperial Concubine Anna here today, it's useless even if you want to escape. I advise you to admit it obediently, or else it will only be worse."

After seeing that Feng Qing did not react for a long time, the contestants could not help but attack her. Although Feng Qing was very attractive now, when they thought of what she had done, not only did they not like it, but they were also filled with disgust.

Finally, Feng Qing said, "I only remember that when I was about to walk back after taking the spices, Feng Jianing bumped into me."

As soon as these words were out, everyone instantly turned their eyes to Feng Jianing. Feng Jianing was only stunned for a moment before she hurriedly revealed a shocked and wronged expression. "Qingqing, how can you be like this? We're sisters after all. Why did you frame me? Everyone went to get the spices together. There's limited space around here, so it's inevitable that there would be some accidents. What can it prove even if I bumped into you? After all, that thing didn't come out of my pocket. Moreover, why would I do this?" As she spoke, Feng Jianing's eyes turned red. Her eyes were covered in a layer of mist. That innocent and aggrieved expression came easily. Her acting skills were comparable to an experienced actor in the entertainment industry.

With that, she was afraid that others wouldn't believe her, so she said to Charles, "President Charles, I would like to check the surveillance video on the spot. Facts speak louder than words. This is the only way to prove that I'm innocent."

As expected, Charles was very obedient. Without thinking, he directly instructed the staff to check the surveillance camera. Very quickly, the royal guards and the members of the organizing committee checked the video at the scene. Everyone saw it very clearly. When they were retrieving the spices just now, Feng Jianing had indeed bumped into Feng Qing's arm.

After looking at the video a few times, Charles turned around and looked at Feng Qing. His expression was incomparably gloomy. "As a member of the Feng family, why did you deliberately frame Feng Jianing? She's your younger sister. No matter what, you're her older sister. You actually did this in order to clear your name. You really subverted my worldview!"

Imperial Concubine Anna asked the person beside her, "Which country is this Feng Qing from?"

The guard beside her replied, "She's from Xia country."

Imperial Concubine Anna couldn't help but take a deep breath. The name Xia country was the last thing she wanted to hear. After all, Xia country was now one of the three major countries in the world. Its national strength was unfathomable, and its economy was even better than Country F's. The two countries couldn't be compared at all, but there had to be an outcome for this matter. Therefore, Imperial Concubine Anna quickly made up her mind.

She instructed the attendant, "Contact the people from Xia country's embassy immediately and get them to send someone over. They have to give an explanation for this. As the Imperial Concubine of Country F, I won't allow anyone to insult such a sacred competition."

Hearing the Imperial Concubine's words, Feng Jianing cried even harder, but her heart was blooming with laughter. There were a few times when she almost couldn't hold in her laughter. Fortunately, she held it in. "Hmph, Feng Qing, you little slut. Let's see what you do this time." Feng Jianing felt extremely good in her heart.

After checking the video, Feng Qing was at a loss for words. Moreover, Imperial Concubine Anna had already said that what awaited Feng Qing would be serious punishments, as well as being the top trending topic, and she would be notorious.

Not even before noon, the news would be sent back to Xia country. After being deliberately exaggerated by the media and news, when Feng Qing was sent back to the country, she would definitely be despised by countless people!

In the finals of the International Fragrance Competition, she tampered with the public spices, causing many contestants to be affected and disrupting the fairness and order of the competition. She had really embarrassed the Xia country's people.
