

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 517

Chapter 517 Change Of Four Seasons

Feng Yuanzhou and Fu Anlan also have the same thoughts as Cao Beining. As long as they thought that Feng Jianing could surpass a Nine-Star Fragrance Master, they become excited. Now, Feng Jianing could only rely on herself whether she won or lost.

Xing Yue chatted with Imperial Concubine Anna for a while before bringing people to investigate the matter of framing Feng Qing. As long as they found who placed the round box in Feng Qing's pocket, it would be equivalent to finding the culprit.

After seeing his subordinates start to move, Xing Yue couldn't help but look at Feng Qing. He had to admit that the surprise Feng Qing had given him today was beyond his imagination.

Haha, Nine-Star Fragrance Master YLL? You hid it too deeply. Xing Yue curled his lips and couldn't help but sigh in his heart

When a victorious music rang out in the competition venue, the host walked onto the stage and officially announced the end of the competition. Then, the staff from the International Fragrance Alliance started to collect the works of all the contestants and handed them to the judges on the spot. Every contestant handed over two bottles of perfume and marked which bottle was made a few days ago and which bottle was made on the spot. This way, the judges could give marks to the two rounds of perfume.

Just as the judges were busy, Imperial Concubine Anna walked over. Although she didn't have the right to give marks to the contestants, as the honorary appraiser of the International Fragrance Alliance, she had the right to smell the perfume first than anyone else.

Imperial Concubine Anna said, "Who made this perfume?" Just as she approached, her eyes were attracted by the color of a bottle of perfume. A judge standing in front said, "This is the first perfume contestant Feng Qing made

-Change of Four Seasons." Usually, after the production was completed, every contestant would give a pleasant name according to the foundation and color of the perfume. Some contestants even deliberately gave the perfume a very strange name in order to attract the judges.

Imperial Concubine Anna looked in Feng Qing's direction, her well-maintained face filled with admiration. She smiled and said, "As expected of a Nine-Star Fragrance Master. This bottle of perfume looks like it has a life in it."

The 'Change of Four Seasons' perfume that Feng Qing made was using a flat crystal bottle as a container. The bottle was crystal clear and had a beautiful arc. The perfume in the bottle was divided into four colors. From top to bottom, it represented the light green of spring, the blue of summer sky, the golden of autumn, and the silver of winter. The four colors were placed in a bottle, but they did not dissolve into each other. The boundaries were clear, and just the visual sense was very comfortable.

Feng Qing smiled. "Your Highness, you can shake it. There will be a surprise -".

Imperial Concubine Anna nodded and picked up the 'Change of Four Seasons' perfume bottle to shake it gently. Instantly, the four colors alternated and invaded each other. However, to her surprise, the four colors quickly began to fade at the same time, and finally, the entire bottle of perfume became transparent.

At this point, Imperial Concubine Anna couldn't help but praise again. "Oh, my god. YLL, you're not only a fragrance master, but also an excellent magic master. This is simply amazing!"

Hearing this, Feng Qing smiled. "Please review."

Imperial Concubine Anna didn't stand on ceremony and sprayed the perfume. The moment the perfume sprayed out, she closed her eyes and carefully smelled it. Then, her face revealed an intoxicated and satisfied expression.

By smelling the fragrance, she had a feeling that she had returned to her childhood. That world where technology was not very advanced and there were no tall buildings. Every day, she went to and from school and passed by a large paddy field. As the smell changed, the surrounding scenery started to change from spring. There was the fragrance of peach blossoms in spring, the refreshing smell of watermelons in summer, the fragrant orange smell of autumn, and the blooming of plum blossoms in winter.

Imperial Concubine Anna was incomparably amazed and touched. She had not recalled her childhood for a long time, nor had she returned to nature for a long time. Feng Qing had used a bottle of perfume to bring her back to her childhood. She had also felt the miraculous journey of the four seasons and the endless scenery.

A moment later, Imperial Concubine Anna slowly opened her eyes, but her expression was still immersed in the fragrance of the perfume. Her eyes were filled with splendor as she said, "What a beautiful smell. I can't describe my current feelings with words. If YLL can make me a perfume like this, it will be my lifelong honor!"
